THE STATE REPUBLICAN

GENERAL INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE. DEVOTED TO THE POLITICAL AND

VOL. I.

EUGENE CITY, OREGON, JANUARY 25, 1862.

NO. 3.

THE STATE REPUBLICAN. Published every Saturday by

H. SHAW & CO.

Terms of Subscription. The Republican will be published at $2.50 a year in advance; $3.00 if paid at the end of six months; or $4.00 at the close of the year. One dollar additional will be charged for each year payment is neglected.

No papers discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at our option.

The Republican will be published at $2.50 a year in advanced; $3.00 if paid at the end of six months; or $4.00 there navy yards a number of large Dahlgreen guns, which could not be secured for the use of South Carolina. The gun thief's object was not only to arm the conspirators, but to disarm the Rates of Advertising. Each additional insertion, Business Cards, one square or less, one year,

six months,

Four squares and upwards, one year, per square, six months, per square, six months, per square, three months, "

Administrator's Notices, and all advertisements relating to estates of deceased persons, which have to be sworn to, one square, four insertions,

" COME RUSH TO THE RESCUE !"

BY DAVID PAUL BROWNS.

Come rush to the rescue! the Union's in danger!
The rebeis and traitors are thirsting for blood!
The home of our youth is the spoil of the stranger,
And carnage exults where our altars once stood.
Then rush to the rescue! arouse from your slumbers!
The shades of your fathers appeal to your aid;
Let the traitors advance with their rash levied number
True patriots and freemen are never dismayed.

The foe is before us. March onward to greet them, Let them boast as they may, they but dig their graves;
The brave and the just are still eager to meet them,
And teach them the difference twist freemen slaves.

slaves.

Let them scourge their poor bondsmen and talk of their glory—
Inbuman, remorseless, conceited and vain!

When they grapple with heroes, they'll soon learn the story That themselves are the objects of scorn and disdain

Come on, then, your tattered palmetto displaying,
Your golden pretensions will soon change to brass;
We know that your roaring is nothing but braying;
That the kin of the lion disguises the ass.
What then should we fear? Oh, we fear the disgrace,
The vile blot on the page of Republican story,
Which our tears and our prayers can never efface,
Which forever shall tarnish our national glory.

You talk of oppression! why, who is oppressed?
What hand ever smote you, what foot ever spurned?
You've been couried and flattered, and fostered, and blessed;
In requiral of all—gainst your country you've turned.
You have palsied the arm often raised to defend you,
Invaded the Union you've sworn to maintain;
You've outraged the laws that were made to befriend

And wounded the bosom that yearned to sustain.

What then are the evils that move your displeasure?
What plea can you urge for this fratricide strife?
Have we captured your forts, have we squandered your treasure?
Have we plotted your death, or embittered your life?
Oh! search your dark thoughts! and you'll find that the spirit

Of hatred, revenge, low ambition and pride,
Impels you to sacrifice all you inherit—
All your brave sires lived for, and for which they died!

OPINION OF THE MASON AND SLIDELL CASE.who recently took up his residence in this country, has written a letter to the newspapers, giving his opinion on the Mason and Slidell capture.

The former are becoming restive because they are prevented by the Government from forwarding the two classes of the sire, in such an event, in regard to his final restitional than $50 in any larger claim, to be paid in cash. Sums of $50 and above, where there is no known, I should consider as my sacred duty to fraction less than that sum are to be paid by the He thinks the whole case in the English Cabinet their cotton to the railroads and seaports, while see fulfilled. This fact, together with private issue of stock. the Captain of the Trent was acquainted with the terms of Her Majesty's proclamation; and, secondly, whether he was aware of the characters of the Captain of the Trent was aware of the characters of Her Majesty's proclamation; and, secondly, whether he was aware of the characters of the cotton, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of the great that proposed to do, as a part of ter of his two passengers, Mason and Slidell.
Should these two questions be answered in the affirmative, the case, in the opinion of Mr. James would be reduced to very narrow dimensions. With all due deference to the acknowledged legislation of the local point of the Virginia Convention circumscribing the right of suffrage. The belief is gaining ground to the local legislation of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request, several to the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the 4th so far as to ask that I may have further time for a consideration of your request of the local under the gal ability of Mr. James, I will here venture the assertion that the answers, whether affirmatively or negatively, of the captain of the Trent to negatively negatively. It is decided that upon claims filed prior to the negatively named in such certificate of deposit.

