Sands' Sarsaparilla,

FOR THE REMOVAL AND CURE OF

All Diseases arising from an Impure State of the Blood or Habit of the System.

IN this preparation are strongly concentrated all the medicinal properties of Sarsaparilla, combined with the most effectual aids, the most salutary productions, the most potent simples of the vegetable kingdom; and the combination is such that one modifies and improves the other, producing a compound differing entirely in its character and properties from any other preparation, and unrivalled in its operation on the system when laboring under disease. It has been so fully tested, not only by patients themselves, but also by physicians, that it has received their unqualified recommendations and the approbation of the public; and has established on its own merits a reputation for value and efficacy far superior to the various compounds bearing the name of Sarsaparilla.

FROM THE ARMY.

MONTEREY, CAL., Jan. 18, 1859.

Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS—Gentlemen: I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of your invaluable medicine, hoping it may lead some other unfortunate beings to try its effects, and that they may be benefited as I have been. I arrived here by the overland route, about the first of October last. A few days after I was attacked with a very disagreeable eruption of the skin, which my physician could not cure. I happened to find your Sarsaparilla in a store in this place, and remembering the popularity of the medicine at home, I purchased three bottles, which had the desired effect of removing my difficulty entirely.

With high regards, yours, etc.,

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1, 1861.

The undersigned commenced, in the month of December last, the publication, in this city, of a weekly newspaper, called the National Republican.

It is printed on a large sheet, twenty-seven by forty-two inches, and is furnished at the low prices stated below.

It will contain all the original matter of the daily National Republican, with the exception of local news not interesting to country subscribers. It will give full reports of the proceedings of Congress, and of the other departments of the national Government. It will contain all the news of the day, foreign and domestic, markets, etc., as well as original correspondence from all parts of the country. The miscellaneous department will receive special attention and, in all respects, the effort will be made to establish the character of the National Republican as a Family Newspaper. Washington being now the central point of the current military operations, great attention will be paid to furnishing the readers of the National Republican with full, and especially with accurate, accounts of the progress of the war for the Union.

In politics, the paper will be Republican, sustaining the Administration of Mr. Lincoln, but disclaiming, however any pretention to be the organ of the President. There is no Republican paper in the District of Columbia, or in the vicinity of it, and it is believed that recent events have opened to such a paper an important sphere of useful effort. The time has come, when the actual administration of the Government upon Republican principles will explode the misrepresentations which have made those principles so distasteful to the South. But it is not only here, and in this vicinity, that the projectors of the National Republican hope to make it useful. To the whole country they offer a journal which will discuss national politics from a national standpoint, and which will never be swerved from patriotic duty by any overpowering pressure of local interest.

Terms of Subscription.

One copy for one year,	$1 00
Three copies for one year,	5 00
Five copies for one year,	7 00

When a club of subscribers has been forwarded, additions may be made to it on the same terms. It is not necessary that the subscribers to a club should receive their papers at the same post office. Money may be forwarded by mail, at our risk. Large accounts can be remitted in drafts on Boston, New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore; smaller amounts in gold, or in notes of solvent banks.

The Daily National Republican is published every morning (Sundays excepted) at $9 50 per annum, in advance.
