SPENCER CREEK, Lane Co., Feb. 8, 1857. MR. STATESMAN :- We are of the opinion

Mr. Stateshan: —We are of the opinion that you slightly err in your continual notice of the Standard; it is thought by some to be cowardly to continue to bent a man (?) after be is whipped. Leland is dend, as politically dead as Judas Iscariot is physically dead. Give us a dissertation on fleas, bedbugs, cayotes, siwashes, or any other natural production of Oregon, but do not waste any more ink, paper, and time on Leland. These are our opinions and we believe we reflect the seatiments of a majority of the democracy of Lane on this subject. We have "c very few "Democrats" in this county who think differently; but their numbers are being whittled down to a point with great rapidity.

Some feeling is beginning to exist in relation to our next delegate, and the softs are at their old tricks, claiming every probable candidate as one of our (their) kind of democrats. The effect intended to be accomplished is clear, but it will effect nothing.

Although the people of this county (a label) and solve the latter of the Democratic to the Democratic to the Democratic to the Democratic Education to Amounty that there will be a Democratic County Convention holden at the County Intended to be all of the county in the twent of the purpose of electing delegates to said Convention, the purpose of electing the day of April, proximally the Permocracy of the several precincts are respectively. May of March next, at the unit of voting in each precinct said precincts.

At the County Convention there will be elected six delegates to attend the Democratic Territorial Convention, and the latter of the said precincts are respectively. At the County Convention there will be elected six delegates to attend the Democratic Territorial Convention, and precincts and one additional delegate for every 50 democratic votes cant at the last June election in said precincts.

At the County Convention there will be elected six delegates to attend the Democratic Territorial Convention, and the territorial Convention, and the territorial Convention, and

Although the people of this county (a majority endorse the action of the House on the location question believe me they are much more tired of the Leland question than that of scat of government. The one is irretrievably lost to the democracy—the other way are to this county. er we may yet get to this county.

Respectfully yours,

Arrest of Mail Robber

Thomas Cashions, of Marion County, Alabama, postmaster, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years for robbing the mails, and John Montgomery, postrider, 18 years old, 15 years for the same crime. The details of the arrest of J. G. Stanford, postmaster of Florence, N. Y., are thus given in the local paper:

"A decoy letter, properly registered, containing $25, was, on Friday last, mailed and directed on the envelope to Florence, New Jersey." The letter was then enclosed in a wrapper directed to Florence, Oncida Co., N. Y. The letter thus prepared was of course forwarded to Florence. On Saturof course forwarded to Florence. On Saturday, on the return of the mail from Florence, the U.S. officials overhaulded the rence, the U. S. officials overhaulded the mail, and found the wrapper substituted and directed to 'Florence, New Jersey.' The envelope had been opened, and the money taken out. Further search was then made, and the old wrapper was found around another letter, directed to Peterboro. The necessary papers were immediately taken out, and on Saturday night the proper officials were in Florence to arrest the offender.

Due watch was kept, and when Mr. S. came out of the postoffice—locking the door for the evening, one of the officials stepped up and asked Mr. S. for a letter to to a certain person; on going into the post office the arrest was made, and upon his person was found $23 of the money in the decoy letter. Mr. Stanford has confessed that a complex and has also confessed that a complex confessed that confessed erime, and has also confessed that a couple weeks ago he took $25 from a letter directed to a lady in Osceola, in Lewis county, sent her by her husband; and also $20 taken two months ago from a letter to Patrick McLaughlin, a resident of Florence. These, he says, are his only offences."

Special Notices.

Notice is hereby given that a convention will be held in the Court-house in Eugene City, on the 4th day of April next, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of selecting six delegates to attend the Democratic Territorial Convention. Each precinct is entitled to three delegates in said county convention. It is recommended that the precincts hold conventions, for the selection of their delegates, on the 28th day of March next, and that the precincts manage their conventions on principles thoroughly democratic.

JAMES GUTHRIE, Jun'r.
ORVILLE RISLEY,
County Committee.

Pursuant to a resolution passed by Democrats en masse in convention at Corvallis assembled, Feb. 14, 1857, (the Central Committee not having as yet complied with same.) I request the Democrats of Benton county to hold precinct meetings on the 3d Saturday in March, proximo, for the purpose of sending delegates to County Convention, to be held the last Saturday in same month to send delegates to Territorial Convention to be held at Salem, April 13, 1857.

