

UNSONDNESS.—Some really good men and women cannot let slip an opportunity of saying anything that may be disagreeable. And this is an evil that perpetuates itself; for when Mr. Snarling comes and says to you something uncomplimentary of yourself or your near relatives, instead of you doing what you ought to do, pitying poor S., and recommending him some wholesome medicine—you are strongly tempted to rotot in kind; and thus you sink yourself to Snarling's level, and you carry on the row. Your proper course is either to speak kindly to poor Snarling, or not to speak to him at all.

There is something unsound about the man whom you never heard say a good word for any mortal, but a great many bad words of a great many mortals. There is unsoundness, verging on entire insanity, in the man who is always fancying that all about him are constantly plotting to thwart his plans and damage his character.—

There is unsoundness in the man who is constantly getting into furious altercations with his fellow passengers in steamers and railways, or getting into angry and lengthy correspondence with anybody in newspapers or otherwise.

There is unsoundness in the man who is ever telling you amazing stories which he fancies prove himself to be the bravest, cleverest, swiftest of mankind, but which (on his own showing) prove him to be a vaporizing goose.

There is unsoundness in the mortal whose memory is full to repletion of contemptible little stories, going to prove that all his neighbors are rogues or fools.

There is unsoundness in the sneaky person who stays a few weeks in a family, and sets each member of it against all the rest by secretly repeating to each exaggerated and malicious accounts of what has been said of him or her by the others.

There is unsoundness in the perverse person who resolutely does the opposite of what you wish and expect, who won't go to the pleasure excursion you had arranged on his account, or partake of the dish which has been cooked for his special eating.

There is unsoundness in the deluded and unamiable person who, by a grim, repellent平原的 demeanor and address, excites in the minds of young persons gloomy and repulsive ideas of religion which wiser and better folks find it very hard to rub away.

"Will my father be there?" said a little Scotch boy to some one who had been telling him of the happiest place in the universe, and recounting its joys. "Yes," was the reply. Said the little man, with precision, "Then I'll no gang."

He must have been a wretched scrouf of a Christian who left that impression on a young child's heart.

Health and Strength.—Under its influence is surprising. Each new case in which it is applied furnishes in the result a new certificate of its efficacy and excellence; and we have only to point to the accumulated testimony of physicians who have experienced its beneficial effects, to convince the most incredulous of its value.

Dr. REDINGTON, & CO., Agents,

Dr. Baker's Pain Panacea

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully refunded by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the Stomach or Bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose internally, morning noon, and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food disposes your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Canker or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a few doses of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve the pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton, and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Back, or Knees, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a Caked breast, apply the Pain Panacea as hot as home.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or gash on your nose, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take off all the inflammation, and heal the sore in a short time. Sold by all the principal druggists, and by REDINGTON, & CO., Agents,
