THE STATE REPUBLICAN.

DEVOTED TO THE POLITICAL AND GENERAL INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

VOL. II.

EUGENE CITY, OREGON, MARCH 7, 1863.

THE STATE REPUBLICAN Published every Saturday by

J. NEWTON GALE.

Terms of Subscription.

The Raronatoax will be published at $2.50 a year in advance; $3.00 if paid at the end of six months; or $4.00 at the close of the year. One dollar additional will be charged for each year payment is neglected.

1. No papers discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at our option.

Rates of Advertising.

Four squares and upwards, one year, per square, six months, per square, ix months, per square, three mouths,

Administrator's Notices, and all advertisements relating to estates of deceased persons, which have to be swor

To ADVERTISERS.—Business men throughout Oregon and California will find it greatly to their advantage to adver-tise in the State Republicas.

The Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the cantrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subentrary, are considered as wishing to continue their surscriptions.

2 If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them till all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed they are beld responsible till they have settled the bill and ordered the paper discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take a paper from the office, or removing and leaving it uncalled for, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

FLIZABETH. A REMINISCENCE-MEMENTO MORI.

Written for the Washoe Times -by Americane,

It was a delightful day in March, 1847; the gentle breez, from the Gulf moved softly over the surface of Southern Alabama, bringinging with it the fragrance of the magnolia bloom, of the jessamine, and of the thousand flowers which grace the Southern portion of that flowery State. I was standing listle sly upon the plaza in the center of the village, beneath an oak, whose top had been artistically trimmed to gratify the taste of the most artistic eye. Half a dozen little hear that music? Oh! what sweet singing! girls, of from eight to ten years of age, came tripping across the plaza to me, and, all chattering together, asked me if I would ramble with ing together, asked me if I would ramble with the in the woods, to gather flowers. They could be woods, to gather flowers. They could be woods, to gather flowers. They could be woods, to gather flowers, they could be word and the could be worded backed like six little nawing dangels, with their fair, raddy faces, and their dresses as gay as their there, in the fields, were clusters of negroes, portals of life into the spirit land.

they have magnolias in Heaven, Mr .- " said "Can you get us some magnolia blooms?" said nipped before life's maturity.

enother.

I had not been in Heaven, though I felt well satisfied with the little heaven I was then enjoy. ing, and I could not answer the first, but to the s cond question I answered : "I will try to get you one, Lizzy, and one for Journal, of January 20th :

ers ; twining tendrils of the passion flowers and record the war might have been at an end. Our of the gayer yellow jessamine, clung fondly to the tall trees and covered their surface with gold, and pink, and pink, and blue, in rich protusion, and in greater beauty then any bequet fashioned by other than Nature's magnificent hands. Soon the more little companions had gathered more in the protusion and gathered more in the protusion and gathered more in the protusion and record the war might have been at an end. Our revived.

We understand that the innovation has elicit and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, and blue, in rich protusion, and in greater beauty then any bequet fashioned by other than Nature's magnificent hands. Soon to number a million. Our may from that if successful they will follow it up with those disgusting "beauty patches" once in vogue.

The cord the war might have been at an end. Our revived.

We understand that the innovation has elicit and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, soon to number a million. Our may from the fashioned by other than Nature's magnificent hands. Soon the uniter business.

We understand that the innovation has elicit and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, soon to number a million. Our may from the fashioned by one in the ladies who have the matter in hand—or rather, on head—and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, soon to number a million. Our may from the fashioned by one in the ladies who have the matter in hand—or rather, on head—and splendally appointed force of nearly 800, soon to number a million. Our may from the fashioned by the chief magnificent hands. Soon to number a million of the fash other than Nature's magnineent hands.

So very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that if successful they will follow it up with so very remote from the scene of active opera that it is not active operation. flowers than they could manage, and they clust completion, of 427 vessels of war, carrying After that the ladies will, perhaps, demend that us apout Heaven-will you?"

they come to a most beautiful home in the midst covered to the Union. And foreign nations, on the battle held, but the war code. We have Called States, this fact should not absolve them and when has seen no one would have dreamed they come to a most beautiful garden, planted with fig and whatever secret enmity they may indulge, have not the least doubt if Mr. Lincoln was only a from the military duty which they owe to their whatever secret enmity they may indulge, have not the least doubt if Mr. Lincoln was only a from the military duty which they owe to their that by any accident his cowhides had been cor pomegranate, and peach, and orange, and fruit full time by the development of a power which of all kinds, and with beds of flower of all kinds, and with the maintain and the midstage. In the least doubt if Mr. Lincoln was only a from the military duty which they owe to their that by any accident his cowhides had been corrected to the Union. And foreign flower of the Union the was considered to t of all kinds, and with beds of flower of all kind, and with the main at home expect that their brothers or neighbors who do enlist should roake a greater plaint so long as the war lasts, when we see the sacrifice than those of other States. If we can make more at our labor at home, we are better point to as a conquest of the war. Not a fort think of that is beautiful and good; and the point to as a conquest of the war. Not a fort prepared to do our share towards equalizing the will be raised without a draft.

