HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Every head of a family should keep a supply of these great specifics at hand. No household can safely dispense with them. External injuries, which would result in the loss of a limb, or the crippling of a joint, if treated in the ordinary modes, may be cured with dispatch, and without pain or hazard, by the use of the Ointment. Erysipelas, salt rheum, boils, sores, and all external, ailments, are removed with equal facility and certainty, by the application of this great curative; and the manifold diseases of the stomach, liver, and intestines, so often fatal in this country, yield invariably to the sanative operation of the Pills. 6

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Surgical and Medical Institute is so extensively known in this Territory that any notice of it, or of him, might seem superfluous. Yet fearing that there are those who heretofore having no need of medical aid, have neglected to ascertain the proper sources of relief in cases of misfortunes. To those we beg leave to direct attention to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, who is certainly a Physician of great skill and wonderful success in his profession. The Dr. has devoted much attention to the treatment of chronic and private diseases, and stands unrivalled in his management of them. To those who need such assistance we cheerfully recommend Dr. L. J. Czapkay; it would be well at all events to consult him, as he makes no charge for consultation, and much good might result from it. The Dr. guarantees a cure in all cases or asks no compensation.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

GEORGE W. LAWSON, Candidate before the People for Delegate to Congress, would be pleased to meet and Address his Fellow Citizens of the different Counties in the Territory at the time and places hereafter signified,

UPON THE FOLLOWING AND KINDRED SUBJECTS:

THE RIGHTS, DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE PEOPLE—THE DUTIES OF A REPRESENTATIVE.

Expression of Views.

The people—the sole depository of Political Power—and the true Arbiter of all Political Aspirations. The Constitution and not Conventions—the test of eligibility for Office, and the non-interference of any and all institutions and inventions to prevent the free exercise of the Elective Franchise. The Rule by Majority. The "Divine Right" of Republics,

TO ASCERTAIN WHICH,

All questions of importance, in Policy or Interest ought to be prepared and submitted to a direct vote of the People, in the manner of "for" and "against" on the measure, instead of the uncertain test by election of individuals.

The two-thirds rule opposed to the principle that "the People are capable of Self Government." The Suspensive Votes, and the Conservative six years' term of the U.S. Senate sufficient guarantee against panic, prejudice, false interest and influence or hasty and unconsidered action of the Citizen Sovereignty.

The inviolability of the National Sovereignty. The sacredness of the State Sovereignty, the best guarantee of the perpetuity of the Citizen Sovereignty. Nationality; not Privileges, or Orders. Industrial Enterprise; not Legislative advantages.

The Political Equality of all the People before the Law and the Constitution. Qualifications and Integrity; not test oaths the true test of qualification for office or honors to be judged of by the people as electors.

Principles; not personalities, the proper subject of political discussion. The aim of the true Statesman—the elevation of Humanity, the good of the masses—a politician may be a gentleman.

Absolute Freedom of the Religious Element—and all men to be guaranteed by Reservation of Rights by Constitutions and Laws, an imprescriptible Liberty of Conscience.

The WILL of the MAJORITY, fully obtained, fairly expressed, and deliberately formed; binding upon all Delegates and Representatives of the People.

UPON STATE AFFAIRS,

An Economical State Government, with Biennial Sessions of the Legislature—Moderate Salaries to Officers—no Perquisites or Sinecures—Restrictions upon State Indebtedness—Courts to be open, justice simple, speedy, and within the reach of all.

The Business of the Legislature—to make laws under the Constitution, not to interfere with the People's right of the Elective Franchise.

The Public Printer—to be elected by the People—to be independent of the Legislature, and to be the faithful Reporter under bond and oath of office of all the proceedings thereof to the People.

The Responsibility of all Public Officers by bond and oath of office.

A Free State.

The dignity of labor preserved from competition with casts and colors. Agriculture. Mechanics and Trade allowed to expand in Commerce. Railroads, Canals &c. Illinois compared with Missouri, New York and Pensylvania with Virginia and Kentucky. Results—that slave labor does not build Railroads, Telegraphs, Canals, Clipper Ships, Ocean Steamers and those public works that make a State great, prosperous, and powerful.

