Washington, April, 1816.
Sir: For having declined to comply with your demand yesterday in the House, for an explanation of words of a general nature, used in debate, you now "demand of me that satisfaction which your insulted feelings require," and refer me to your friend, Mr. —, I presume, as he is the bearer of of your note, for such arrangements as are

This demand for explanation, you in my judgment, as a matter of right, were not entitled to make on me; nor were the temper and style of your own reply to my objec-tion to the sugar-tax of a character to induce me to accord it as matter of courtesy Neither can I, under the circumstances of the case, recognize in you a right to call me to the field to answer what you may please to consider an insult to your feelings.

It is unnecessary for me to state other and obvious considerations growing out of this case. It is enough that I do not feel myself bound at all times, and under any circumstances, to accept from any man, who shall choose to risk his own life, an invitation of this sort; although I shall be always prepared to repel, in a suitable man ner, the aggression of any man who may presume upon such a refusal.

Your obedient servant,

DANIEL WEBSTER.

Du. L. J. Czapkay's Surgical and Medical Institute is so extensively known in this Territory that any notice of it, or of him, might seem superfluous. Yet fearing that there are those who heretofore having no need of medical aid, have neglected to ascertain the proper sources of relief in cases of misfortunes. To those we beg leave to direct attention to Dr. L. J. Czaphay, who is certainly a Physician of great skill and wonderful success in his profession. The Dr. has devoted much attention to the treatment of chronic and private diseases, and stands unrivalled in his management of them. To those who need such assistance we cheerfully recommend Dr. L. MRS. ADAMS, where did you get those beautiful teacups and sancers?
George got them at the EMPIRE STORE.
Were there any more of those white stone China cups and saucers, and plates left?
I should think there was; Boon has got one cord or less of the same kind, very cheap, at the Empire Store.
Why, Mrs. Laughlin, where did you get those tine morocco shoes?
I got them at the Empire Store.

l got them at the Empire Store.
Do you believe that you can get goods cheaper at the Empire Store than at those stores up-town?
Of course I do.
La, me, Saily, where did you get this beautiful white stores?

La, inc. Sany, where the property of the Empire Store.

Why, Solomon said he got it at the Empire Store.

Well, it is too outrageous; don't you think John got two dollars worth of sugar, last week, at Mr.—

George, you have got a fine coat, vest and pants.
I should think I had.

You bought them at Portland, perhaps?

I should think I had.
You bought them at Portland, perhaps?
Never, I bought them at the Empire Store.
Mary, did you see the fine calico dress that David got for Jane, last week, at the Empire Store?
I should think I did see it; and don't you think Robert bought Elizabeth a fine calico dress, last week, at Mr. store, and the first time it was washed it went in for Disunion, and it looks just like a smoked lantern, or an abolitionist.
Mrs. Dukes, where did you get this fine cloth in Jimmy's little coat?

Mrs. Dukes, where did you get this fine cloth in Jimmy's little coat?

Why, that is nothing but some of Been's Kentuck Jeans, at the Empire Store.

You don't say! Well, my husband went over to Salem some three weeks since, and not having time to go down to the Empire Store, he bought something they call Mississippi Jeans, and it is as coarse as cotton, and looks like — I should say.

Mr. Walters, you have got a fine pair of boots, surely? Certainly, I got them at the Empire Store.

Were there any of this kind left?

About a cord?

Lucy, my dear, where did you get those silk gloves?

About a cord!

Lucy, my dear, where did you get those slik gloves?

Why, daddy bought them for two hits at the Empire Store, and he says that he priced a great many of the goods in the stores in Salem, and he is convinced that the cheapest and best goods are to be found at the Empire Store.

Very well, if Abraham don't back out from you know what, I mean Lucinda, I am going to get me a fine slik dress pattern, and a complete outfit at the Empire Store. Store.
Buttons, thread, wax, needles and this bles thrown is to the bargain at the Empire Store.

A NEW lot, just printed, from a form prepared by one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and for sale at the Statesman Office, at $6 per hundred.

August 18, 1856. The Laws of Oregon.

The Laws of Oregon.

The OREGON STATUTES, 1855, being a large vol ume of 650 pages, with complete index, annota tions, and references, comprising all the laws in force in the Territory, inclusive of those passed at last session of the Legislative Assembly, are for sale at the office of the Statesman, at five dollars per copy. The work is executed in the best manner, bound in law style, and is sold at publisher prices, and as low as a like work can be bought in any State in the Union, and at the lowest figure they can be afforded for here. The price places them within the reach of all who desire the laws they live under. Orders by mail accompanied with the cash, silled by return mail. It is the last code of laws that will probably be published in Oregon, for many years.—In addition to the enactments of the Legislative Assembly, the volume contains the Declaration of Independence, Constitution of the United States, Treaties with Great Britain relating to Oregon, Ordinance of 1787, in force in Oregon, Donation aw and all amendments, and full abstract of United States Naturalization Laws.

THE subscriber, proprietor of the Salem Market, in the center of the town, is happy to inform the public that he keeps constantly on hand a supply of all the varieties of meats, fresh and pickled. He also has the various kinds of vegetables in their season. Beef will be sold as follows: Fore quarters, 6 cents per lb., hind quarter 10 cents; and if you want a choice piece, I shall charge you a bit a pound.

All kindsof farmer's produce and grain received in exchange for meats.
