and perilous journey of 25 days. water's edge to a great hight, and are covered with heavy timber. It, pine, and the river, having been seven days on the tamarack, principally. From here we raid from Fort Berton, and an arriving there was found that a local had been their tame to the Massian of the same name. The road through these mountains is bad—the mountains being quite high, and the read entirely washed out by mountains. The rest day about 15 of us wout to the subject of feeding destinte people which are the mountains and had returned down the river, also and the read entirely washed out by mountains. The next day about 15 of us wout to the President. There are 3,000 between these there has been a row dereliction of daty on part of the Admiral. No notion has been taken to transfer him from the road introduction of the president. There are 3,000 between these these certainly been no dereliction of daty on part of the Admiral. No notion has been taken to transfer him from the road introduction of the president. There are 3,000 between the water than the subject of feeding destinte people when our lines is engaging the attention.

The rest day about 15 of us wout to of the President. There are 3,000 between these there has certainly been no dereliction of daty on part of the Admiral. No notion has been taken to transfer him from the road introduction and the rest in the subject of feeding destinte people when a few days previous and land and the road introduction and the road introduction and the road introduction and the road introduction of the President. There are 3,000 between the subject of the subject of the subject of the president of the part of and the road entirely washed out by main tain streams along it for miles, in places. Arriving at the Mission, we found the Cour d'Aleus river high, and employed miles by river, and about 40 by land, entirely on contributions of our officers and some ladious—of the same name—to take where we expected to most another beat. Subscipling a will be sent to their founds in Division.

The next day about the discussion. There are 3,000 between of the President. There are 3,000 between the transmitted at New Orleans. On the evening of the 4th, he reviewed the troops with Gen. Banks. Subsequent to the review, his horse became fright.

the mountains like a terrist. Several about 300 yards from compiling cut on vity on James Island on which they are her proportiones part of our work was awapt down expression from Part Charles, and mounting 10 such colombiads and 7 such expression from Fig. 1 hards, and took in someting 10 meh columbiads and 7-inch firm many places the river ran for order as long the road, and was from knew deep to swingshing our horses. Our day we did not find dry hard enough to be one of the river the evening when they left us to our own glory. Those St. Louis follows when had came up on the tour ware nextly frightened to death, not they immediately organized as a middler, her large manufactory of the same and in the proposed to mount it in Fert Johnson, but that was given up; and so far as described upon where it would be put. It was a free proposed to mount it in fails to work our way up a terminal manufactory organized as middlers would be not compelled to work our way up a terminal manufactory organized as middlers would be not the first bullians would be not to fight bullians would be not the first mounts of these moneters by by side of the does steep high mountain through the think timber and brush—traveling sometimes half a day over one of these mountains and not gain more than half a mile on our journey. We best much of our provision and came near killing all our animals. In which hall been haded by the best. Not many places the timber had fallen in the a gun, a word, a speak, or a lorest was road so as to compel us to leave it and heard, nor was there a day to be seen, but search a new one for a considerable all was quiet and still as though it was not the effective force on the island, and must distance.

Descending the Bitter Root mountains greatest and most free nation on earth,— on the south side for a distance of 15 miles commented on the summit, we found the Un the 5th of July in the afternoon, we like the interest on the island, and must be recommended by their colonels.

Fortress Monroe, 17th, — Richmond papers contain the following: Charleston, 15th,—A licutebant and live men were snow from 1 fact to 20 feet deep and quite received an express from Ft. Charles to soll, which made it almost impassable is the effect that there was a steamboat there and James Island. A telegraph to connect many places. Down this side the read which would remain till 4 o'clock the next. descends through a canyon, through which morning and would then go down the riv. leg built by the Yankers. the Cour d'Alene, except that we found a co-clock p. u., with our lightest buggings on high water trail, occasionally, around the crossings where the bridges had been swept on the read waiting for given out ones, structed cordurous, and in many places at 20 indicates before 4 a. m. of the 6th, enable rebal sharpshooters to annoy the accreely above the water, with purs or having walked 40 miles. We sont buch advance. Trees that they felled also aid abutments formed of wood instead of stone assistance to those who had failed, and be the difficult and dangerous crossings of bost on the Missouri river, these rivers is to grade around the sides. In my next I will give the particulars. rivers almost entirely, which should have eral conclusions on the route, been done in the first place.

