

The annual fair of the Marion County Agricultural Society at their Fair Grounds near Salem, was not a perfect success, but still pretty good. The horse interest was decidedly up—if there had been as much interest taken in the other departments, the fair would have been a perfect success, and no mistake. It is to be hoped there will be more interest taken hereafter in all the other stock departments, and in fact in all the departments.

The Cattle department was well represented as far as it went. Two of the best blooded Short Horns in the State, and in fact as good as there is in America, were there. Grand Admiral, imported by R. C. Geer, and now owned by Thomas Cross, is as fine an animal as any man ever saw. He is a thoroughbred Short Horn, bred by Thorn of Washington Hollow, Dutchess co., N. Y., four years old, weighs about 1900 lbs., and the finest hander on this coast; he was sired by Grand Turk, the winner of two fat premiums in Ireland and three in England. Grand Turk weighs about 3000 lbs., and is fine in all respects; dam is Agnes, and his fine in all respects; dam is Agnes, and his fine in all respects; dam is Agnes, and his fine in all respects.

Horses without number, from the fine race horse down to the meanest Cayuse that was ever straddled by an Indian, were everywhere to be seen, (not on exhibition though), for those on exhibition were good animals.

It is to be regretted that the pavilion was so nearly unrepresented. Two very fine lamp stands, wrought by Miss Narcissa Waldo, and a fine roll of butter by Mrs. Alfred Stanton, and a similar one by Mrs. C. P. Parker, one fine churn, by Mr. J. M. Coulter, a bride or two, one halter, a few radishes, one head of cauliflower, and a few bouquets, (all of which were excellent) and perhaps one or two other articles, were all that were on display. Why is this? We have in Marion county more articles of every description manufactured than (I was going to say) all the rest of the State.

The colt show, which came off the first day of the fair, was somewhat interesting to outsiders as well as competitors, as a great many had colts of the same class which were not on the ground, and each man, it was plain to be seen, wished his private colt to win; the prizes were issued to the following named persons for sucking colts:

1st premium, $50, to David Taylor or Howell Preiner, for a Waterloo colt. 2d premium, to E. F. Colby of Wald Hills, for a Paul Jones colt. 3d premium, to J. M. Pugh, near Salem, for a Black Hawk colt.

For Yearlings—1st premium, $50, to David Giff, of Polk Co., for a Black Hawk colt. 2d premium, to S. & I. Durbin, for a Paul Jones colt. 3d premium, to Wm. Kendall, of the Cascade Mountains, for a Black Hawk colt.

Wm. Spylert got $5 in coin of J. B. Emery, for the best stepper.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TROTTERS AND RUNNING. Trotting—Entries for 1st premium of $100—mile heats; 2 best in 3. J. B. Emery's stallion Black Hawk, 2. F. B. Carlton's stallion Fly-by-night, 1. Time, 1st heat, 3:09; 2d heat, 2:52. Premium awarded to Fly by Night.

Entries for single trotting mare or gelding, $25 prem.—mile heats, 2 best in 3.—E. Fulmer, black gelding, 1. I. Charles Ripper, b. h. Webfoot, 2. Time, 1st h., 3:32; 2d, 3:04. Premium awarded to E. Fulmer's b. g.

Entries for untrained horses—mile heats—2 best in 3—prem, $25. John Downing, grey mare—1st heat 2d, Stephen Staats, b. m. Lydia, 1st heat 2d, 1. S. Durbin, cream m. Lydia Belle, 1st dis. Chas. Ripper, b. h. Webfoot, dis. Time, 1st h., 3:41; 2d, 3:33. Prem. awarded to Lydia.

Entries for 3-year old colts and fillies—1 mile, single dash—prem, $50. Hardin McAllister, b. f. Pigeon, S. R. Hagey, s. f. Declared a foul race, and the premium withheld.

