

Astoria School.

The school at Astoria closed the last term of the year on the 7th inst., winding up with a two days' examination and an exhibition on the night of the 7th. The result of the examination was highly satisfactory to parents and guardians, and visitors from abroad. The familiarity exhibited by the scholars with the branches of science which they had been pursuing, and their readiness to explain the questions put to them by critics who were present, showed that so far as they had advanced they were masters of the sciences they had been pursuing. We have seldom seen a school in any country in which the scholars at an examination did more credit to themselves and honored their teachers more than did the Astoria school of Mr. and Mrs. Deardorff during the exercises which have just closed the late term. The declamations were well delivered, the compositions evinced originality and depth of thought, and the dialogues were marked by a grace and native elegance of action.

EASTERN NEWS.

Thursday's Dispatch.
Louisville, May 16.—On Wednesday evening a party of mounted rebels marching on Franklin (Ky.) for the purpose of attacking an army train were met by a detachment of Federals. The rebels were routed with the loss of 5 killed and a number wounded and captured. Col. Jacobs in the fight on Sunday last with the rebels on the Cumberland lost 42 men, including three officers. Capt. Ghentle with several other rebel officers and 98 privates were killed and taken prisoners. Gen. John Morgan was in command with nine regiments, in all an aggregate of 4,000, which is still on the south side of the Cumberland, only small squads having crossed at different times and points. Col. Jacobs' force consisted of two regiments, and has probably defeated the Georgians' proposed raid into Kentucky. Col. Graham at Glasgow killed rebels and drove 200 to the north side of the Cumberland on Wednesday. There is now a considerable force of rebels on the north side of the river.

New York, 16th.—The Post last evening publishes a serious disagreement existing between Gen. Halleck and Hooker. It is positively stated that Hooker's new agreement planned before he left the south side of the Rappahannock, has been considered by Halleck. The steamer Albatross from Aqueduct brings word that about 57 of the rebels' regiments, Richmond papers say, are no doubt but that they are in the hands of the Federals. He received three bullets in the left arm and hand. This order was given on Saturday, he having given orders to fire on anything seen coming up the road before he left the lines, and on seeing Federal skirmishers before him he turned to retreat and was shot by his own men. His funeral is largely attended. Davis and the rebel cabinet were present. His body was sent to Lexington, and a statue of him is to be erected in the rebel capital.

Matamoros dates to 18th of April have been received. It is understood that the schooner Gen. Pinckney and West Florida are fitting out as privateers at Brazos and are only awaiting crews. Gen. Magruder has been at Brownsville for some weeks. The sloop Lapping has been seized on the Rio Grande by rebel authorities. She was from New York with a valuable cargo.

A Washington letter to the Commercial says it is certain that the Army of the Potomac lost a large number of prisoners and missing and that its dead would exceed the number of the returns heretofore published, that it left on the south bank of the Rappahannock 24 pieces of artillery, a quantity of arms and ammunition, and that a majority of the Generals and officers desire a new commander. Hooker frankly informed the President that he would resign if the step was considered desirable by the Government.

Washington 16th.—The Richmond papers have a telegram dated Tallahassee 12th, which says that the rebels have captured the removal of the enemy's baggage to the rear of Nashville. All quiet in front.

Washington, 16th.—The Enquirer says five or six transports had landed troops at West Point on the 13th who are throwing up entrenchments across from the Mattaponi to the Pamunkey rivers. From the fact that a number of officers and men are daily arriving from the Rappahannock to get leave of absence to go home, it is regarded as an indication that the army will not move at present. An official despatch from Paducah (Ky.) today says that on the night of the 12th, 50 men of the 1st Tennessee cavalry were taken up the Tennessee river in gunboats and landed at Breckinridge. They dashed across the country to Linden, surprised a rebel force three times their number, killed three, captured 10 privates, 10 conscripts, a lot of horses, arms, &c., and burned the Court House, which was the rebel depot, with a quantity of army supplies. We lost no men.

