The following letter, which emphatically speaks for itself, was written by the Dean of the Faculty of the Philadelphia College of Medicine to the editors of the Pacific M edical and Surgical Journal, Sant Francisco for publication:

Prinadelipita, January 17th, 1862.

To the Editors of the Pacific Medical Journal -Gentlemen: My attention has been called to an article in the December number of your journal, in regard to the adequatem degree granted for the Philadelphia College of Medicine to Dr. L. J. Czapkay. When the application for the degree was made to the Faculty, it was accompanied by allidavits and testimonials to the effect that Dr. Czapkay, was a regular graduate M. D. of the University of Pesth, had served as a surgoon in the Hungarian army, and was a regular practitioner of medicine. On the strength of these the degree was granted. The ad cundem degree, as its name implies, is conferred on graduates only, and gives as new privileges. Had there been the slightest suspicion of irregularity, the application would have been relused. By inserting this in your journal you will do an act of justice to the college, and confer a favor on, Yours, very respectfully.