**Massachuserrs** State** Quota. There are now about three hodred men lacking to fill the main at home expect that their brothers or neighbors who do enlist should roake a greater plaint so long as the war lasts, when we see the sacrifice than those of other States. If we can make more at our labor at home, we are better point to as a conquest of the war. Not a fort prepared to do our share towards equalizing the will be raised without a draft.

"I think Heaven must be a very pretty place," force said little 'Jim' Coleman, a beautiful little blackeyed girl of eight years of age.

that you might go and see her.'

whispered in her ear.

and seeing me, she said; "I want you to take that it has made a great war, by and by, won't you?"

The emaciated little form was wasting rapidly away, and she, feeling death's hands upon her, asked me to remain with her until her spirit should leave her little frame.

I did so. At times her mind seemed wandering, and she would talk with beings whom those ponstanding around her could not see. At times her gleeful and silvery laugh rung out on the air, in strange contrast with the reflections of the sandened hearts around the death bod.

last that little Lizzie progounced on earth.

"chopping out" cotton with their hoes, and leave "chopping out" cotton with their hoes, and the only alternative was the five hun. himself by purchasing the works of Origen.

Sometimes of the second "Oh, how sweetly that magnolia smells! Do so well in life, encircled her pale brow, while, in vel Weller, Senior. her tiny hands, claped upon her breast, she held the swelling bud of a moss rose—fit type of her-nipped before life's maturity.

Ver Weiter, Sentor.

But far beyond crinolines, beyond "pages," beyond "pages," beyond "sky scrapers," and beyond widows bows, looms up a new horror. It may be lift.

Times.

more, and to adorn their ro ms at home.

Seated in a circle around me, little Mary cluding powerful elements both of attack and every day they show the new spirits, just come to Heaven, something new and still more levely; in the first surprise of the rebellion. They have and during their nights which we would here call day, because they are so light—they sing songs surprises, and burning unarmed merchant ships, of joy and praise to God who made them, and they have had some success. But such transient to find the paper of the soldier.

As Amesino Devil.—Mrs. Swisshelm, of the paper of the soldier.

To our mind it is clearly the duty of the East. Two days afterward, the following amusing "Personal" appeared under the editorial they have had some success. But such transient they have had some success. But such transient to the average of the rebellion. has given them so much to make them happy; and unfoutful advantages are far from establish. The editor descrited this establishment on last wages of the State. There are plausible obwhile God always looks upon them with pleasure, ing their claim to be a nation, and present a Tuesday morning-taking the stage for St. Paul. jections to a private subscription, because the because they are good and love each other marked contrast to the steady, though slow, ad She proposes to continue her trip East. All amount promised might be liberal, while the rious defeats in the battle field, but no wars, not to recognize any of her bills. Three weeks after our wildwood ramble, Mary E. Coleman, one of my little companious, came running to my room in great trepidation—her luka, Corinth, Boston Mountain, Actietam, Mur cheeks blanched, and her lips lividly white.

"What is the matter, Poss?" said I. Puss offset, the irrepressible valor of our troops, who freesboro, and Vicksburg; but, as a completer was her common nickname.

"Oh! Mr.—," said she, "Lizzie Moats is very ever before. Great military abilities cannot be are more determined and effective now than sick, and she wishes to see you. Grandmamma improvised. They are the work of time. They says she is going to die, and I have run all the spring gradually from the exigencies of circum in brings to the discharge of the important duties ergy is used to crush rebelion. way up here, from Lizzie's house, to tell you, so stances. Europe for centuries has been engaged in war, and you may number the names of its "I will go and see Lizzie, and you may go really great generals on the finger ends. How with me, Puss; but I hope Lizzie will not die, many has England had besides Wellington; how now." "Oh, yes she will Mr.—, for grandmamma ly, Austria, Russia? What, indeed, has been said she would!" Then little Pass burst into the history of all comprehensive campaigns, of gallant fellows whom Gen. Price led from Mistears.