Charleston, Mass., June 22.—The schooner Juliet arrived this afternoon.—She reports that she spoke the Florence of Gloucester this morning 40 miles off Charleston light house, having on board 150 prisoners from the pirate brig Tacony, which took the Florence yesterday and ordered her to New York with the prisoners. The Tacony took and burned 60 schooners yesterday belonging to Gloucester, and 3 ships.

Monday, Md., 22.—A special to the Philadelphia Press says a messenger just arrived from Maryland Heights, he thinks the place is strongly defended. The rebel army is at Little Antietam about 6 miles from Harper's Ferry.

New York, June 22.—A Chambersburg dispatch says a detachment of the 1st N. Y. cavalry had a skirmish on Monday with the rebels ten miles this side of Greencastle Pa.

A special dispatch from Harrisburg dated last night says there is no doubt that the enemy is fortifying Hagerstown, they hold the country between Hagerstown and Williamsport with at least a corps, perhaps two.

Harrisburg, June 22.—News from Pittsburgh shows that great excitement exists there.—The rebels are reported 40 miles distant. The rebel occupied Chambersburg this morning.

Baltimore, June 22.—The American of this morning informs us that the rebels had advanced on that place. The nearest approach of rebel cavalry was the arrival of a small body of cavalry at Monterey 10 miles distant, where they stole a few horses and made a rapid retreat as if fearful of capture.

Philadelphia, June 22.—The Washington Star of this evening has the following: Monday 22d. The rebels have destroyed every Baltimore and Ohio R. R. bridge from Cumberland to Harper's Ferry a distance of 70 miles, thus inflicting very serious damage to the road. This they done within the last 36 hours.

New York, June 21.—The rebels are scouring the country near Greencastle, Md. have got about 200 head of cattle. Rebels has 10,000 men at Williamsport, Md. The rebellion is still in progress. It is reported that the rebels have serious designs on Baltimore. Their movements indicate this. Fears are entertained that the enemy, consisting of 2000 rebel cavalry, fled from Harper's Ferry, in several places.

Harrisburg, June 21.—A dispatch received late this evening states that a rebel cavalry force was within 8 miles of Gettysburg. They had crossed South Mountain, and was advancing east to attack the Northern Central Railroad. An ample force is prepared to resist the attack.—Dispatches contain the following: The rebels are reported 40,000 strong at Hagerstown, Md., fortifying. Milroy's headquarters is at Bluffs Run. Gov. Curtin tonight received a dispatch from Chambersburg, stating that Jenkins has arrived at Waynesboro, and threw out pickets 5 miles this side, but withdrew them this morning. Jenkins has been stealing horses in the mountains. Gen. Couch received a dispatch this morning, confirming the report of rebel cavalry being at Gettysburg.

Baltimore, June 21.—The latest advices from Dan No. 4, say that firing has been heard there at intervals throughout the day.

Baltimore, June 22.—About 7 o'clock Saturday night, June 20, a body of rebel cavalry reached Monocacy Bridge, 4 miles this side of Frederick. They paroled all the sick in the Hospital and every Government employe. They searched for food and horses, and seized all marked U. S. A. Very large forces of rebel infantry and cavalry and artillery crossed at Antietam Creek during the day. Rebel forces say they number 40,000, but the pickets report them at 25,000. Earthworks are being erected on the East and North sides of the river, thus completing the chain of fortifications. A line of fortifications is being erected within the city. The Union men are confident the rebels will not be as rash as to attempt a raid in that direction.

New York, June 22.—A special to the Herald, dated Monocacy Station, June 21st, says at 4 o'clock yesterday, a Federal officer made a dash into Frederick with 40 men, driving out the enemy. Our cavalry passed through the city and immediately 15,000 rebel cavalry occupied the place. A number of horses were taken.

Oh, for the power to give my thoughts a tongue! Could I but catch them ere they flit away, The bright, fantastic, glowing, glittering thought, How many hearts would echo back my song; And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

When I read the common paths of earth Some tiny form of Nature meets my eye, Some modest child of Nature, lowly birth— But how position gives no gauge of worth, For Nature seldom sets her jewels high.

