The following letter, which emphatically speaks for itself, was written by the Dean of the Faculty of the Philadelphia College of Medicine—to the editors of the Pacific Medical and Surgical Journal, San Francisco for publication:

PHILADELPHIA, January 17th, 1862. To the Editors of the Pacific Medical Journal—Gentlemen: My attention has been called to an article in the December number of your journal, in regard to the ad eundem degree granted by the Philadelphia College of Medicine to Dr. L. J. Czapkay. When the application for the degree was made to the Faculty, it was accompanied by affidavits and testimonials to the effect that Dr. Czapkay, was a regular graduate M. D. of the University of Perth, had served as a surgeon in the Hungarian army, and was a regular practitioner of medicine. On the strength of these the degree was granted. The ad eundem degree, as its name implies, is conferred on graduates only, and gives us new privileges. Had there been the slightest suspicion of irregularity, the application would have been refused. By inserting this in your journal you will do an act of justice to the college, and confer a favor on Yours, very respectfully, H. H. RAND, Dean of the Faculty of the Phila. College of Medicine.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute is on Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's office, San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultations and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

CERTIFICATE.—I, the undersigned, Governor of Hungary, do hereby certify, that Dr. L. J. Czapkay has served during the contest for Hungarian Liberty, as Chief Surgeon, in the Hungarian army, with faithful perseverance. Whereof I have given him this certificate, and recommend him to the sympathy, attention and protection of all those who are capable of appreciating patriotic self-sacrifice, and undeserved misfortune. KOSSUTH LAJOS, Governor of Hungary. Washington City, January 30th, 1862.

Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.

PROSPECTUS

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1, 1861. The undersigned commenced, in the month of December last, the publication, in this city, of a weekly newspaper, called the National Republican. It is printed on a large sheet, twenty-seven by forty-two inches, and is furnished at the low price stated below. It will contain all the original matter of the daily National Republican, with the exception of local news not interesting to country subscribers. It will give full reports of the proceedings of Congress, and of the other departments of the national Government. It will contain all the news of the day, foreign and domestic, markets, etc., as well as original correspondence from all parts of the country. The miscellaneous department will receive special attention and, in all respects, the effort will be made to establish the character of the National Republican as a Family Newspaper. Washington being now the central point of the current military operations, great attention will be paid to furnishing the readers of the National Republican with full and especially with accurate accounts of the progress of the war for the Union. In politics, the paper will be Republican, sustaining the Administration of Mr. Lincoln, but disclaiming, however, any pretension to be the organ of the President. There is no Republican paper in the District of Columbia, or in the vicinity of it, and it is believed that recent events have opened to such a paper an important sphere of useful effort. The time has come, when the actual administration of the Government upon Republican principles will explode the misrepresentations which have made those principles so distasteful to the South. But it is not only here, and in this vicinity, that the projectors of the National Republican hope to make it useful. To the whole country they offer a journal which will give national politics from a national standpoint, and which will never be swayed from patriotism duty by any overbearing pressure of local interest.

Terms of Subscription. One copy for one year, $2 00. Three copies for one year, 5 00. Five copies for one year, 7 00. Ten copies for one year, 12 00. Twenty copies for one year, 20 00.

When a club of subscribers has been forwarded, additions may be made to it on the same terms. It is not necessary that the subscribers to a club should receive their papers at the same post office. Money may be forwarded by mail, at our risk. Large accounts can be remitted in drafts on Boston, New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore; smaller amounts in gold, or in notes of solvent banks.

The Daily National Republican is published every morning (Sundays excepted) at $2 per annum in advance. Address W. J. MURTAGH & CO., Washington, D. C.

TRACY & CO'S OREGON EXPRESS.