We walked into the room where dying little Lizzie lay. Puss walked up to her besiside and war," says Turenne, "who never made mistakes;" of battles and camps fit for service.—Selma Javis draw on Northern conservative journals for his arguments? Or do they copy from 500 were lately left survivors of the casualties budges, "He never made camps fit for service.—Selma said of his baby, "it looks just like its father," and that a young and peaceful nation like ours (Ala.) Scatinel. "Has Mr .- come ?" said the little one; should have made great mistakes is to say only hold of my hand. I am going to that Heaven, In spite, therefore, of errors and failures-of now, you told us of; and I shall see those pretty gardens, and flowers, and the angels, and oh! I believe that the martial record of the last twentyshall be so happy there! But I shall want to two months will compare gloriously with that of see my playmates, and Pa, and Ma, and you, any other nation, ancient or modern, beginning ! but you will all come and be with me under the same embarrassments, and conducted by a similar inexperience.

> PRENTICE says: " 'Tis a pity, that when a professedly loyal editor begins to write desponding sense of the term, occured a few days since, in ly about the result of the war, the coldness of the back parlor of a bank which lately closed its hear that music? Oh! what sweet singing! been an evident inclination among the ladies of bon't you see these angels? I see then! They are coming. Here they are, right around my times, at any expense of comfort and beauty, walked into the private office and confronted the

Changes in Ladies' Fashions.

Since then, sixteen years have passed as gay as their every first love little girls, and the backer of books by the correctly such good little girls as I know you complications. The dressing of bonnets is becoming a study of no ordinary complications. White such good little girls as I know you consider the beautiful girls as I know you consider the prevailing or nament for the bulk of the price of books by the nected with it, I never shall forget. Often, when the bonnet, and have a very pretty effect. Immunes the price of books by the nected with it, I never shall forget. Often, when the bonnet, and have a very pretty effect. Immunes the price of books by the nected with it, I never shall forget. Often, when the bonnet, and have a very pretty effect. Immunes being the bonnet, and have a very pretty effect. Immunes below of white muslin are also coming in seeme passes before me. I expect to need Lize the throat, and are in geniously constructed so as to cover the breast, being furnished with white tabs which deemed by her, among the first, as I pass through the covering, marking the brown boam with bright covering the first, as I pass through the covering the first that the board dollars out of the price of books of white muslin are also coming in the bonnet, and the backer looked at him in dismay. "What are you agoing to do?" he arked. "I am going to take that five hundred dollars out of the books of white muslin are also coming in the bonnet, and the backer looked at him in dismay. "What are you agoing to do?" he arked. "I am going to t bows, looms up a new horror. It may be lit erally said that "horsors on horror's head accu-The Record of the War.

We copy the following sensible comments on be management of the war from the Louisville appeared at several parties and social gatherings.

Bounty for Soldiers.

Bounty for Soldiers.

Day before yesterday, just after the House of Representatives had assembled, a tall, fine looking woman, dressed in deep mourning, enterel one of the doors of the east gallery, and advanced to the war from the Louisville appeared at several parties and social gatherings.

Seated in a circle around me, little Mary cluding powerful elements both of attack and Coleman, looking up to me with her mild blue defence unknown to earlier warfare. The vast cians are continually howling about the negres which the mines effer, the low prices soldiers receive compared with the ordinary to their native hell, and let them abide with their wages of the country, and the probability that I will confess that I was at my wits' ends, for, Nor are the actual achievements of the war thority. Go anywhere in public or private life, these low wage will be paid in a depreciated I will confess that I was at my wits' ends, for, though I had heard many descriptions of that though I had heard many descriptions of that happy country, I feard that my powers of word painting were too weak to insure me the active attention of my little auditors.

"When little boys or girls, or people older than they, die," I said, "I think they hardly know the though They may see the may, or else garrisoned and governed by our flaence and chance for favoritism, there would them. and we now hold them fast under the gaus of the change they pass through. They may see the change they pass through. They may see the holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their holies their spirits have left, and they see their spirits of heir spirits have left, and they see their spirits of heir spirits of their spirits of indicators. It has bean done elsewhere, by the State look upon it as a party measure, vanced and permanent occupation of the Union persons are forbidden to trust her on our ac- sum actualy paid might not correspond. The ob-We have sustained, it is true, a few very se person connected with the office-utterly refuses accomplish it, an extra session of the legislature certain of his opinions on questions of demestic polities, it gives us only the greater pleasure to devolved on him as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations in the Senate. In this capacity he has deservedly won the confidence of the whole country.