Linn County Democratic Convention.

The Democratic Central Committee of Linn county, would hereby give notice to the Democratic electors of said county, that there will be a Democratic County Convention holden at the Court House in the town of Albany, on SATURDAY, the 4th day of April, proximo, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

For the purpose of electing delegates to said Convention, the Democracy of the several precincts are respectfully requested to hold precinct meetings at one o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, the 28th day of March next, at the usual place of voting in each precinct electing two delegates, and one additional delegate for every 50 democratic votes cast at the last June election in said precincts.

The Democratic Convention for Marion County, will e holden at Salem, on Monday, April 6, at one o'clock. M., for the purpose of electing seven Delegates to the Territorial Convention't to be held at Salem, on Ionday, April 13th, and to place in nomination canditates for the several offices to be filled by the annual lection in June.

dates for the several offices to be filled by the election in June.

Each precinct will be entitled to send five delegates. That there may be no misapprehension or confusion in any of the precincts, as to the time or place of holding their primary conventions, the committee would suggest that those precincts which have not an executive committee, hold their primary conventions on Saturday, April 4th, at one o'clock, P. M., at the usual places of voting.

The importance of a full representation, it is hoped, will be considered by every Democrat in the county.

Of course I do.

La, me, Sally, where did you get this beautiful white sugar?

Why, Salomon said he got it at the Empire Store.

Well, it is too outrageous; don't you think John got two dollars worth of sugar, last week, at Mr.—
Independence Store, and it is black sandy stuff, only lit to make vinegar, or the like.

George, you have got a fine coat, vest and pants.

I should think I had.

You bought them at Portland, perhaps?

Never, I bought them at the Empire Store.

Mary, did you see the fine calico dress that David got for Jane, last week, at the Empire Store?

I should think I did see it; and don't you think Robert bought Elizabeth a fine calico dress, last week, at Mr.—— store, and the first time it was washed it went in for Disunion, and it looks just like a smoked lantern, or an abolitionist.

Mrs. Dukes, where did you get this fine cloth in Jimmy's little coat?

Why, that is nothing but some of Boon's Kentuck Jeans, at the Empire Store.

You don't say! Well, my husband went over to Salem some three weeks since, and not having time to go down to the Empire Store, he bought something they call Mississippi Jeans, and it is as coarse as cotton, and looks like—— I should say.

Mr. Walters, you have got a fine pair of boots, surely? Certainly, I got them at the Empire Store.

Were there any of this king left?

About a cord!

Store.

Buttons, thread, wax, needles and thimbles thrown to the bargain at the Empire Store.

Salem, Feb. 10, 1857. If You Want a Good Paper, Subscribe for "THE NATION,"

THE most popular weekly in America, which has immediately upon its issue, sprang into an tamess circulation. This rapid success is supercedented in the lattery of Journalism, and can only be accounted for by the fact that the proprietors have employed, without regard to expense, the Star Writers of America. The Nation is the only paper which contains the witty, humorous, and side-splitting sketches of the comical genius, and unricalled humorist, Knight Russ Ockside, M. D., of which series one sketch alone is worth the whole years' sub-cription.

The Nation is edited by S. M. Bigelow, and Mrs. B. D. E. N. Southworth, who is well known as one of the Most Popular Writers in America. In addition to the above we have engaged, as Contributors:

Clara Moreton.

Mrs. A. F. Law,
Park Benjamin,

and numerous others.

To the Fair Sex, we particularly commend our sheet.
Their department will be edited with the utmost care, and no expense or labor spared to render the columns devoted to their especial benefit, unusually brilliant, attractive, instructive and ornamental.

The Farmers' and Planters' Corner will contain practical suggestions and agricultural hints contributed and culled from sources the most reliable, and containing information which will prove to them in the course of a single year, of almost incalculable benefit.

The other departments of our paper will receive the attention they respectively demand, each being especially and carefully prepared to meet the varied taste of the several classes of its readers. Among these we may mention

Original Stories and Poems, Editorial Ramblings and Sketches, Spicy City News, Washington Gossip,
New York Chit Chat, the Latest Paris Fashions, Practical Receipts for the Household and Toilet, The Little Ones' Department, Gems from Prose and Poetry, Reader's Guide, Historical Sketches, Translations, &c., &c., &c.

