PROSPECTUS OF THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

Washington, D. C., July 1, 1861. The undersigned commenced, in the month of December last, the publication, in this city, of a weekly newspaper, called the National Republican.

It is printed on a large sheet, twenty-seven by forty-two inches, and is furnished at the low price stated below. It will contain all the original matter of the daily National Republican, with the exception of local news not interesting to country subscribers. It will give full reports of the proceedings of Congress, and of the other departments of the national Government. It will contain all the news of the day, foreign and domestic, markets, etc., as well as original correspondence from all parts of the country. The miscellaneous department will receive special attention and, in all respects, the effort will be made to establish the character of the National Republican as a Family Newspaper.

Washington being now the central point of the current military operations, great attention will be paid to furnishing the readers of the National Republican with full, and especially with accurate, accounts of the progress of the war for the Union.

In politics, the paper will be Republican, sustaining the Administration of Mr. Lincoln, but disclaiming, however, any pretension to be the organ of the President. There is no Republican paper in the District of Columbia, or in the vicinity of it, and it is believed that recent events have opened to such a paper an important sphere of useful effort. The time has come, when the actual administration of the Government upon Republican principles will explode the misrepresentations which have made those principles so distasteful to the South. But it is not only here, and in this vicinity, that the projectors of the National Republican hope to make it useful. To the whole country they offer a journal which will discuss national politics from a national standpoint, and which will never be swayed from patriotic duty by any overbearing pressure of local interest.

Terms of Subscription: One copy for one year, - - - - - $2 00 Three copies for one year, - - - - - 5 00 Five copies for one year, - - - - - 7 00 Ten copies for one year, - - - - - 12 00 Twenty copies for one year, - - - - - 20 00

When a club of subscribers has been forwarded, additions may be made to it on the same terms. It is not necessary that the subscribers to a club should receive their papers at the same post office. Money may be forwarded by mail, at our risk. Large accounts can be remitted in drafts on Boston, New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore; smaller amounts in gold, or in notes of solvent banks.

The Daily National Republican is published every morning (Sundays excepted) at $2 50 per annum, in advance. Address W. J. MURTAGH & CO., Washington, D. C.
