THE STATE REPUBLICAN

"The Southerners fight as if not all allegiance for the Union was not in their way."

Edison April 11, 1865

ROADS AND HIGHWAYS.

Direct from Orange.

This report applies to a particular locality in Orange. It is the end of the war, but the people are in a great mood of experiment and improvement. The roads which fall during the winter season; hence, we believe it is best to delay any work on the roads until the warmer days. In many places the roads are in very bad condition, and it is not an uncommon sight to see a road covered with mud and water. It is believed that the roads should be in as good condition as possible, and it is expected that much work will be done in the near future.

The tracks of the trains are now in a very bad condition, and it is not an uncommon sight to see a train running along the tracks with a large amount of mud and water. It is believed that the tracks should be in as good condition as possible, and it is expected that much work will be done in the near future.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

J. M. Smith was appointed as principal of Orange High School, and Mr. W. H. Brown was appointed as assistant principal.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The government has decided to issue a new currency, the Confederate Dollar. This currency is to be used in the place of the old Confederate Currency, and it is expected that much work will be done in the near future.

N. C. Carter was appointed as treasurer of the Orange County School District.

Cranberry, March 31. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 3. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 4. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 5. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 6. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 7. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 8. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 9. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 10. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 11. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 12. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 13. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 14. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 15. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 16. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.

Cranberry, April 17. — The Richmond papers of the last week contain a report of the battle of Appomattox Court House, in which the Confederates were defeated. The reports state that the battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious. The battle was fought on the morning of the 9th of May, and that the Confederates were victorious.