LETTER FROM CLACKAMA COUNTY, ORE. - Dec. 19, 1860.

To the Editor of the STATE REPUBLICAN:
The blows which the Union has received during the past few months have been loudly prophesied. The brave men of Oregon have been in the forefront of the struggle. Their action and their sacrifices have been a source of strength to the Union. The Unionists of Oregon are resolute and determined to maintain the Union. They are ready to sacrifice all for the preservation of the Union. They will not yield an inch to the forces of rebellion.

LATEST EASTER NEWS.

A great Irish man was seen visiting in Dublin, Ireland, wearing a cap and jacket of the Union colors. He was seen conversing with a group of Irish Unionists and was seen to be holding a Union flag in his hand. He was later seen to be doing a speech in support of the Union.

LETTER FROM FREDONIA, N.Y.

Mr. Editor:

The recent events in the United States have been a great shock to us all. The Unionists in Fredonia are deeply concerned about the situation and are working tirelessly to support the Union. We are determined to stand by our Union and to fight against the forces of disunion.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

A. C. Unionist.