Slavery is not a Dictate of Nature, but the creature of Convention. Immediate and energetic action to be taken to procure a grant of several millions of acres of the Pacific Coast to construct a Railroad from Puget Sound to San Francisco, through the great central valleys of Washington, Oregon and California.

The preservation of the present boundaries of Oregon.

An appropriation by the General Government, in aid of Commerce, for a steam tug, lighterage and life-boats at the mouth of the Columbia.

Untiring effort to procure the settlement and pay of the Oregon War expenses upon the "Report of the commissioners."

The prompt extinction of Indian titles and the placing and maintaining of the Indians upon good reserves.

Periodical Revision of the Constitution—on the majority principle—that Constitutions and Government may keep pace with the march of progress, and the growth of morals and mind; and the old relics of barbaric and feudal ages be done away, without resort to Revolution.

(NEW ADVERTISEMENT.)

MRS. ADAMS, where did you get those beautiful teacups and saucers?

George got them at the EMPIRE STORE.

Were there any more of those white stone China cups and saucers, and plates left?

I should think there was; Boon has got one cord or less of the same kind, very cheap, at the Empire Store.

Why, Mrs. Laughlin, where did you get those fine morocco shoes?

I got them at the Empire Store.

Do you believe that you can get goods cheaper at the Empire Store than at those stores up-town?

Of course I do.

La, me, Saily, where did you get this beautiful white sugar?

Why, Solomon said he got it at the Empire Store.

Well, it is too outrageous; don't you think John got two dollars worth of sugar, last week, at Mr. —— Independence Store, and it is black sandy stuff, only fit to make vinegar, or the like.

George, you have got a fine coat, vest and pants.

I should think I had.

You bought them at Portland, perhaps?

Never, I bought them at the Empire Store.

Mary, did you see the fine calico dress that David got for Jane, last week, at the Empire Store?

I should think I did see it; and don't you think Robert bought Elizabeth a fine calico dress, last week, at Mr. —— store, and the first time it was washed it went in for Disunion, and it looks just like a smoked lantern, or an abolitionist.

Mrs. Dukes, where did you get this fine cloth in Jimmy's little coat?

Why, that is nothing but some of Boon's Kentuck Jeans, at the Empire Store.

You don't say! Well, my husband went over to Salem some three weeks since, and not having time to go down to the Empire Store, he bought something they call Mississippi Jeans, and it is as coarse as cotton, and looks like —— I should say.

Mr. Walters, you have got a fine pair of boots, surely?

Certainly, I got them at the Empire Store.

Were there any of this kind left?

About a cord!

Lucy, my dear, where did you get those silk gloves?

Why, daddy bought them for two bits at the Empire Store, and he says that he priced a great many of the goods in the stores in Salem, and he is convinced that the cheapest and best goods are to be found at the Empire Store.

Very well, if Abraham don't back out from you know what, I mean Lucinda, I am going to get me a fine silk dress pattern, and a complete outfit at the Empire Store.

Buttons, thread, wax, needles and thimbles thrown in to the bargain at the Empire Store.

This act to be in force from and after its publication.

The Oregon Statesman.

An Independent Journal, devoted to Politics, General Intelligence, &c., Published at Salem, Oregon.

ASAHEL BUSH, Proprietor, Publisher, and Editor.

The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thoroughly National in its character. It is hostile to every species of sectionalism, fanaticism, and intolerance; and will vigorously oppose all attempts to incorporate any of the insane isms of the day into our Territorial legislation.

It will advocate all practical measures of Reform and Progress, economical and simple administration of our local government; faithfulness, integrity, and capacity in office, and a system of rigid and direct accountability of the officer to the people. It will discuss all measures agitating the public mind, in a manner fearless, impartial, and just.

Its News Department will be edited with much attention, and nothing will be spared to furnish early, accurate, and comprehensive publication of the current intelligence.

The Statesman has a large, widely-scattered, and most excellent corps of correspondents, and very complete facilities for procuring news.

Due attention is also paid to the publication of Miscellany, Agricultural and Literary matter.

In this paper are published the laws, resolutions, and treaties of the United States, and the laws and resolutions of the Territory of Oregon—by authority. The paper is printed on new material, and upon a sheet of the largest size.
