MORE TREASON.—Pat Malone and J. D. Page have revived the Corvallis Union. Pat says he has "proached and prayed" for months, to induce the "personal hand organs which are afflicting the Democracy of Oregon," to suspend publication, and leave him master of the field and the "biggest toad in the puddle."

Mr. H. R. Kincaid, will be present at the State Fair to receive the dues of this office.

J. MARION GALE, is authorized to receipt for money due us; also to solicit subscriptions for the REPUBLICAN.

READ Gen. Wright's order in another column. He'll make the Tories "git."

THERE seems to be some diversity of opinion in regard to changing the name of this county. If we were organizing a new county, we should earnestly oppose calling it after the name of any individual, and especially after Lane, but now that the name is established, and all our seals would be lost and new ones to be procured, which would take both time and money—and beside, Union men would be laying down a precedent which if followed up would render our public seals and records very unstable, as they might be changed and shifted with every turn in political riel. No! We say let the name remain Lane. But have it distinctly understood that it is not named for Jo Lane the traitor, but for Gen. Jim Lane the patriot.

WE are requested by Mr. Underwood, to say that the joke which appeared in our columns two weeks ago in reference to the "appropriation of a watch," was not intended to reflect on the character of any one.

Had there been the slightest suspicion of irregularity, the application would have been refused. By inserting this in your journal you will do an act of justice to the college, and confer a favor on me. Yours, very respectfully, H. RAND, Dean of the Faculty of the Phila. College of Medicine.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN. WASHINGTON, D. C. July 1, 1861. The undersigned commenced, in the month of December last, the publication, in this city, of a weekly newspaper, called the National Republican.

It is printed on a large sheet, twenty-seven by forty-two inches, and is furnished at the low prices stated by the following table: It will contain all the original matter of the daily National Republican, with the exception of local news not interesting to country subscribers. It will give full reports of the proceedings of Congress, and of the other departments of the national Government. It will contain all the news of the day, foreign and domestic, markets, etc., as well as original correspondence from all parts of the country. The miscellaneous department will receive special attention, and in all respects, the effort will be made to establish the character of the National Republican as a Family Newspaper. Washington being now the central point of the current military operations, great attention will be paid to furnishing the readers of the National Republican with full and especially with accurate, accounts of the progress of the war for the Union.

In politics, the paper will be Republican, sustaining the Administration of Mr. Lincoln, but disclaiming, however, any pretension to be the organ of the President. There is no Republican paper in the District of Columbia, or in the vicinity of it, and it is believed that recent events have opened to such a paper an important sphere of useful effort. The time has come, when the actual administration of the Government upon Republican principles will explode the misrepresentations which have made those principles so distasteful to the South. But it is not only here, and in this vicinity, that the projectors of the National Republican hope to make it useful. To the whole country they offer a journal which will discuss national politics from a national standpoint, and which will never be swayed from patriotic duty by any overbearing pressure of local interest.

Terms of Subscription. One copy for one year, $2 00; Three copies for one year, 5 00; Five copies for one year, 7 00; Ten copies for one year, 12 00; Twenty copies for one year, 20 00. When a club of subscribers has been forwarded, additions may be made to it on the same terms. It is not necessary that the subscribers to a club should receive their papers at the same post office. Money may be forwarded by mail, at our risk. Large accounts can be remitted in drafts on Boston, New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore; smaller amounts in gold, or in notes of solvent banks.

The Daily National Republican is published every morning (Sundays excepted) at 25 cents per annum, in advance. Address W. J. MURTAGH & Co., Washington, D. C.

TRACY & CO'S OREGON EXPRESS. PORTLAND, March 21st, 1862. THE PARTNERSHIP heretofore existing between the undersigned is this day dissolved by mutual consent.