And when I spy at first the beauty rare, And fill my heart with a dissembler's pride, I find some ancient author has expressed My thought of beauty, far more richly dressed— My wild wood path has oft before been tried.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

THE sixth section of the Act of Congress entitled an Act to reduce the expenses of the Survey of the Public Lands in the United States, Approved May 30th, 1862, is as follows: "Sec. 6. And he further enacted, That from and after the first day of July next the Commission of Registers and Receivers in all the Land Offices in the United States shall be an annual salary of five hundred dollars each, with the fees and commissions now prescribed by law, and to be paid by claimants, an additional fee of one dollar each, and a fee of five cents for each certificate of one hundred and sixty acres, less than three hundred and twenty acres, and of three dollars for three hundred and forty acres, and of five dollars for six hundred and forty acres. In view of the above enactment, and to have the order in which we think is best for the work of the office to proceed undisturbed, we now say to the donation claimants of the Townships heretofore designated that we shall proceed to make out the certificates of such of those claimants as are disposed to take the prescribed oath of loyalty, and pay for their certificates. A reasonable time will be allowed in which to file request for certificates, complete proof, and take the oath. We shall then pass to other townships, and in this order call on all the Donation Claimants in our district.

Persons who live at a distance from this Office can take the oath before a Justice, or the Clerk of the proper court, or any other Justice, if so authorized at the time to administer oaths. Townships 7, 12, 14, 16, 17, and 18, South of Range 2, West. Townships 3, 4, and 5, south of Range 3, West. Townships 3, 4, and 5, south of Range 4, West. Townships 3, 4, and 5, south of Range 5, West. W. T. MATLOCK, Receiver. Oregon City, June 21, 1863.

SALEM FOUNDRY. B. F. DRAKE, Proprietor. HAVING PURCHASED THE ENTIRE INTEREST IN THE FOUNDRY AT SALEM, I AM PREPARED TO FURNISH CASTINGS, BRASS WORK, MILL WORK, Agricultural Implements, of every description, on short notice. All orders will be filled with dispatch, and in a satisfactory manner. Attention, Marion Rifles! REGULAR DRILL, MONDAY AND SATURDAY evenings at 7 1/2 o'clock, at the Armory. Salem, May 25, 1863. Orderly Sergeant.

LIFE! LIFE!! LIFE!!! If Life and Health are Valuable, why not use the proper means to preserve them? If the System is Disordered, why run any risk by using PILLS composed of Calomel or Mercury. Once Use Dr. Mott's Liver Pills and you will USE NO OTHER!!! DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are composed entirely of choicest vegetable extracts, mostly from plants growing in our own country; some of these plants have a direct action on the Liver, others on the Stomach, others on the Kidneys, and others upon the Bile and Gall. It is by a powerful chemical combination of all these extracts that these pills are made, possessing the most extraordinary efficacy for curing the above-named diseases.

In Chronic Diseases, or diseases of long standing, such as Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Consumption of the Lungs, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout, Neuralgia, Debility, Nervousness, Headache, Stomachic and Regulator of the Digestive Organs.

These Bitters are not offered to the public as a medicine which will cure all the "ills which flesh is heir to," but as a remedial agent—a great regulator of the system. In the Bilious districts of the West and South there has, for a long time, been much needed an article of Stomach Bitters, which, if taken in proper quantities, and at the proper time, are a sure preventive of Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Jaundice, Kidney Complaints, and all diseases of a similar nature.

These Bitters are composed of rare and powerful roots and herbs, which make them a Highly Tonic. Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters are the poor man's friend. Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters save the poor man many Doctor's Bills. Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters are the rich man's Solace and Comfort.

Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters invigorate the weak and debilitated. Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters drive away melancholy and make Life enjoyable. Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters are the Soldier's Friend, by preventing Diarrhea, Dysentery, Rheumatism, etc.

These Bitters are put up in quart bottles, of which the above is a facsimile. The label is finely engraved, and is provided with a safe-guard from counterfeits. Price $1 per bottle, or six for $5. C. W. Roback, Proprietor, No. 6 East Fourth Street, Cincinnati, to whom all orders should be addressed. FOR SALE BY REDINGTON & CO., Wholesale Agents, 415 and 418 Front St., SAN FRANCISCO.

Intense Excitement!! Thousands crushed to death daily. EVERYBODY RUN TO WORTHINGTON'S, AT SILVERTON, AND buy your goods, quick before they go. A good-for-it is selling his entire stock of DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS and SHOES, FAMILY GROCERIES, HARDWARE and CUTLERY. At cost, for CASH, but no credit. Call early and get good bargains. May 25.

Administratrix' Notice. NOTICE is hereby given that I have taken out Letters of Administration on the estate of John Van, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same to me for allowance, at my residence in Pacific county, W. T., within the year from this date; and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment. MARY JANE VAIL, Administratrix. Brucport, April 21, 1863. 2-4w.

W. C. JOHNSON, Attorney & Counselor at Law, AND SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, OREGON CITY. WILL promptly attend to any business which may be committed to his professional charge before the District and Supreme Courts. 100 VOLUNTEERS WANTED. TO SERVE THREE YEARS. UNLESS SOONER DISCHARGED. To Enlisted men—who shall have served two years during the war, if they will consent to ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS BOUNTY will be paid. THE company will consist of one Captain, one First and one Second Lieutenant, one First Sergeant, one Quartermaster Sergeant, one Commissary Sergeant, five Sergeants, eight Corporals, two Drummers, two Fiddlers or Blacksmiths, one Saddler, one Waggoner or teamster, eight privates. Total, 100 enlisted men. The Bounties will be taken from the Privates. In addition to their pay, the men will be furnished clothing, subsistence, quarters and medical attendance. The allowance for clothing is three dollars and fifty cents per month. When an enlisted man dies, less than his private pay, the value of his clothing, he will be entitled to receive the private's money. The men will be enlisted as privates. After being mustered into the service of the United States, the appointments of those commissioned officers is made. GEO. E. CATON, Office with Adjutant General in Holman's Brick, Salem; Sprenger's Hotel, Corvallis; and Kingsley's Building, Portland. 1-4.

MARRIED.

At Dallas City, June 24, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. T. Condon, Mr. William Abernethy to Miss Sarah F. Gray, all of that place.

DIED.

In Folk county, June 22d, 1863, Edward Baker, only son of W. H. and E. M. Vandervort, aged 1 year, 5 months, and 23 days.

DEBILITY, AND PAIN IN THE SIDE AND BREAST.

Dr. J. C. ROBACK'S STOMACH BITTERS. My wife has been troubled with debility, and has had a constant pain in her side, and at times a pain in her breast, which was procured from sewing. I bought a box of Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters, and since she has been using them she has entirely recovered her strength, and the pain has left her. I have used them also myself, and find them a most valuable Family Medicine. Truly yours, JOSEPH PATTERSON.

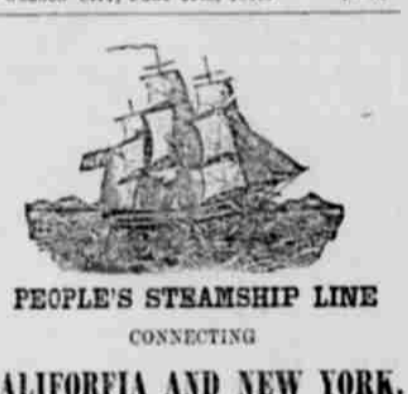

CELEBRATION OF THE Eighty-seventh Anniversary of American Independence.

