

A BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATION.—It is said of the Icelanders that they scrupulously observe the usage of reading the sacred Scriptures every morning, the whole family joining in the singing and prayers. When the Icelander awakes, he salutes no person until he has saluted God. He usually hastens to the door, adores there the Author of Nature and Providence, then steps back into the dwelling, saying to his family, "God grant you a good day." What a beautiful illustration is this of the Christian obligation on the part of households to recognize and worship God!

TIMES of general calamity and confusion have ever been productive of the greatest minds. The purest ore is produced from the hottest furnace, and the brightest thunderbolt is elicited from the darkest storm.

To the Memory of M. S. CROW.

Respectfully inscribed to her friends.

A shadow rests upon our home.

The light has gone to heaven,

And with its going, tender ties

Were sadly, nicely riven.

Oh it was hard, in early youth,

To give our darling up,

Yet Father, meekly to we try

To drink the bitter cup.

Childs not our grief, you do not know

How our poor hearts were wrong,

To see our hopes so rudely crushed,

Te we die so young.

She was our all, a gentle child,

Fair-haired, and lovely grace

Sat on her brow, while sunny smiles

Went flitting o'er her face.

We must not grieve that she is gone,

But oh, we miss her so,

Miss the dear tones that always fell

Lies music soft and low.

Our hearts go throb'ing all the day

With such a burning throb,

And when the night comes stealing on

We scarce can bear our woe.

And yet we feel her spirit comes,

Sure grieved that we should weep,

And weep our sorrows all night long

In faithful vigil keep.

"Weep not," she says, "God called me hence;

Because he's made so rough,

And though I know not many griefs,

He reckoned them enough."

We know it's best, her tender feet

Could never find their road;

We thank thee, Father, thou didst take

Her to thine own abode. A FRIEND.

Dr. Baker's Pain Panacea

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully refunded by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the Stomach or Bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will easily restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take all the poison out of the part.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses you after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Ulcerated or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea, a relaxed state of the bowels, take a few doses of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve the pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton, and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have the Rheumatism, take a few doses of Pain Panacea, and the joints will be relieved. If you have the Neuralgia, apply the Pain Panacea internally, and you will soon be relieved.

If you have the Headache, take a few doses of Pain Panacea, and you will soon be relieved.

If you have the Cough, apply the Pain Panacea.