After leaving the Batter Root mountains we found no serious obstruction to our THE COWARDLY TRAITORS .- It is stated row valleys, covered with excellent grava which some honest Union man had stretch and scattering pine timber. In many placed across the street, and which, of course ces the road was graded for miles over the it hart their feelings to walk under. They points of the mountains where they pro were only prevented from the disgraceful jected high above and almost over the riv act by the revolvers of Union men, who troops are being sent there. Robberies, planting of batteries on Cummings' Point, ges exist only in comparison. er. Arriving at Hell Gate Ronde on the came on the ground to protect the flag. 11th of June, we found quite a valley, with a searcity of wood, but plenty of water and grass. There is quite a settlement water a heaping tenspoonful each of salt in this vicinity, mostly French. They and kitchen mustaril, and drink it instant. have twoor three flouring mills, a saw mill, by; this will empty the stomach in a minseveral stores, etc., and seem to be getting over. To antagonize any poison that may along pretty well. They are engaged in be left, swallow the whites of two or three stock raising, principally. On the 13th eggs; then drink a cop or two of very we arrived at Deer Lodge Valley, which strong coffee, or as much sweet milk or is a very pretty valley; but the land is cream, if impossible to get coffee. much saturated with alkali, though there is an abundance of grass for stock raising. there being already a large amount of stock kept here. There is also quite a large settlement here, and a small town, Timber is rather scarce. This valley lies north and south along the western, base of the Rocky Mountain Range. But little mow falls in these valleys and in many places none during the entire year, though level of the sea, and in a high latitude - ed the robel hum, nor will they touch it. We found no difficulty whatever in cross | This, said Hothschild, is because the Heing the Rocky Mountains. The summit breas of Europe do not believe in the Sunday, and in open day formed a pro- ported was on her way down from Sayanwas well defined yet the ascents gradual. Jean nor the cause,

Oregon Argus.

VOL. IX.

SALEM, OREGON, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1863.

the Fort Benton Route.

slope everything had a different appearance from the opposite side. Instead of the En Angus:-I left Walla Walla on green, grass covered velleys, and mounthe 25th of May, and arrived at Fort Ben- tains covered with ever green timber, we ton on the 19th of June, after a difficult beheld nothing but a dry parched yellow towns give Corry, Republican, over 16, As there are a quite a large number of and when we had left the more gross at all, and in many places no gross at all and in many places no gross at all and in the many places no g profitable to them to read a short narrative | sourt. When we arrived at Fort Beston | charge of my experience in traveling that route this last spring. After leaving Walla Walla, in company with four others, we traveled northward over an excellent road to the grossing of Scale river, at the spring the spring, so we to the crossing of Scale river, at the second solution of horses there during the spring, so we dent—cause row between him and Dahl. Paleuse. We traveled up this stream for an express from a hoat which said it would Navy at Charlestne, some distance crossing it several times, he at Benton in a few days, so we sold | Quebec, 17.—It is reported that steam ber. The whole country consisted of so-reaccous basalite rock, which presented the appearance of having been washed over the entire surface with water, leaving about half the surface described of vegeta tion in many please, thus rendering travellers very disagreeable over the entire very disagreeable over the entire of the entire of the command returned in safety. A flag of tion in many please, thus rendering travellers very disagreeable over the entire very disagreeable over the entire of the entire eling very disagreeable, even on horseback. found the whole distance to consut of a lake onego for worn out animals are worn We had no difficulty along here to finding that plain almost entirely destitute of grass than these returned to Government, also plenty of wood, water, and grass. After and water. We traveled about 200 miles that however received since the establishplenty of wood, water, and grass. After crossing the Spokane river we traveled up the Spokane prairie some 30 or 40 miles, shortly after leaving which we came to the Cour d'Alene (pronounced cor de laws) Lake, surrounded almost cotirely by high mountains, which rise abropily from the water's edge to a great hight, and are covered with heavy timber, fir, pine, and Albaran plants of the spokane river we traveled upon the country sea down Milk river, which is ordinary sea down Milk river, which is ordinary sea upon to editory source and with the source feetived since the establish meant of the new Cavalry Bureau are not see good as those harming the sea of the sea o

one distance—of this sum tunne—to this we share we expected to most another beat one begggs across in canoes, and there the very many and control of the state of the property of the property of the state of the property of the property of the state of the property of the state of the property of the

-built as though it were with a view to fore the boat started we were all on board.

HERRY COURSE.