PROGRAMME. Sunrise salute, 13 guns, and ringing of bells. March to State, State to Commercial, up Commercial to Oak, and thence to the grounds selected for the exercises of the day, which will be: Singing, Glee Club. Prayer, Glee Club. Reading Declaration of Independence. Band. Glee Club. Oration. Glee Club. Benediction. Glee Club.

Organizations and societies not included in the foregoing, will be assigned places, on reporting to the Marshal, Deputies, or Aids.

No Credit!!

FROM and after this date, CHARMAN, WARREN & CO., OF OREGON CITY, propose to do STRICTLY A CASH BUSINESS. Believing it will be beneficial to their friends and customers generally, it will enable them to sell goods at a LOWER PRICE, and to effectively compete with Portland. Their Determination is to sell goods as cheap as any house in Oregon. Although they have extra freight from Portland, yet their expenses are much lighter in Oregon City, and by their manner of doing business they can move their balances at a lower rate of freight between the two places, and thus be enabled to sell goods Cheaper than Any Other House in the State. OREGON CITY, June 27th, 1863. 7-4f.

PEOPLE'S STEAMSHIP LINE.

CONNECTING CALIFORNIA AND NEW YORK, VIA NICARAGUA. 700 Miles Shorter than any other Route. THE FAST AND FAVORITE DOUBLE ENGINED Steamship MOSES TAYLOR, J. H. BLETHEN, Commander, Will be dispatched FOR SAN JUAN DEL SUR, From Mission Street Wharf, AT 9 O'CLOCK A. M., PUNCTUALLY, ON Thursday, July 23, 1863, CONNECTING AT GREYTOWN—With the Splendid and Swift Steamship—AMERICA, 2,500 Tons.

Reduced Rates of Passage and Quick Trips are secured by the re-opening of the Nicaragua Route. These features are unsurpassed for Speed, Cleanliness, and Safety, and every effort will be made to insure the comfort of Passengers. A man of experience will be sent on each steamer to take charge of baggage and of Ladies who may be traveling alone. For further information, or Passage, apply to I. K. ROBERTS, Agent, No. 407 Washington Street, SAN FRANCISCO, June 29, 1863-64.

J. H. MITCHELL, Jos. N. Dolan, Notary Public. MITCHELL & DOLPH, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY, AND PROCTORS IN ADMIRALTY, Office over Post Office, Front St., PORTLAND.

DR. L. S. SKIFF, Surgeon Dentist, Residence near the Corner of First and Center Streets.

N. B. NOSE PUT FINISHED OPERATIONS of such persons as wish their operations performed in the most perfect manner. May 25, '64.

Thoughts.

Oh, for the power to give my thoughts a tongue! Could I but catch them ere they flit away, The bright, fantastic, glowing, glittering thought, How many hearts would echo back my song; And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

When I read the common paths of earth Some tiny form of Nature meets my eye, Some modest child of Nature, lowly birth— But how position gives no gauge of worth, For Nature seldom sets her jewels high.

And when I spy at first the beauty rare, And fill my heart with a dissembler's pride, I find some ancient author has expressed My thought of beauty, far more richly dressed— My wild wood path has oft before been tried.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

Thoughts.

Oh, for the power to give my thoughts a tongue! Could I but catch them ere they flit away, The bright, fantastic, glowing, glittering thought, How many hearts would echo back my song; And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

When I read the common paths of earth Some tiny form of Nature meets my eye, Some modest child of Nature, lowly birth— But how position gives no gauge of worth, For Nature seldom sets her jewels high.

And when I spy at first the beauty rare, And fill my heart with a dissembler's pride, I find some ancient author has expressed My thought of beauty, far more richly dressed— My wild wood path has oft before been tried.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.

And yet I will not scorn the path to tread, Nor bury in my heart the gem I find, But raise them up, and place them on my head; Perchance, upon some eye their lustre shed, And bid me sing again to cheer their way.