The NATION is issued in quarto form, (eight pages) and each number will contain at least two original engravings, thus furnishing our subscribers at the end of the year with a volume containing 416 large size, beautifully printed pages of

By Among the hundreds of complimentary notices, we have received from newspapers in every section of the country, we quote the following extract from:

"The Nation appears in clear large type on snow white paper, and is richly adorned with illustrations."

"It will attain to a high position in the literary world."—Philidelphia Daily News.

"It is one of the best weeklies now published, and we take pleasure in bringing it to the notice of the reading public."—Harrisburg Pa. Herald.

"The talent and energy of the proprietors, its original and interesting contents, and the beauty of the typography cannot fail to seene for it a general circulation."—Williamsburg, Pa. Independent Press.

"As a literary and family journal, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best among our exchanges. We advise all the Ladies to procure it without delay."—Fulton, Pa. Republican.

"We dislike puffing city emanations, but in this case we are bound to give way to merit. Unlike many city cotemporaries, the Nation is composed of sound substantial and useful matter, and is not filled up with an overdose of filmay, wishey-washy stuff from the hands of crack-brained authors."—Evic City Dispatch.

"There is room for just such a paper, and it has secured two as true heads and hearts to control its columns as the literary and social world holds.—Wellstorough, Pa. Agietotor.

August 18, 1856. The Laws of Oregon.

The Oregon Statutes, 1855, being a large volume of 650 pages, with complete index, annotations, and references, comprising all the laws in force in the Territory, inclusive of those passed at last session of the Legislative Assembly, are for sale at the office of the Statesman, at five dollars per copy. The work is executed in the best manner, bound in law style, and is sold at publisher prices, and as low as a like work can be bought in any State in the Union, and at the lowest figure they can be afforded for here. The price places them within the reach of all who desire the laws they live under. Orders by mail accompanied with the cash, filled by return mail. It is the last code of laws that will probably be published in Oregon, for many years. In addition to the enactments of the Legislative Assembly, the volume contains the Decemation of Independence, Constitution of the United States, Treatics with Great Britain relating to Oregon, Ordinance of 1787, in force in Oregon, Donation award all amendments, and full abstract of United States Naturalization Laws.

CEALED proposals will be received at the office of the undersigned, at Dallas, in Polk county, until the 7th day of April next, to build a county jail for said county, according to the plan and specification on file in my office.

ASAHEL BUSH, Proprietor, Publisher, and Editor.

The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thoroughly National in its character. It is bostile to every species of sectionalism, fanaticism, and intolerance; and will vigorously oppose all attempts to incorporate any of the insane isms of the day into our Territorial legislation.

It will advocate all practical measures of Reform and Progress, economical and simple administration of our local government; faithfulness, integrity, and capacity in office, and a system of rigid and direct accountability of the officer to the people. It will discuss all measures agitating the public mind, in a manner fearless, impartial, and just.

Its News Department will be edited with much attention, and nothing will be spared to furnish early, accurate, and comprehensive publication of the current intelligence.

The Statesman has a large, widely-scattered, and most excellent corps of correspondents, and very complete facilities for procuring news.

Due attention is also paid to the publication of Miscellany, Agricultural and Literary matter.

In this paper are published the laws, resolutions, and treaties of the United States, and the laws and resolutions of the Territory of Oregon—by authority. The paper is printed on new material, and upon a sheet of the largest size.

Reduction in Price for 7th Volume.

On the 17th day of March 1857, the seventh volume of the Statesman will be commenced. For that volume and from that date the subscription price of the Statesman will be three dollars per year, if paid strictly in advance. All old subscription dues must likewise be paid.

Peace, Peace, Peace.

Now is the time to plant orchards, and the sooner the better. And if you want to get good trees at a fair price, just call at the FRUIT FARM NURSERY, twelve miles east of Salem, on the Territorial road leading from Oregon City to the head of the valley, and you will find just what you want, for we have tens of thousands of apple, pear, plum and cherry (on tame roots) trees, which we intend to sell in quantities to suit purchasers. A liberal share of patronage will be thankfully received.
