An act to issue an American register to the steam-ship Karnak.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to issue an American register to the steamship or vessel known as the Karnak, of the collection district of the port of New York, the same being a British built vessel, but now owned by American citi-[Approved, February 16, 1863.

[Public—No. 28.]

As act for the relief of persons for damages sustained by reason of depredations and injuries by certain bands of Sioux Indians.

Whereas the United States heretofore became bound by treaty stipulations to the Sisseton, Wahpaton, Medawakanton, and Wa[h]pakoota bands of the Dakota or Sioux Indians to pay large sums of money and annuities, the greater portion of which remains unpaid according to the terms of SEC. After fine, clear weather, the first signs in the sky of a coming change are usually light streaks, curls, wisps, or mottled patches of white distant clouds, which increase, and are followed by a murky vapor that grows into cloudness. This appearance, more or less oily or watery, as wind or rain will prevail, is an infallible sign.
