DIED.

In this City, on the 27th of December last after an illness of 26 hours, Enna Rose, Daughter of J. N. and Enzangen M. Gale, aged two years, seven months and Close her eye-lids-press them gently

O'er the dead and leaden eyes, For the soul that made them lovely Is now beyond this vale of sight; Wipe the death drops from her forehead, Sever one dear golden tress, Fold her jey hands all meekly. Smooth the little snow-white breast : Scatter flowers o'er her pillow-Gentle flowers, so pure and white-Lay the bad upon her bosom; There-now softly say Good Night.

While the twilight shadows gather, We shall wait in vain to feel Little arms, all white and disapled, Round our necks so sofily signl; Our wet checks will miss the pressure Of sweet lips so warm and red, And our bosoms sadly, sadly Miss that during little head

Which was wont to rest there sweetly-And those golden eyes, so bright, We shall miss their loving glauces We shall miss their soft Good Night. When the morrow's sun is shining,

They will take this cherished form, They will bear it to the grave-yard And consign it to the tomb; Well-she's happier-this is only The the clay dress our darling wore; God hath robed her as an angel, She can use this form no more; Fold her hands, and o'er her pillow Scatter flowers all pure and white, Kiss that marble brow, and whisper, Once again, a last Good Night.

for publication:

PHILADELPHIA, January 17th, 1862.

To the Editors of the Pacific Medical Journal—Gentlemen: My attention has been called to an article in the December number of your journal, in regard to the adequated degree granted by the Philadelphia College of Medicine to Dr. L. J. Czapkay. When the application for the degree was made to the Faculty, it was accompanied by affidavits and testimentals to the effect that Dr. Czapkay, was a regular graduate M. D. of the University of Pesth, had served as a surgeon in the Hungarian army, and was a regular practitioner of medicine. On the strength of these the degree was granted. The ad cunden degree, as its name implies, is conferred on graduates only, and gives us new privileges. Had there been the slightest suspicion of irregularity, the application would have been refused. By inserting this is your journal you will do an act of justice to the college, and confer a favor on, Yours, very respectfully.

H. RAND, Dean of the Faculty of the Phina. College of Medicine.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute is on Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite the Facilic Mull Steamship Company's office, Sau Francisco. The Douter office free consultations and asks no remaneration unless he effects a cure. Office horse from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
