The Congress of the United States had most wisely declared to be "the true intent and meaning of this act (the act organizing the Territory) not to legislate slavery into any Territory or State nor to exclude it theretion an example of justice and beneficence, and with His terrible majesty protect our people and our constitution.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY. WASHINGTON, CITY, Aug. 15, 1857. GENTLEMEN:—On my recent return to this city after a fortnight's absence, your memorial, without date, was placed in my hands, through the agency of Mr. Horato King, of the Postoffice Department, to whom it had been entrusted. From the distinguished

As a natural consequence, Congress has also prescribed by the same act that when the Territory of Kansas shall be admitted as a State it "shall be received into the Union with or without slavery, as their constitution may prescribe at the time of their admission."

Appropos of this, there is a elergyman in Worcester, Mass., the Rev. F. H. Newhall, who has been preaching a political sermon, is which he is said to have uttered these words: "There is one paper in this city which supports Buchanan, and the devil is at the head of it." This is, however, denied by the elergyman's friends, who ask the Bag State, the paper slinded to, to publish the whole discourse; to which it assents, upon condition that Mr. Newhall agrees to read from his publit a speech of Senator Douglas. The elergyman refases.

"There, my friends, is where I differ from Brother Paul. Mr. Jefferson tells us that the true doctrine is just the reverse of this; that is, men in office should always be obedient to the people; and I agree with the great author of the Declaration of Independence. The Apostle was no doubt a great preacher and a good Christian; but it is clear enough he was no democrat."
