

The Oligarchy.

How well we have hit it in calling the Democratic rebels of Cottontown an Oligarchy, is shown by a correspondent of the Louisville Journal, who has just returned from France.

The Copperhead organs will generally pretend to disbelieve this, and now and then a man in the rank and file will say, 'I don't believe that the Southern people wish for a nobility, and I don't believe that Northern Democrats could be induced to favor such a government in the South, and a monarchy in the North.'

Conness seems sound.—John Conness, the new California Senator, lately made a speech in California defining his position on the war.

didn't, and the irrepressible conflict will go on just as long as the power of Hell persists in driving humanity, liberty, and decency, off of this continent.

The following is the pledge which is being extensively signed by Union men in the Eastern States:

Mr. Chairman, I have turned the last point but one in my argument; and here I would leave the matter, did I not believe it the duty of every man to define his position as to a question which has been attached to, and discussed with, this question.

THE UNION LEAGUE.—The following is the pledge which is being extensively signed by Union men in the Eastern States:

Scratching.—An exchange says the itch is quite prevalent in the rebel army, so much so that the officers hereafter will find no difficulty in bringing them to the scratch.

The following is the pledge which is being extensively signed by Union men in the Eastern States: We, the undersigned, citizens of the United States, hereby associate ourselves under the name and title of the Union League.

THE VOICE OF SAMUEL R. THURSTON ON THE UNION.—Our readers will recollect what a tumult was raised in Congress by the fire-eaters of the South over the admission of California in 1850.

THE CONSERVATIVE VICTORY.—It will be recollected how the Corvallis Union, and its echo in this city, rejoiced over the triumph of the conservatives.

REAR ON THE COPPERHEADS.—T. Buchanan Read, who was sent to the army in Tennessee as a special delegate to carry back the response of the citizens of Ohio, to the army resolutions, made a speech to the soldiers and citizens in the court house at Murfreesboro, March 8th.

The following is the pledge which is being extensively signed by Union men in the Eastern States: We, the undersigned, citizens of the United States, hereby associate ourselves under the name and title of the Union League.

REAR ON THE COPPERHEADS.—T. Buchanan Read, who was sent to the army in Tennessee as a special delegate to carry back the response of the citizens of Ohio, to the army resolutions, made a speech to the soldiers and citizens in the court house at Murfreesboro, March 8th.

A VOICE FROM CLACKAMAS.—It was a hard trial for the Union men of Clackamas county to part with the Argus.

THE TORPEDO REMOVERS.—The Hilton Head correspondent of the Philadelphia Press thus describes the contrivance of Capt. Ericsson for removing the obstructions in Charleston harbor.

THE VOICE OF SAMUEL R. THURSTON ON THE UNION.—Our readers will recollect what a tumult was raised in Congress by the fire-eaters of the South over the admission of California in 1850.

REAR ON THE COPPERHEADS.—T. Buchanan Read, who was sent to the army in Tennessee as a special delegate to carry back the response of the citizens of Ohio, to the army resolutions, made a speech to the soldiers and citizens in the court house at Murfreesboro, March 8th.

A VOICE FROM CLACKAMAS.—It was a hard trial for the Union men of Clackamas county to part with the Argus.

THE TORPEDO REMOVERS.—The Hilton Head correspondent of the Philadelphia Press thus describes the contrivance of Capt. Ericsson for removing the obstructions in Charleston harbor.

THE VOICE OF SAMUEL R. THURSTON ON THE UNION.—Our readers will recollect what a tumult was raised in Congress by the fire-eaters of the South over the admission of California in 1850.

REAR ON THE COPPERHEADS.—T. Buchanan Read, who was sent to the army in Tennessee as a special delegate to carry back the response of the citizens of Ohio, to the army resolutions, made a speech to the soldiers and citizens in the court house at Murfreesboro, March 8th.

A VOICE FROM CLACKAMAS.—It was a hard trial for the Union men of Clackamas county to part with the Argus.

THE TORPEDO REMOVERS.—The Hilton Head correspondent of the Philadelphia Press thus describes the contrivance of Capt. Ericsson for removing the obstructions in Charleston harbor.

THE VOICE OF SAMUEL R. THURSTON ON THE UNION.—Our readers will recollect what a tumult was raised in Congress by the fire-eaters of the South over the admission of California in 1850.

REAR ON THE COPPERHEADS.—T. Buchanan Read, who was sent to the army in Tennessee as a special delegate to carry back the response of the citizens of Ohio, to the army resolutions, made a speech to the soldiers and citizens in the court house at Murfreesboro, March 8th.

A VOICE FROM CLACKAMAS.—It was a hard trial for the Union men of Clackamas county to part with the Argus.

THE TORPEDO REMOVERS.—The Hilton Head correspondent of the Philadelphia Press thus describes the contrivance of Capt. Ericsson for removing the obstructions in Charleston harbor.