

During the battle of Fredericksburg Heights, Gen. Burnside was at the Phillips House (on the Falmouth side of the Rappahannock) nearly all day. His position most of the time was on the upper balcony, where, with a powerful glass, he was watching the movements across the river; he had his staff and couriers running to and fro, conveying orders and bringing reports of the proceedings of the fight. He gave orders with promptitude and succinctly. "Lose no time," was the almost universal injunction to every courier. A smoky mist obscured the view in the morning.— It was the hazy sky of an Indian summer day, and the same genial warmth of the sun made more remarkable by its contrast to the recent intense cold.

A very sad and fatal accident occurred in Springfield precinct in this country, last Tuesday morning. While Mr. Edward Powers was hitching his horses to a wagon, they became frightened, and commenced kicking. Mr. Powers became entangled in the gearing, and there being no person present to render assistance, he was so badly injured that he died soon after the accident. Mr. Powers was a very estimable citizen and a man of unblemished character. He leaves a wife and several children, and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn his untimely death.— Eugene Republican 25th.

DIED—Mr. Daniel McQuerry, an emigrant from Round Grove, Marion Co., Iowa, who had a few weeks since located in this county, died suddenly of apoplexy on the 12th inst., near Corvallis, where his family still reside. Mr. M. found many old acquaintances by coming to this State, who mourn his sudden death, and hereby extend to his beloved wife and family their heartfelt condolence. Mr. M. was aged 57 years, 7 months and 21 days.— Union.

A meeting of the working men of Manchester, England, was held on the 31st December, when resolutions supporting the Federal cause were adopted, and an address to President Lincoln was agreed upon. The resolutions expressed high satisfaction at the Emancipation Proclamation and other measures tending at once to give freedom to the slaves, and restore peace to America. The address to Lincoln congratulates him on his humane and right-ous policy of emancipation, and beseeches him to finish the work effectually.

A meeting of the working men of this State, a Democratic newspaper in this city covered its bulletin with this announcement:

See Ohio,

A friend of ours stepping up to the bulletin, wrote underneath,

SANITARY COMMISSION.—Washington Territory has subscribed about $2,000 for this laudable purpose. The Sound region, alone, has subscribed nearly $10,000, which, taken in connection with our sparse population, is probably better than has been done by any other portion of the Pacific coast.—Washington Standard.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The ceremonies attending the commencement of work on the Pacific Railroad, at Sacramento, took place on the 8th inst., and were witnessed by a large congregation. Gov. Stanford threw the first shovel full of dirt, amidst great cheering. Speeches were then made, and a good time had generally.

EMANUCTION.—The Senate of California passed resolutions, on the 6th inst., endorsing the President's Emancipation Proclamation, by a vote of 31 to 8.

Dr. Bellows, President of the Sanitary Commission, acknowledges the receipt, altogether, of $185,213.17 from the Pacific slope.

HARPER'S PICTORIAL HISTORY of THE GREAT REBELLION In the United States.

WILL shortly be issued in Numbers, a complete History of the Great Rebellion in the United States. The work has been for many months in course of preparation by a writer very qualified for the task.

The introduction will contain a clear and succinct account of the Formation of the Confederacy of the States; the Formation and Adoption of the Constitution of the United States, and the Establishment of the National Government; the origin, development, and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed until their final culmination in the Great Rebellion.

The History will comprise a full account, drawn from the most authentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of one section; the great Uprising of the People for the maintenance of the National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy; and the Battles by Land and Sea.

The Illustrations will comprise Portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of the diff'rent localities; Plans of the leading actions; Views of every scene of interest, and of the most important Battles. These illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot by artists deputed for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

Every facility at the command of the Publishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confidently believe that it will form the most reliable and valuable history which can be prepared of the Great Struggle for the American Union.

MODE and TERMS OF PUBLICATION. The work will be issued in Numbers, each consisting of 24 pages of the size of "Harper's Weekly," printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in about Twenty Numbers.

The Numbers will be issued at intervals of about three weeks.

The price for each Number, which will contain matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be five cents.

To Carriers, and Periodical Agents and News-dealers, liberal discounts will be made from the retail price.

Every housekeeper experiences how difficult it is to make good bread, and we therefore take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that to insure uniformly light, sweet, and nutritious bread, it is only necessary to use REDINGTON & CO.'S YEAST POWDER. As every respect it excels all similar preparations ever offered to the public.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.
EXECUTIVE OFFICE, PORTLAND, OREGON, January 6, 1863. By the President of the United States through Major General George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alfred, commanding the District of Oregon. I have been requested to issue the Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers,—and will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering their fellow citizens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always responded to any demand for their military services, will in like manner respond to the call; thereby showing their loyalty to the Government, and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men, when mustered, will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government.

Principles to be observed by the company, which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained. The men are in such case entitled to forty cents a day for the use of their horses and horse equipments.

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Date City, and perhaps at other places. By the Governor.

ADDISON C. GIBBS, Adjutant General.
