From the Union Songsten. MY COUNTRY'S PLAG OF STARS.

BY HARRY RIVES, A PORETOPMAN,

Vve roamed for many a lengthy mile
Upon the stormy seas;
I've seen full twenty banners float
All proudly on the breeze—
That Standard, too, Great Britain's pride,
Toe boast of England's tars—
Yet none could thrill my heart but thee,
My Country's Flag of Stars!

Brazil's gay flag of gorgeous dyes;
The barner of du Spain;
E'en Gallia's bunting, as it flies,
Is not undimmed by stain;
Their lustre has been suited oft
At home, by dead y jars;
But my bright azare fleids are pure,
My Country's Flag of Stars

In some famed foreign ports I've seen
The dags of half the world—
To celebrate a gata-day—
Their bunting all enfuried.
With thresbung heart I glanced my eye
Along the tapering spars,
Until my gaze was fixed on thee,
My Country's Fing of Stars!

And when thy stripes and azure field And when thy stripes and account first met my eager sight.

My bosom heaved, my heart it thrilled,
With feelings of delight.
I haned it as the conosure
Of our Columbia's tars;
The banner of the brave and free,
My Country's Flag of Stars!

And where's the heart possessing but
One spark of freedom's zeal,
That would not, gazing on thy folds,
A patriot's spirit fee.?
The veteran, too, as he looks down
Upon his ancient scars,
That would not half thee with delight,
My Country's Flag of Stars!