PRICE AND HIS MISSOURIANS,-Of the 10,000

ONE MORE FOR DIXIE.—The Bee says it is dark colored." uniored that David S. Terry of Stockton, an ex-Judge of the Supreme Court of this State, has left for Dixie, having been tendered a com-Correion, -A case of coercion, in the fullest he had deposited, which was as much as to say The New York Evening Post says there has that he could have broken down litinois money, "The 'sky-scraper' bonnets have assumed pr portions of singular extent and inconvenient sing. Without a word, he commenced pulling off his coat. He was a hard fisted, stalwart man and the banker locked at he had received from the clerks—currency or nothing. Without a word, he commenced pulling off his coat. He was a hard fisted, stalwart man and the banker locked at he had received from the clerks—currency or noth have none to give—for you have not enough to satisfy yourself!" mape. The dressing of bonnets is becoming a and the banker looked at him in dismay, "What count, as the "devil"-now the only responsible jection to a bounty by law is that in order to would be necessary. We do not doubt but that a Charles Summer.—The National Intelligen see the egislature of the State assemble and cer, noticing the election of Sumner, of Massa- vote a reasonable bounty to those of her sors husetts, to the United States Senate, says : who have or may enroll their names as soldiers lf we are not able to concur with Sumner in in the army of the Union.

THE Democrats are very tearful, lest the radbear our cheerful and candid testimony to the leals should hurt the rebels very bad, hence their

> The Sugar crop of Louisiana will not exceed sixty thousand hogsheads, when but for the rebellon it would have been half a million,

> Queny.-The Quincy Union asks, does Jeff Davis draw on Northern "conservative" jourespecialy in the complection, for we are both

Scrap from History.

While Alexander the Great was engaged in mission in the rebel army, which he accepted, the conquest of the ancient Indian territories, DEATH OF THE SON.—Captain B. C. Yancey, he happened on one occasin to be present at an assembly in which Braimin stepped forward and son of the old rebel William L. Yaucey, was one of the slain at the battle of Murfreesboro of ground stamping upon it with great energy. of ground, stamping upon it with great energy. The general demanded explanation of this strange sense of the term, occured a few days since, in proceeding. "To every man" said the Braimin, "is such a portion of earth allotted as I am meashis patriotism does not congeal the link in his doors. A mechanic who had deposited five no more; and yet led on by an idle curiosity, the bank, went to draw it out. He was informed and regardless of justice, thou art traveling from that he could be paid in the same money which he had do sited which was a number to the third or to thy fellow creatures."

Alexander then desired an Indian sage by the name of Dandamis to come to him, declaring himself to be the "son of Jupiter" and having power to reward him.

"I am," replied the sage, "the son of Jupiter fortals of life into the spirit land.

These bows are eminently suggestive of mourn that proposition was a poser. A movement would have been the signal for a trip hammer alout to about $2,800. St. Jerome also ruined

THE GODESS OF LIBERTY VISITS CONGRESS -A correspondent of the Sacramento Union, writing from Washington, under date of Jan. 17, the management of the war from the Louisville appeared at several parties and social gath rings with their hair done up in the old style, and social gath rings with their hair done up in the old style, and then thickly bestrewed with powder. Of course, lithe record of the war thus for our wide then thickly bestrewed with powder. Of course, each of you, during our walk, and you may think you will have the same rich flowers in Heaven."

On finding a small magnolis tree, afterward, by dint of climbing, I kept my promise to the were far in the woods, among honeysuckles and sweet bads, Indian pinks, and an innumerable tweet bads, Indian pinks, and an innumerable wardiety of minor bat fragrant and beautiful flow arriety days of sackloth and ashes seem to have been Governor of our State is endeavoring to raise monishing Congress to be about their business.

flowers then they could manage, and they clust completion, of 427 vessels of war, carrying ered around me to arrange them into garlands and boquets, to beautify them, if possible, still more, and to adorn their ro ms at home.

Something is required of them, a feeling of care lial adaptation to our national purposes, and in cluster of the purposes, and in cluster of the purposes, and in cluster of the purposes of the battle the gentlemen wear ruffles, red coats, swords and curied wigs.

We sound the note of alarm.

After that the ladies will, perhaps, demend that the gentlemen wear ruffles, red coats, swords and curied wigs.

We sound the note of alarm.

Sir could I have my way I would which are most likely to retard the Governor in bind the rebels in arms and rebels in civil life,