SWALLOWING POISON. - Stir in a glass of

- Nine negroes, who did not vote contrib uted just as much to the Sanitary Fund at San Juan as sixty four copportheads, who voted, whereupon Judge Stidger asks the pertinent question-who deserve the most sympathy from Union men, the negroes or copperhead-! - Margaville Appeals

-The head of the house of Rotleschild is reported to have said, that no Jewish they lie at a great elevation above the house of any character or wealth has touch-

As soon as we came to the Atlantic EASTERN NEWS. On the 8th September, at 11 o'clock at BY TELEGRAPH TO THE ASSETS.

Tuesday's Dispatch.

Portland, Me., 16 - Returns from 275

ber. The whole country consisted of see- within 80 or 100 miles, and could come of the 11th says in consequence of the run

Halls of these monsters lay by side of the toguided they selves during the slege .-They are not to exceed two per cent. of Washington, 17th.-Our troops were to day under proclamation suspending the writ in military and naval cases,

San Francisco, 17th. - To-day's dissatches state that the white flog over Fort Moultrie may have been a rebel flag fieled. Gen. Gilmore says 36 pieces of artillery were contared on Morris Island, and oth ers still remained.

Private New York dispatches to day mote pure spirits at 60 cents; alcohol in ter written on board the Nahant monitor, barrels $1,10 per gallon,

--Herald of Aug. 14th, says:

horses and wagons in Saline county last tend to a rebel iron-clad which it was reession and marched to Kanana.

Additional Eastern Mews.

night, a boat expedition left the squadron to attack Fort Sumter, but they were re- Members of the Oregon State Agricultural pulsed. The flotilla consisted of between twenty-five and thirty bosts, commanded by Lientenant Commander Williams of and when we had left the mountains entire. Republican to 1 Democrat. (poor devil, the Wissabickon, and 100 marines under addressing year preliminary to declaring it As there are a quite a large name to the smooth, unbroken persons in Salem, and other parts of Oregon, who contemplate going to the Atlantic States by way of Fort Banton next apring, it may be both interesting and spring, it may be both interesting and spring. under Commander Williams, Lleut, Reantraveled northward over an excellent road to the crossing of Soake river, at the stream for Paleuse river, a distance of 50 rock. From here the roads were quite focky and rough to the first crossing of Paleuse. We traveled up this stream for Paleuse river as desired the reagent in parapet. They were fired upon by musthe fort, shelling it terribly. The three pursuits, and by meaning and then left it and traveled over a very our animals and made preparations to go are not of the Spokane river, part of the distance through pine time days we fearned that the boat had came.

The Abelian is a law onys, so we sold our animals and made preparations to go down on the boat, but after lying hera 6 days we fearned that the boat had came.

The Abelian is a law onys, so we sold our animals and made preparations to go down on the boat, but after lying hera 6 days we fearned that the boat had came.

N. Y., 17.—Rockville (Md.) Sentinel captured. Commander Williams and six of the marines, was mertally wounded and tween our present large and wide ang field captured. Commander Williams and six of usefulness as compared with our small mentage licutenants were also captured. From 40 and by no means encouraging beginning. wounded. The entire list of casualties tered in swakening public attention to the will number 80. The remainder of the great importance of an organization like > would have been a different result. The evacuation of East Tennessee has caused the greatest surprise and gloom in Bot if that was a success, this is indeed a Richmond, as all anticipated a battle in- triumph that should cause us to thank God stead of a peaceable occupation by the and take courage. At our first exhibition

> Troops from Le's army are arriving in general belief is that Charleston will be not exceed a few thousands; but now they

> The rebels were routed near Ft. Smith, Arkansas, and that place taken. Western fair for the exhibition of the best speci Arkansas and the Indian country are now quota of the present draft.

