EUGENE CITY, OREGON, FEBRUARY 28, 1863.

NO. 7.

Vol. II.

THE STATE REPUBLICAN.

Devoted to the Political and General Interests of the People.

J. NEWTON GALE.

Types of subscriptions.

The Subscription agent will send the weekly States Republican to the subscriber free of all postage. This offer is good only to subscribers who shall receive their paper on the 1st of every month:

States subscription.

Price three dollars per year. The paper is sent to subscribers in the States free of all postage.

Foreign subscription.

Price six dollars per year. The paper is sent to subscribers in the foreign countries free of all postage.

The late news.

The States Republican is the only paper in the Northwest devoted to the political and general interests of the people. It is published weekly and contains a large amount of original matter, covering the State, county, and local news, with many leading articles on the political and social condition of the country. It is edited by a distinguished literary character, whose aim is to present a true and impartial view of the events of the day.

The States Republican is printed on fine paper, and its typography is of the highest order. It is a weekly paper, and contains a large amount of original matter, covering the State, county, and local news, with many leading articles on the political and social condition of the country. It is edited by a distinguished literary character, whose aim is to present a true and impartial view of the events of the day.

The States Republican is printed on fine paper, and its typography is of the highest order. It is a weekly paper, and contains a large amount of original matter, covering the State, county, and local news, with many leading articles on the political and social condition of the country. It is edited by a distinguished literary character, whose aim is to present a true and impartial view of the events of the day.