People's Line Sold Out, and "Gone up" the Willamette.

The expectation that the opposition to the O. S. N. Company on the Columbia would be permanent, and secure to the traveling and shipping community reasonable rates of travel and freight, is for the present blasted by the information that the People's Line has traded itself off for boats on the Willamette. We may now expect freights on the Columbia to go up to old figures under the monopoly of the old company. There is probably no fault attaching to the People's Line for selling out. To expect men to keep up hoats for benefit of the community, when likely to prove a losing business, is unnatural in these days of greedy race for gold. We might have expected from other observa-