Cincinnati, 16th.—The application made to Judge Leavit to issue a writ of habeas corpus two days ago has been refused. The report from Washington that Valandigham was to be sent South, is not credited here. It is understood that Burnside will announce what disposition is to be made of him.

Thursday's New York Tribune criticizes very severely the operations of Gen. Stoneman, saying the damage inflicted on the enemy is so slight as to have caused the rebels no inconvenience. In conclusion it says it is idle to deny that the campaign of Gen. Hooker which began so auspiciously has come to a premature and ineffectual end. His losses are considerably heavier than published, and the estimates will not amount to less than 17,000 killed wounded and missing. The actual parol exceeds 17,000, but may be reduced a little. Lee is said to admit a loss of 18,000 which is far greater than ours in proportion to the strength of his army. Gen. Hooker's army still largely outnumbered the enemy and is undeniably in good spirits and condition.

Friday's Dispatch.
New York, 17th.—The Times' army correspondent says that the present force of Stoneman's corps, which rest four full divisions of 15,000 men.

Washington, 17th.—It is ascertained from a gentleman who has returned from the Army of the Potomac, that Hooker seems highly gratified with his recent visit to the President.

The river front of the enemy has been reconnoitered, and the discovery made that during the night of the 14th they threw up new and extensive works along the right of Hill's [corps] in the rear of Fredericksburg.

It is reported to-day that every soldier now in detail service in and around Washington and Baltimore and on the railroad of Virginia and Maryland will be forwarded to Hooker's command and their places supplied by Pennsylvania militia, which force, it is said, has been landed by Gov. Curtin.

The Marshal of the District of Columbia has seized under the Confiscation act the real and personal estate of Capt. J. N. Maffit, of the rebel privateer.

Murfreesboro, 17th.—The Chattanooga Rebel contains the following: Mobile, 14th.—Jackson Miss., is in possession of the enemy. We fought them all day but could not hold the city.

New York, 17th.—Steamer George Washington from New Orleans 10th, has arrived. An Opolunias letter of the 5th states that information from Grand Philadelph., 19.—Cook, reports that the sales of five-twenty, for last week, amounted to $10,000,000, this week promises to exceed that amount.

Washington, 19.—The official report of Col. Davis, commanding a portion of Gen. Stoneman's expedition, was two commanding officers and 33 enlisted men. We brought with us 100 mules and 15 horses, captured from the enemy. We captured in the course of our march a much larger number which we could not bring. The amount of property destroyed is estimated at $1,000,000.

Chicago, 19th.—A Washington special dispatch says Senator Wilson, who is now here, and who drew up the Conscription bill, is understood to differ entirely from decisions of the War Dept. ignoring the $300 exemption clause. The section relating to it is nearly a verbatim copy of the French law, which is executed as the present law is intended to be by its framers.

N. Y., 19th.—The Times' special says: The Richmond Enquirer of the 16th says trains from the White House on York River Railroad have been making regular trips to the interior. In speaking of the restorations of the rebel congress relative to officers of negro regiments, it says the Yankees will in turn hang rebel officers, and it seems to be in grief over the matter. Gen. Stairs is impressing all horses, of Union and Confederate, which he can find—this being necessary to prevent their being seized by guerrillas.

Two negro regiments were mastered into the service to-day. Contrabands have commenced working on abandoned farms on the opposite side of the Potomac.

A letter of the 16th says a severe fight between infantry took place near Suffolk, Va., on the morning of the 15th. The rebels were repulsed, and our troops now occupy a strong position in and around Caswellville.

A steamer from Port Royal reports that of Charleston she heard heavy firing from 2 to 5 p.m. in the harbor. It is supposed our ironclads were attacking batteries on Morris Island.

Cincinnati, 18.—A late letter from Russellville, Kentucky, states that on Wednesday the 13th a party of sixty guerrillas fired on a train near South Union, Ga., on the train returned the fire and routed the rebels, killing one and wounding four. The rebels are collecting a large force north of Cumberland Kentucky, and a large force of infantry in East Tennessee.