When our forces entered Fort Wagner a lighted fase attached to the magazine rewards. He is feelingly reminded that was discovered a few moments before the "the harvest is past, and summer is end fire could reach the magazine. The bombproof of Wagner had not been penetrated had of the evacuation was brought by three deserters who came into our lines at one o'clock in the morning. Numerous torpedues are scattered over the premises, but as yet they have caused no injury .-Gen. Gilmore has set the rebel prisoners to taking up the torpedoes. Dead and mangled bodies of rebels and animals are the agencies employed by a beneficent have formed a causeway from Wagner to

The Richmond Enquirer of the 11th says the offices, type, and presses of the Raleigh (N. C.) Standard [anti-secesh] were destroyed by a party of Virginia soldiers. In return for this outrage, the cutizens and friends of the Standard depapers contain the following: Charleston, strayed the office of the State Journal

HOMBARDMEST OF FORT MOULTRIE. The bombardment of Fort Moultrie by Gen. Gilmore and Commander Dahlgren the River St. Regis florgis passes, forming almost a cataract the whole distance of 30 project. Sof us concluded to take it affort miles. Here were repeated the same difficulties which we experienced in ascending reduction will be effected with comparative case. Though the fact is not posificult; the roads being flanked by dense tively known, yet there is no doubt in the away. These bridges were poorly con- another and myself arrived at the Fort canebrakes and cypress swamps, which minds of persons who witnessed the explosion of the magazine, that even if it are perfecting arrangements for permanent on Wednesday morning the fight was any one who will look around or permanent of Morris Island, building teles resumed by two or three of Gillarore's bar-vast assembly and observe the bright these rivers is to grade around the sides of the trip down the river, and the gen of the mountains and avoid crossing the of the trip down the river, and the gen graph lines along the whole Island, contents, which succeeded in getting the and blooming cheeks of the multitude murders, and incendiary fires were be- a work that will soon be accomplished .oming frequent at Havana, Arrivals The firing from the five rebel forts and there from Nassau report that blockade batteries, in range of Morris Island, on and abroad. It is coming to be regarded momers had arrived from Charleston and our forces there, began on the morning af as the great commanding interest of na- over the country did appear to be very mile from the shore on either side.

> EXPURANCE OF THE MONITORS. - A letafter the fight with Fort Wagner, states that she carries the marks of a hundred How your Go. - The St. Jos (Mo.) shot, and that her stack is completely riddied; still she was as good as new, and Over 160 negrous took their masters' had been ordered to Warsaw Sound to at-expected.

THE STATE FAIR. The Annual Address, by Hon. J. Quinn Thornton.

Society:

The occasion of our Third Annual Fair has devolved upon me the duty of skill and industry of the people.

And first, permit me to thank you for ing, and Endgn Porter, landed, and the the confidence implied by your having would they listen to the burning words of one of perifemen attempted to run up the rains to the placed me in a position which pre-sup-to give honor to skill.

I congratulate you upon the contrathis, we cannot fail to mark the difference truce states that our captured officers and between this and our first annual fair. The men were in Sumter, and well treated .- latter, we did indeed, regard as a great Another account says some of the boats success, full of most encouraging promise, grounded on sheals, and but for that there when we considered it with regard to either the number of visitors, or the quality, character and number of articles entered the number of articles entered were at Troops from L e's army ard arriving in most a few score. Now they are at least Richmond; destination unknown. The as many hundreds. Then our visitors did are still greater. This occasion is interesting, considering it not only as an annual mens of fruit, cereals and stock from the fields, and of specimens of industrial skill from the work shop and the household, but as an annual festival or gala day to which we come up from all parts of the State with warm hearts glowing with gratitude to God for crowning the year are such) that another agricultural year is completed, with all its incidents, its toils, its hopes, its fears, its perplexities and its ed;" and it would be indeed strange if he did not in such a connection ask himself y our shot. The first intelligence we the most solemn question the human mind ever ponders. No man so much as the farmer realizes that only God can give success to his efforts. Not in lectures or sun, the descending shower, the fleeting zephyrs, the early cloud and the morning dew, and even the hoary frosts of winter and most bountiful Providence to fill the mouth with food, and the heart with glad ness. Associating so much with Nature, and seeing so much of her various moods and aspects, he has almost necessarily a higher appreciation of her beauty than persons have who are confined within the precincts of towns and cities. He, more than they, sees the force of that first line in the pastorals of Virgil, where he addresses Tityrus as " playing upon his lute under the shade of a spreading beach tree." The waving fields of grain, the ripening fruits, the opening flowers, and the forests vocal with the song of birds, together with all else which diversifies the scenery of the landscape, gently solicit his heart to muse