It is decided that upon claims filed prior to the negative sense of what is due to the negative sense of what is due to the negative sense of the relative sense of what is due to the negative sense of the relative sense of the relative sense of what is due to the negative sense of the relative sense of the State of Oregon, who have always feeling is strengthened by the similar movements. This people of the State of Oregon, who have always feeling is strengthened by the similar movements. either or both of these questions, would not in Alabama and Louisiana restricting the right still evince so much respect to the memory of first day of July, interest on the stock shall comalter the status of the case one iota, in its aspect of suffrage. And in addition to this, the planters my husband. as an international question. "Ignorance of the law excuseth no man," is an English legal maxim negroes shall rise and massacre them.—Sac. Bee. almost as old as the law itself; and hence a plea on the part of the captain of the Trent of ignonate of the English law would not shield him war, one Sergeant J. W. Ambler has been teachfrom the legal consequences of his infraction of that law; nor, on the other hand, would his ignorance of the character of the rebel ambassa evening gave a public exhibition, at which it was dors whom he was harboring deprive Captain announced there would be a "sham fight" be. Wilkes of his right under international law to tween the Federals and the rebels, the latter to Regiment at Springfield, Missouri, Nov. 7th, in TROUBLE AMONG THE REBEL LEADERS.—It is now definitely ascertained in military circles at Washington that Beauregard recently tendered his resignation as a General of the Confederate of battle. As a result there were seven men who war and the means best calculated to bring this army, in consequence of his difference with Jeff needed surgical attendance. The audience were wretched conflict to a speedy, durable and honor-days as to the conduct of the war. Violent too much interested to have "our side" win to able close. The point of difference refers, of course, parties have sprung up among the Confederates of the war. Violent on this question, Beauregard representing the offensive war barty, who believe in invading the North and wintering at Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and Jeff Davis representing the defensive war party, who trust to time and the audience were all on their feet, cheering the Sergeant on. One man has been in bed ever since, and the Sergeant was not able to drill for several days.—Eastern Paper. North and wintering at Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and Jeff Davis representing the defensive war party, who trust to time and the patient defense of their own soil to give them independence. The Beauregard party complain that the policy of Davis has led to the invasion opened on November 1st. During that day make war upon slavery, but upon rebels; and in the case of themselves. [Cheers] It slavery take care of th of South Carolina, and will fill the cotton States with the horrors of war, and end in their destruction, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has succumbed to the war policy to prevent South Carolina, and it is believed that Davis has successful the meanting that day twenty-five messages of twenty words each were transmitted, at the rate of five minutes per messages. The length of the line is fourteen hundred and proportion of the meanting that day the meanting that day twenty-five messages of twenty words each were transmitted, at the rate of five minutes per messages. The length of the line is fourteen hundred and the meanting that day the mean olina and Georgia from seceding from the Confederate States. Gen. Beauregard was induced to withdraw his resignation, and no doubt on the assurance that a change would be made, and that he might have the privilege of attacking the Union armies on the Potomac. Gen. McClelian Union armies on the Potomac. Gen. McClelian Confederate States. Gen. Beauregard was induced this war—has inaugurated it for slavery; and if this war—has inaugurated this w would not be surprised at being offered battle guns, but found himself unable to carry off all these dangerous arms. There remained in Nor-the past six montas is given below, in an article from the N. Y. Post. No nation under heaven ever did or could accomplish so much, in so shont will support the people.

REMAINS OF COL. BAKER.

THE RETORT COURTEOUS .- While Floyd, the gun-thief, was Secretary of War, he stole three thousand United States muskets, and sent them to the remains of Col. Baker : South for his friends and fellow conspirators. San Francisco, Dec. 7th, 1861. Also he stole for their benefit a number of great only to arm the conspirators, but to disarm the nation; and, accordingly, what he could not carry off he tried to destroy. He caused a sham survey to be held on the Dahlgreens, and they were in due time condemned and sold for old iron. Our readers, probably remember how some of these guns were recovered when the rebellion broke out. A correspondent informs

Mrs. Col. E. D. Baker-Dear Madam :

All communications to this office should be addressed to H. SHAW & Co., Eugene City, Oregon.

To Adverge result of State Republicas.

Which recently boarded the Port Royal forts, and had their revenge upon the men who condemned them for old iron by firing the largest kind of shells, with five-second fuses, to drive the rebels out of their fortifications.—Post.

Which recently boarded the Port Royal forts, and had their revenge upon the men who condemned them for old iron by firing the largest kind of shells, with five-second fuses, to drive a grateful people. Most sincerely do we hope that you will grant our request. We await your reply.

