The Oregon Statesman. An Independent Journal, denied to Polifics. General Intelligence, Spc., Published at Salem, Oregon. ASAHEL BUSH, Proprietor, Publisher, and Editor. The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thor-oughly National in its character. It is bouile to every species of sectionalism, function, and intelerance is and will vigorously oppose all strengths to incorporate any of the lossne isma of the day into our Territorial legislation. A Word to Free and Slave State BOOKS ! BOOKS !! S. J. McCormick, Franklin Book Store, Dr. S. R. Unckles, BOOKS! BOOKS!! BOOK Court of Common Pleas! <section-header><section-header><section-header><text> Mem. This question as to whether a man can be a consist-tent democrat and vote for a free State, is a ques-tion for politicians to dispute about at pleasure. But the question as to where both free and stave State men can hay goods cheap, is the one that the entire people of region are interested in. The man that pays high rents, "fares sumptionally green day," and above all credits out his goods to those who are slow pay, must of necessity sell goods high, or he will "go in." While he who sells for cash doices and no grambling, can afford to sell low. There are ten stores in Corvallis, all selling on a for distribution. Now, I propose to make mine a CASH STORE, and those who have any Cash or Produces to purchase goods with, can buy of me 10 per cent lower man who pays for his goods when he purchases them, will not have to pay higher than they are really worth in they could if I was doing a credit business. The man who pays for his goods when he purchases them, will not have to pay higher than they are really worth in they could if there are nine other stores in town where goods are he bought on credit, by paying a lit-the more than they are worth. The other merchants in them a they are worth. The other merchants in them are a very clover set of fellows, and to them I commend those who have Men. OFFICE.
