Brockfox, May 24, 1855.

Dear Sir—Having entirely recovered from my sickness I avail myself of this opportunity to return my thankful acknowledgement for the relief that you have given us. When I think of the distressing bodily weakness, under which I have suffered, and the nervousness, bealache fearfulness, want of confidence, dizmess, restlessness, weakness in the limbs, loss of memory, confission of ideas, distike for society, nocturnal emissions, and many other symptoms, which had made my life miserable, I can hardly express the gratitude I feel, for my existence had become a burthen to me, and nothing afforded me the least gratification, whilst now, I feel perfectly well and can enjoy life to my entire satisfaction. Knowing that there are many afflicted as I have been, you have permission to make use of this letter as you think proper. Believe me gratefully yours.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco.—Sir—I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recallect, since I called at your Institute, with my constitution, as I thought, entirely tacken, and sever thought you would be able to due one me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to case the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my limbs, which were so weak that they would almost give way under me, when I waiked, and to strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at every little thing. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those blotches and sires from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those consistens, which you said were principally the cause of my sickness.

I can hardly led you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man con feel.
