

THE SEYMORE KING.—Last fall, Horatio Seymour now elected by the Five Points democracy as Governor of New York, made a speech at Ithaca, in which he said—"If it be true that slavery must be abolished to save the Union, then the people of the South should be allowed to withdraw themselves from the Government, which cannot give them the protection guaranteed by the terms."

Mr. Seymour's demoracy is just this.—The constitution guarantees protection to rebel property—especially slaves. If the Government cannot protect the rebels, and assist them in catching their niggers, then it ought to recognize secession and submit to a dissolution of the Union. That is "standing on the constitution" just as Jo Lane and Jeff Davis "stand" on it; and Seymour is just such a democrat as Floyd, Yancey, and Twiggs are. No wonder the excavator and the footpad are each sucking one of Seymour's thumbs.

HOW SOLDIERS VOTE.—The March Chunk (Penn.) Gazette says of the late election, "Carbon county has gone, but by how large a majority we are unable to say at present. Notwithstanding this seeming defeat there has been a large Republican gain in the county. We have sent 1,114 soldiers from Carbon county, who are not allowed to vote, because a Democratic Supreme Court has pronounced their vote unconstitutional. Last fall the soldiers in the army did vote and out of the 241 votes cast by our heroes in the field from this county, only seventeen were cast for the Democratic candidate. If the soldiers had been allowed to vote at this election, the democratic ticket would have received a smaller proportion of their vote than it did last year—from the closest estimate, not over one to twenty three, a gain of fifty per cent since the vote of the twelve apostles, which stood cast to eleven."

NOR A CANDIDATE.—The fellow who is now "running the Salem Statesman for the benefit of Garrison's estate," says that in 1864 he shall not labor for the election of a "secession traitor." By this we infer that he doesn't intend being a candidate for Public Printer. Or does he intend merely to say that the "labor" will again be done as in 1858 by him who "picks the dual dog on his back and barks for him"? Perhaps he only means again to try to slip into the shoes of a dead man.

SOLD OUT.—It is said that Jo Lane has sold his farm, "toll gate" undrill, in Umpqua, and contemplates leaving on the underground railroad for Dixie. The "Confederacy" needs his services, and we can spare him just as well as not. The rebels had better make him captain of the army, and have him go round "giving blessing" their ragamuffins who are sullying for shoes and whisky. A letter from Jo Lane was formerly considered equal to a gill of whisky, by his old constituency in Oregon.

THE ORIGINAL STROKES.—Livingston gives an account of a few tribes of savages in Africa, who lived in the desert, subsisting on insects, and using water which the winds sucked up out of the sand through straw, and then splitting it out into a leather sack.

HARPER'S PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION IN THE UNITED STATES.

NOTICE.—The wall paper will contain a clear and succinct account of the Formation of the Confederacy of the States; the Formation and Adoption of the Constitution of the United States, and the Establishment of the National Government; the origin, development, and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed until their final extinction in the Great Rebellion.

The history will commence a full account drawn from the most authentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of one section; the great uprising of the People for the maintenance of the National Law and Protection; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy; and the battles by land and sea.

NOTICE.—The illustrations will comprise portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; maps of the different charles; plans of the leading actions; views of every scene of interest, and of the most important battles. These illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot by artists engaged for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

NOTICE.—The Emancipationists in Missouri elected 22 out of 33 members of the State Senate, and a large working majority in the House of Representatives. Four Emancipation Congressmen have been elected, and two U. S. Senators are to be chosen this winter.

NOTICE.—The Walla Walla paper of Dec. 27 speaks of the mysterious disappearance of Mr. Chase, formerly of Clackamas county, who has been residing in that valley the past summer, engaged in the dairy business. Fears are entertained that he has been murdered, and circumstances have led to the arrest of two men, who were to have had an examination last Monday.

NOTICE.—The Farmer has advices from San Francisco to Dec. 15, which say that prices for apples ranged from 3 to 5¢. Several fine vines, composed principally of Spitzenberg, went as high as 7¢.

Dec. 25, by Rev. T. H. Small, Mr. J. G. Metteer and Miss Mary A. Smith.

Mr. Edger: As it is the tendency of all mortals to pass away, and surviving friends, laying the thing to heart, are led to contemplate likewise their latter end, I am drawn to notice by a few words the loss of Lieut. John T. Aperson, 1st Regiment Oregon Cavalry, and a member of the Oregon City Bachelor-Vest Club.

Yes—John has gone to the better land, of mystery, that bounds whence travelers do sometimes return with solemnly happy countenances, and his surviving friends, particularly members of the club, look earnestly after, waiting till the time for their departure to that blessed place still awaiting. We have not seen or heard from our departed brother since his change, but we have no doubt he stands like a man, and that were we here present with us he would repeat the scriptural injunction to members of the club, who yet wait their call, to "Go and do all we can."

The remaining members of the vest club, incensed for us, Mr. M. Rineson, W. C. Johnson, John Bush, and Dr. Loney. Two of the club have departed into the solemn silence of heavenly mysteries, and the balance wait with anxious impatience for their call.

NOTICE.—The next meeting of the Clackamas County Association in aid of the Sanitary Commission will be held at the rooms of the Association on Wednesday evening, Jan. 14, 1863.

A grand ball was given on New Year's evening in Mr. Harvey's New Mill, which was well attended, notwithstanding the storm—some fifty or sixty couples being present.

Miss Clara McKeau and Miss Josephine Jeffers, of Astoria, and Mrs. Thompson, of Clatsop Prairie, lately collected $271 for the Sanitary Commission.

Mr. Charles Murray, Painter, of this city, has presented us with a handsome sign for our office, on which he has our thanks.