Which recently boarded the Port Royal forts, and had their revenge upon the men who condemned them for old iron by firing the largest kind of shells, with five-second fuses, to drive a grateful people. Most sincerely do we hope that you will grant our request. We await your reply.

reply. With heart felt sympathy, we remain, as ever, WHAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS DONE IN SIX MONTHS.—A bird's eye view of the amount of labor done by the United States Government in W. H. Rector, a space of time, as this nation has done. The war across the continent. Six months ago we befallen myself and family, the great force and as the first. Preserving slavery will cost the had not a dozen ships of war at hand ; to-day we justice you urge in fovor of the removal of the Government ten times as much as crushing the number our navy by the hundred, and are guard- remains to Oregon. I feel this more keenly, rebellion. [Voices-"that's so."] ing a coast line of more than two thousand miles. having so fresh a remembrance of his own ex-Six months ago the Government could scarce pressions of high regard for, and fervent gratitude the nationalization of slavery was impossible. It Six months ago the Government could scarce by borrow a few hundred thousands at twelve per cent.; to day twenty millions of people lend it one hundred and fifty millions of dollars at par. Six months ago the question was whether the people would support the Government; to-day the people who had enabled him to attain his to the people who had enabled him to attain his to the people who had enabled him to attain his to the people who had enabled him to attain his to the people who had enabled him to attain his its crest in air!" And here I solemnly assever at that if Jim Lane is compelled to add a note to such an infernal chorus, he breaks his sword and quits the field. [Long continued applause.] only question is whether the Government among them.

H. W. CORBETT, S. E. MORTON, for J. R. MOORES. San Francisco, Dec. 15th, 1861.

I am only desirous of pursuing such a course DISCONTENT AT HOME.—All the news that reaches us from the rebel States but adds proof ed by my children and myself toward them all. upon proof of the wide discontent prevailing It would be a source of unspeakable regret were development of a growing discontent against the the result which has befallen, and before going ner Edwin James, the eminent English barrister, rebel Government among the two classes of the to the field of battle, expressed to them any de-

Very respectfully and truly yours, MARY A. BAKER.

JIM LANE IN MISSOURI.

wilkes of his right under international law to seize them upon the decks of the Trent, notwith-standing they were nominally under protection of a neutral flag.

tween the Federals and the rebels, the latter to seize them upon the decks of the Trent, notwith-had determined not to die so easy, and instead thereof to drive the "Union men" from the stage Congress from New York. We give a portion a nation, ancient or modern, has inaugurated the animal, "there is only one reason why this this war—has inaugurated it for slavery; and if mare should not travel one mile in three min-desolation, moral and material, will mark the The following is the correspondence in relation track of armies. Justice, humanity and mercy require that the conflict be ended as speedily as Astonishing as it may seem to you, soldiers of Indiana, yet it is a fact repeatedly demonstra-On behalf of the citizens of Oregon, we came to request of you the privilege to take the remains of your lamented husband, Oregon's late than in the killing of a son in arms. Abduct and noble Senator, to his adopted State for inter- from the same family a slave and kill a son in ment. It appears peculiarly appropriate that he should be interred at the sear of government— as the greater calamity—the wound for which his late residence—there where his pre-eminent there is no healing balm. I could bring forward abilities secured for himself the distinguished more than a thousand witnesses whose observaposition which he held, the highest in the gift of tion and experience have taught them this fact. our people. He shed a bright lustre over our lift, then, by allowing the slave to fall into the young State, and maintained its honor with his life. Not only are a family and friends bowed liberty, we avoid bloodshed and strike deathdealin sorrow, but a nation is stricken with the deep- ing blows upon the front of the rebellion, does at the same time. If it is the purpose of the Government to crush the rebels and to keep their slaves from stampeding, two armies should be sent into the field. The advance force might be called the treason-crushing army, and should be armed with offensive weapons. The other should move about ten miles in the rear and be called the slavery-restoring army; it should be clad in a defensive armor of triple steel, for such is the San Francisco, Dec. 15th, 1861.

Post says:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the soldiers within the reach of a defenseless capital.

To-day we have probably two hundred thousand may be transferred to the capital of that State—the home armed men on the line of the Potomac and an of his adortion—for interpret. armed men on the line of the Potomac, and an other hundred thousand in the West. Six months ago we had not the arms to put in the hands of seventy-five thousand volunteers; to-day we have muskets, cannon, every supply in abundance for four times the number. Six months ago we could neither feed nor move an army of 5,000 men; to-day every department of our vast mil. sufficient to crush this huge rebellion. In my The Greatest Improvement Invented. men; to-day every department of our vast military organization is complete, and we can make I feel, in the midst of the affliction that has opinion, the second army should be as numerous

OREGON WAR BONDS.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued the following circular: TREASURY DEPARTMENT,)

Sept. 24th, 1861. §
Gentlemen:—The warrants issued in satisfacthere, not only in the army, among its generals, in the Cabinet of the Confederates, but among the people. Letters never meant for the public eye, but which have met it by chance, attest the confided his wishes—whether he anticipated by the confided his wishes—whether he anticipated and organization and organiz mence on that day. On those filed afterwards, and prior to the first of January, interest shall commence on the first of January next, and so The time when interest commences will be indicated upon the warrants, and should be indicated in the certificates of deposit, etc., so as to obviate any investigation on that point in the Register's office.