the praise of Him without whose notice a sparrow does not fall to the ground. The degree of health and competence which have been enjoyed by the people of was not the main one of the fort, yet the this State since we last met here, is a sub havor created inside was such as to mate ject of congratulation. With no very rially lessen the capacity of the fort for marked exceptions, the body of the peohave them wash away. The way to avoid So ended the great chase after the steams eight miles beyond Culpsper on Monday. resistance. The firing ceased on Tuesday ple have enjoyed the blessings of life, Blobmond Disputch, 16th, says Federals night, except from the rebel batteries .- health and competence, as will be seen by verting Wagner into a powerful work, en-range of Moultrie. They were assisted giving testimony that earth's first physilarging bumberroof, &c. Gans, Johnson in the cannonsding by only a part of the and Forrest had a skirmish with Yankees monitor fiset. The New Ironsides apon Friday, Forcest was wounded. Yankees proached toward Fort Moultrie, and was districts. This consideration of health travel. We noxt came to the Batter Root says the Stockton Independent, that the advanced to Tunnel Hill. Gen. Wheeler firing rapidly when the Arago left. Ob. should tend to check any envy which the river, a very large stream, and traveled up it for several days. Along this river we occasionally traveled through long nar we occasionally traveled through long nar.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted to feel in view the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag.

Copperheads, at their late meeting, in the anti-procession, attempted with their torches to fire and burn an American flag. hazy atmosphere that the parapet walls of and serenity of mind as the price of his still has too much interest in our defama- nels converge into one New York, 17th. - Eagle from Havana the fort were broken and the guns dis rapid gain, which, when accumulated, forces with dates to the 12th has arrived. He mounted. The entire dismounting of the upon him a conviction of the fact that bellion in San Domingo still continued- guns in the fort will speedily follow the great wealth and all its supposed advanta-

Agriculture is more than ever attracting the attention of statesmen at home Buchanan, at that time commander-in-chief city than either of them; consequently its ter the evacuation of Wagner, and has tions, and is, with the increase of light and dark and threatening. since been severe and continuous. As knowledge, challenging an increased atorpus in military cases were discharged. Gilmore can use the ground he has taken, tention; and although the nation has been in spite of the robel fire, when his new engaged more than two years in defendbatteries are completed there will scarcely be a position in the harbor but will be commanded by his guus, and Charleston will be within easy shelling distance. The will be within easy shelling distance. The institutions that dishonor free labor, yet people heard the call to arms made by our account, and could be shattered to pieces immediate fall of the city is not, however, our Government has within that time and present Chief Magistrate and a million of by a 15 inch shell. There are, however, under these most adverse circumstances, done more to encourage agriculture than the national honor, and to fling once more along the shore within the harbor, comwas ever done in all the previous history to heaven's sweet breath that symbol of manding the approaches to the city. There of the nation. The National Legislature our nationality which had gone down amid is also said to be a wonderful fort located is for the first time beginning to have some- the fire and smoke and the thunder of on the middle ground, which is in the conthing like a just conception of the applica- Sumter. With this example of the slacet- tre of the harbor, a mile and a half from

> Ladies-We are happy to see you here fresh in our remembrance, we cannot dis New York Battery, but much larger, is supporting and encouraging by your prestrust the future. We will not beed the also said to be mounted with heavy ord ence and the many specimers of your skill, voice of the timid and skeptical, who tell name.

vast assembly to be addressed upon the traverse the interior of or subject of their powers and influence, how institutions with eloquence and the ballowed accents of phil- useful

anity, portraying

most impress upon mind and forever, marked with own temper and spirit.

them of power, now seek to pull down the pillars of State, and overwhelm all in one common ruin, an armed and by al soldiery

is, under God, the salvation of the Nation.

It is for you and men of pure hearts like yours, to defend the Altar of Liberty from the profanction of traitor hands stained with fraternal blood. No one of doubtful those who are wading through rivers of blood to destroy that Constitution, and to subvert the best government God in his down South"!

garden and the orchard are so many proces

that as a people we are still pro

and that our doom is not writt-

enemies would affirmle

dened into implacative

of a stauding proplecy, p

trumpet tongues when doubt and decling and charged accordingly. legitimately tends to diminish your toil and waning, and that enthroned tyranny will to elevate your character and position,- soon riot in the gloom and disaster of a Do not imagine that you are without your nation's ruin, upon her tears and misforinfluence and power for great good here to-day. Ladies, I fear, are sometimes in tory of this most wanton and causeless reclined to think, when they reflect upon the bellion, affords ample proof of the permasubject, that they are placed in a situation nency of our institutions, and that this inferior to man's and that they have no government will survive the shock of colliinfluence in society and scarcely any du- sion with traitors, whether open and avowties to perform. But could all the ladies of a nation be brought together in one and cheers.) Firm as the mountains which

RATES OF ADVERTISING!