Cincinnati, 19.—A general order was issued yesterday announcing the finding of the court martial in Vallandigham's case. The court finds him guilty of the charges and specifications, and sentenced him to be closely confined in some fortress during the war. Gen. Burnside approved the sentence and has selected Fort Warren as the place of imprisonment.

Louisville, 19th.—A rebel force in Wayne and Clinton counties, Kentucky, said to number 17,000, with 44 pieces of artillery. Four regiments of infantry passed through Jamestown on the 16th. More regiments are at Morristown, East Tennessee. Backer is said to be at Clinton; the rebel pickets are said to be on the Cumberland at every available point. A letter from Richmond, Ky., says the rebels have crossed the Cumberland and are advancing on that place. It is unquestionable that another invasion of Kentucky is contemplated, to flank Rosecrans and compel him to leave his strong position at Murfreesboro.

Washington, 19th.—The following is received to-day: Memphis, 17th.—Liverpool papers May 14th from Vicksburg, Jackson, reports that Gen. Grant defeated Gregg's brigade at Raymond on Tuesday May 12th. The rebel loss is admitted in the paper to have been 700. The next day Gen. Gregg was reinforced by Gen. Walker, when he was attacked at Mississippi Springs, and driven towards Jackson. A telegram dated Thursday May 12th, says the National's had taken Jackson from the east, probably by a cavalry movement. Gen. Joe Johnson arrived at Jackson May 13th, and went out towards Vicksburg with three brigades; he must have been west of Jackson when the capture was made by our forces.

Chicago, 18th.—The latest dates from Grant's army through National channels are to the 11th, and stated that at that time Logan and Osterhaus were marching towards Jackson driving Bowen before them while Grant was marching up the Black River expecting to engage Pemberton near the bridge over that stream. Women and children with all valuable valuables had been moved from Jackson. All the men had been forced into the rebel ranks.

It is further stated that Osterhaus had made large captures of men, ammunition, artillery and commissary stores, a few miles from Raymond.

Bowen's force was estimated at 15,000, Pemberton's at 50,000. The latter was reported strongly entrenched near the bridge. A great battle was imminent. The health of the army there was better than ever before. The rebels 300 strong with two or three pieces of artillery fired into the steamer Warner 15 miles above Greenville, Miss., on Thursday, 14th, killing 2 and wounding 4. The fire was returned and several rebels killed.

Chicago, 19th.—It is reported that our forces burned the State capital at Jackson, Miss., on the 15th. Col. Hays, of the Banks' department, states that Gen. Eilman's negro brigade is more than filled, and the country just opened will furnish two or three divisions of negroes in response to Hooker's call for a corps of African-Americans. There is no doubt that the rebels are engaged in raising negro regiments, as it is only from such material that they can in the extreme Southland States recruit their ranks. The negroes are not backward in adopting a uniform which is their death warrant if taken by the rebels.

Letter From Eugene City.
E. A. Moore's "Hog" last writing, the "hog law," passed by the City Council, has come into force, and these fifty animals have disappeared from our streets. The "Young Americans" who are employed to get up the boys, receive two bits for each ferocious capture, which of course makes it impossible for one of these unfortunate animals to poke his nose out of the pen without being dragged off to "prison." These young "deputies," after searching every corner inside the corporation, make themselves useful by occasionally driving in from the commons, and opening pig pens occasionally. This is fine fun, but some of the "old fogies" (especially those who keep a pig) don't seem to like it much. Whenever a show comes to town hereafter, it is expected that as many porkers as the boys want quarters will get out of their pens, for it will be hard to keep them confined on such important occasions.

It is understood that Mr. G. H. Balder, Chief Engineer of the Survey General's office, intends to resign that position to enter upon the work of surveying a portion of the contemplated line of rail from Marysville, Cal., to Portland, Oregon. This is a great enterprise, second only to a Northern Pacific Railroad, and will certainly not retard, but rather advance the building of such a road. It may take years to complete it, but that is only a stronger argument in favor of commencing the work now, and every Oregonian should lend the enterprise a helping hand.

