shove amounts are not far from correct, indiging from the best means of information in my power. The whole amounts to one thousand four hundred and forty eight dollars. The amount of expenditures for the year, including city orders not yet redeemed or paid off, amounts to the sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty one dollars and lifty cents, leaving a bahance in favor of the city of the sum of one hundred and ninety-six dollars and twenty eight cents. It also appears that out of the sum of expenditures, as above stated, only about two hundred dollars remains unpaid, which amount can be paid off so soon as the taxes are collected, and quite a balance of funds left in the treasury.—Extract from ex-Mayor's Report.