One square (twelve lines or less, minion measure)

Each subsequent insertion. . . 100 A liberal deduction will be made in favor of those who advertise by the year, or quarter.

Onituary petiers fother than a shaple announcement of death) will be charged half the above

The number of insertions required should be noted on the margin of the advertisement, otherwise it will be published until feehidden, and

rates of advertising.

Soldiers-In the name of the Sohave the honor to represent, and in behanof which I speak, I welcome you here to day. At a period like the present, when erty, of the traitors, maddened by disappointment, the constitution and driven to desperation by the convic tion to be over tion that the intelligence and virtue of the jealousy of parties, or cy people of the United States had deprived tion, and that with the last or precious blood he will defend the symbol of our nationality.

"And smile to see its splenders fly
In triescph e'er his closing eye."
In conclusion, it only remains for me to declare that the Third Annual Fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society is now open for the examination of visitors, and loyalty carries a weapon in your rateles, for the exhibition of specimens of the aggood will and sympathies are secretly with tistic skill and industry of the people.

> Charleston and its Surroundings: The military operations at present go-us with so many motives to still greater long and broad ridge of sand, rendering effort in the fulfillment of our destiny, and the water too shallow for the passage of with so many proofs that in order to our large vessels, except through three chancontinued growth as a Nation we must nels, which were carefully buoyed and cherish principles, morals, institutions and marked out by the Government before pursuits, such as orininally planted the the rebellion, but these buoys have been Nation and gave vigor to its growth. - taken up by the rebels. They have also [Cheers.] And, soldiers, be assured that this God is a God of justice, as well as of Providence, and that for those who " fired channels, and have thrown all obstacles in the Southern heart," He has in reserva- their power in the way of our entrance. books he learns that the bright rays of the tion Greek fire in time, and hell fire in With the aid of the Coast Survey charts. eternity. [Cheers and laughter.] And, and the still more valuable personal serindeed, every day is even now bringing to vices of Capt. Boutelle and Lieut. Platt, us, upon the breezes of heaven and upon and the other officers of the steamer Bibb, the swifter lightning, the news of some but little difficulty is apprehended in findfresh victory, some signal triumph, of our ing these channels.

arms, that causes rejoicing among holy an-There are three channels through the gels in heaven and among loyal men on bar to Charleston, one called the Ship earth-but weeping and wailing among Channel, running in front of Morris Island, the devils in hell and "among the traitors on the south side of the bar; the second the Swash Channel, in the center; and the Although present dangers demand our third, Sullivan's or Maffitt's Channel, runrigilance, we will look in vain for any ning along in front of Sullivan's Island, on thing in our circumstances as a nation that the north side of the bar. The distance can awaken serious apprehension as to the by either of these channels from outside future. The scenes immediately surround- the bar to Fort Samter is four to five ing us, if we except the glitter of these miles; that by the Swash Channel, being weapons of warfare, all be oken the habits more direct, is less than four miles, and pursuit of peace. The graces of mat- Morris Island is on the south ronly virtue, the smiles of youthful beau- har, and is three miles lose ty, the dignity of heary age, the strong in- house Inlet to Cuny tellect of a mature manhood, the happy in the rear of faces in this vast multitude, and all these points along specimens of mechanical and household four arts, and these products of the field, the marked the first collision of opinions .tion ever to award us the meed of praise. Sumter, which stands precisely When the walls of Sumter were be- between Moultrie and the Cumm leaguered by a host of traitors, and the Point Battery. Fort Sumter, however, is citadels of the nation were ascertained to not in a direct line between the two, but is have been betrayed by the treachery of located about a half mile nearer to the

of the army and navy, the clouds hanging position is at an angle three quarters of a The harbor of Charleston, inside of But in the midst of the portentous Sumter, is three miles long from Sumter gloom, of this darkest period of our histo- to the city front, and has an average width ry, the fires of patriotism kindled in the of nearly two miles. Fort Pinckney is on tion of mind to agriculture, and of uniting its with which these our countrymen sprang its practice with its philosophy.

Sumter and from the city Batton arms, at the first summons of duty, tery, a public promenade, similar to the neatness and industry, a Society which us that the last beacon fire of liberty is The location and form of the city of