

AGENTS FOR THE STATE REPUBLICAN.

The following named gentlemen are authorized to receive and receipt for money on subscription to the REPUBLICAN.

THE NEWS.

The eastern news is again assuming an encouraging phase. The rebels have been straining every nerve to hold out a little longer hoping to see what the Copperheads have been so long predicting, that is, that at the expiration of the term of service of the soldiers whose time will soon be out, the Government would be obliged to withdraw her armies and acknowledge the independence of the South.

It is now an established and indisputable fact that the resources of the Government are but just beginning to be developed, while it is as clearly established that the rebels have their entire force in the field. The Conscription law of the rebel Congress has already drawn into their armies every able bodied man (and many that are not very able) between the ages of 16 and 60 years.

Gen. Hooker is very active in preparing for active operations. There is a rumor afloat that the rebels are evacuating Fredericksburg and massing their forces at Richmond; there is also a rumor that the rebels are preparing to attack Gen. Burnside.

Gen. Hooker has assumed command of the Department of Ohio. Gen. Rosecrans is still in Tennessee among the rebels which causes them much trouble and vexation of spirit. Guess he'll tend to 'em.

The rebel papers say that their forces are evacuating Vicksburg by a "strategic" movement. We suppose their strategy is simply to skedaddle and thereby save their bacon.

Admiral Farragut has re-captured the Indianola. The colored soldiers are proving to be the most irresistible front that has yet been presented to the "Chivs." These sable sons of toil are fighting for liberty, for their wives and children, for everything that man holds dear.

They've forged their fetters into swords. On equal terms to fight their lords. They seem to have no idea that they can be whipped. They feel perfectly sure that God is with them, so when they enter the battle field it is to conquer. Success to them, and may the God of battles crown every one of them with the blessed boon of liberty.

Gold is down to 39 and 40 per cent premium against 60 and 70 a few weeks ago. This shows a very decided and favorable change financially. The Revenue law is working like a charm the receipts already being nearly equal to the expenditures, although there is as yet hardly a tithe of the revenue collected.

From the Mines.

The Dalles Mountaineer has the following letter from Auburn, under date of March 17th: We have to report new discoveries of gold in Baker county. The Eagle Mountains are on Snake river, east of the Grand Ronde and Powder river Valleys, and from here we have a party returned, that stopped to prospect there last fall on their way to Boise. They were snowed in, lost their animals, and have just been able to return here, having spent the winter in snows 15 feet deep.

From Boise we learn that the party of volunteers under Jeff Standifer, found some 40 Indians in a stone fort on the east side of Boise river. The Indians were well armed and fought in rifle pits. The battle lasted over two days, when the volunteers advanced behind wood bundles they had made, and killed some 27 Indians, captured 36 horses and brought back 15 scalps. Only one man among the volunteers was wounded.