Upon receipt of the certificate of deposit, the stock will be issued by the register, and the usual records be kept. The certificates of stock will be delivered to such parties as will be enti tled to receive them, or sent by mail in the ordinary course where the claimants so request. I am very respectfully,

S. P. CHASE, Secretary of the Treasury.

To the Treasurer of the United States and Register of the Treasury.

"DEAR me! how fluidly he does talk," said healthy lively appearance. Mrs. Partington, recently, at a temperance lec-ture. "I am rejoiced when he mounts the nostril, for his eloquence warms me in every nerve and cartridge of my body."

A LITTLE fellow, four years old, nonplussed his mother by making the following inquiry: "Mother, if a man is Mister, ain't a woman a Mystery ?"

"Boys," said Uncle Amos, as he surveyed will think of harmonizing this.

Boston and Philadelphia.—The real estate

Boston and Philadelphia.—The real estate

On the strength of the repeal of the stamp duties a new daily paper is to be started in London, as the organ of conservatism. It is to be Ex-Governoe, now Colonel Barstow, of Wishink of harmonizing this.

When lesser contradictions are reconciled we will think of harmonizing this.

War is at best a terrible calamity. In all the covarient national convention, in Charleston, several and at the same time conquer and crush them of the same time conquer and crush them of the stamp duties a regiment of of all put up in different style, which is consin, speaking of his raising a regiment of duties a new daily paper is to be started in London, as the organ of conservatism. It is to be of Boston is valued at $167,000,000; of Philadelphia $150,000,000. Difference in favor of Boston 17,000,000.

This fills the column.

This follower and to be issued in the afternron. It is to be country through which we have marched, the ocratic national convention, in Charleston, several country through which we have marched, the ocratic national convention, in Charleston, several mails are stopped, schools are discontinued, gentlemen invited me to come again—I promised churches are turned into hospitals, and general that I would, and I am going as soon as my regulation prevails. Protract this war, iment is ready to march.

WHEELER & WILSON'S

NEW STYLE

SEWING MACHINE!

NEW IMPROVEMENTS!

NEW IMPROVEMENTS!

NEW IMPROVEMENTS!

NO LEATHER PAD !

NO LEATHER PAD !

NO LEATHER PAD!

GLASS CLOTH PRESSER.

GLASS CLOTH PRESSER.

GLASS CLOTH PRESSER.

NEW STYLE HEMMER!

NEW STYLE HEMMER!

NEW STYLE HEMMER!

MAKING AN ENTIRE

Style Machine.

RY FOR FAMILY PURPOSES.

NEW STYLE MACHINE.

PRICES REDUCED OF PER CENT.

PRICES BEDUCED 20 PER CENT.

BUY THE

WHEELER & WILSON!

It is the Cheapest, most Durable, and Easier

H. C. HAYDEN, Agent. Corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets.

Fish's Infallible HAIR

RESTORATIVE.

-FOR-

RESTORING GRAY HAIR -TO ITS-

COLOR.

It prevents the Hair from falling off. It cores Baldness and removes all dandruff from the

It allays all irritation of the scalp. It couls and refreshes the head, and imparts to the halva

P. S.—The properties which remove dandruff and scruft from the head, allay irritation and free the scalp from humors, renders this article invaluable as a lotion in all entaneous affections; such as Itch, Rash, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Erysipelas, Ringworms, Shingles, Bites and Stings of Insects, and all eruptions of the skin, especially that caused by Poison Oak.

REDINGTON & CO., WHOLESALE AGENTS, 2 409 and 411 Clay Street, San Francisco.

R. PORTERFIELD, AGENT,

STOCKTON. This only genuine article is put up in Pint Bottles, and has the written signature of N. Mille, the original proprietor and manufacturer, on the label and wrapper. Beware

S. Ellsworth,
A TTORNEY and Counselor, U. S. Supreme Court and other courts. Office at Eugene City, Lane county, Oregon. Also, Commissoner of Deeds for New York, Connecticut, etc.