A company, mostly of Californians, headed by Captain Crocker, of Empress, started up the Middle Fork of the Willamette river yesterday morning to prospect for gold in the Blue Mountains and on the Malheur river. They declared their intention to make the Sinuous clashes should any make their appearance along the route.

Another party intends to start either up that route or up the McKenzie trail, next Monday—rather than time I think the travel will be fairly commenced over the mountains from this place, and a man of experience is to pack animals from snow or other causes.

A census of this place, within the corporate limits, was taken by C. H. Fox, City Marshal, last week, by order of the Common Council. Mr. Fox has kindly furnished me the returns, which I send you. There are 124 men—all voters; 124 women, of whom 114 are married; 101 boys and 144 girls. The actual population of the place is greater, many of the men being absent in the Northern mines.

ESSEX CITY, May 20th, 1862.

Apples.
Our farmers ought to be alive to the continued cultivation of fruit. The market for a large quantity of good, long keeping apples will always be found at reasonable prices; but the special use of fruit to which attention is now called is for feeding stock. Apples are nutritious, as shown by the fattening of hogs, to say nothing about the results of chemistry. One very important point in the use of fruit is its juicy qualities.

How much better cattle and horses do on the grass of spring time than upon dry feed of any kind; at least, in most particulars. The cow gives more and better milk, is more healthy, as indicated by her sleekness and fine spirits. The climate of spring is of course much better than the cold and rain of winter, but evidently, juicy food, with dry hay and oats, such as turnips, carrots and apples, are highly beneficial to stock. It occurs to us that fruit should be produced largely for stock. Feed the cow a peck or half bushel daily; the horse, too, let him have a chance to thank his "stars" for reliable food, and the one will amply repay in milk and butter; and the other in fine appearance and economy of food. The kind of fruit however is highly important, very sour apples will not answer a good purpose. Subacid, or sweet fruit, such as the Genette, White Winter Pearmain, Summer Sweet Paradise, Ladies' Sweet, are both more nutritious and healthy. More at another time.

The Mercurian says there is much sickness, and very fatal, at the Dalles. It is as high as six persons have died in the City limit, within 24 hours, last week.

Change of Publication Day.
In consequence of the arrangement of the mails, we are compelled to change our day of publication from Saturday to Monday.

I have found Dr. Mott's Liver Pills one of the best medicines for Dyspepsia that I ever used. I had been afflicted with the disease for nearly six months, and my vitality nearly destroyed my stomach, often to such a degree as to cause vomiting. I was most of the time unable to eat. I found the pills kept my bowels open, without griping or pain. I have actually gained, since using them, in weight—being ten pounds heavier than when I commenced. I owe my cure solely to the use of the pills.

LIFE! LIFE!! LIFE!!!

If Life and Health are Valuable, why not use the proper means to preserve them? If the System is Diseased, why run any risk by using PILLS composed of Calomel or Mercury.

Once Use Dr. Mott's Liver Pills and you will USE NO OTHER!!

DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are composed entirely of chemical, vegetable extracts, mostly from plants growing in our own country; some of these plants have a direct action on the Liver, others on the Stomach, others on the Kidneys, and others upon the Bowels and Lungs.

It is a powerful chemical combination of all these extracts that these pills are made, possessing the most extraordinary efficacy for curing the above-named diseases.

In Chronic Diseases, or diseases of long standing, such as Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Headache, Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Neuralgia, Stomachic, Nephritis, Dropsy, Scald Head, Barber's Itch, Sore Eyes, Pimples on the Skin, and Old Sores, the treatment with the Pills should be continued for a longer time than with less tubercular diseases.

Remember that it will require perseverance in the use of the pills in chronic diseases. The humor or matter has been accumulating a long time in the system, even before the disease made its appearance; and the time it will take to cure the part that is diseased will be in proportion to the length of time that the disease has been in the system, and the amount of disease in the constitution. It will be little use to commence for a short time only. The Pills should be continued, in small portions, through the blood, and removed from the system through the secretion of the bowels, kidneys, and skin, until all those morbid functions of the body and the health of the system are restored to their proper tone.

For sale by all Druggists.
