Wi creasit has pleased the omnipotent and allwise Architect of the Universe to call from our midst, on the 9th day of December, 1857, our worthy lerother, and much esteemed fellow citizen. Ex-Governor John P. Gaines, to try another and better world: Therefore, Be it Resolved. That we deem it our duty, with the consent of his widow and children, as Masons to have the burial service of our order performed at his grave on some solitable occasion; and we will on the 8th day of January next assemble at our lodge room, and make the needful arrangements, preparatory to march in regular procession from themse to his grave; and that all Masons in regular standing and the neighboring Lodges be most respectfully invited to join us in discharge of the sud and painful duty.

Resolved. That it is our duty as Masons to wear the usual bridge of mourning for the space of 30 days, in token of respect for the memory of the departed brother, and that while we recognise in this affliction the hand of Providence, and bow before the stroke, yet we can but lament the occurrence.

Resolved. That a copy of the foregoing proceedings, duly attested, be transmitted to the family of the deceased. And, also to the editor of the Oregon Statesman for publication, with a request that all the other editors in the Territory copy the same.

By order of Salem Lodge, No. 4, Dec. 25th, A. L. 5857.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Surgical and Medical Institute is so extensively known in this Territory that any notice of it, or of him, might seem superfluous. Yet fearing that there are those who heretofore having no need of medical aid, have neglected to ascertain the proper sources of relief in cases of misfortunes. To those we beg leave to direct attention to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, who is certainly a Physician of groat skill and wonderful success in his profession. The Dr. has devoted much attention to the treatment of chronic and private discusses, and stands unrivailed in his management of them. To those who need such assistance we cheerfully recommend Dr. L. J. Czapkay; it would be well at all events to consult him, as he makes no charge for consultation, and much good might result from it. The Dr. guarantees a cure in all cases or asks no compensation.

ADVERTISING IN THE ATLANTIC STATES. L. P. F. has now completed his arrangements for the forwarding of advertisements to all the principal largest circulating Journals and Newspapers published in the Atlantic States.

A fine opportunity is here offered to those who wish to advertise in any part of the Union, of doing so at the lowestrates, and in a prompt and satisfactory man-ner.

Notice.

THE Judges of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Oregon, assembled at the seat of Government on the 16th day of December, 1856, do fix and appoint District Courts to be held in the city of Salem, in the county of Marion, on the first Mondays of April and September, and the fourth Mondays of May and October, annually, until otherwise ordered; and in the city of Portland, in the county of Multinomah, on the firth Mondays of May and October, and the third Mondays of June and November, annually, until otherwise ordered, and do limit the duration of said Terms to six days each.

GEO, H. WILLIAMS, Chief Justice.

The Laws of Oregon.

The OREGON STATUTES, 1855, being a large volume of 650 pages, with complete index, annotations, and references, comprising all the laws in force in the Territory, inclusive of those passed at last session of the Legislative Assembly, are for sale at the office of the Statesman, at five dollars per copy. The work is executed in the best manner, bound in law style, and is sold at publisher prices, and as low as a like work can be bought in any State in the Union, and at the lowest figure they can be afforded for here. The price places them within the reach of all who desire the laws they live under. Orders by mail accompanied with the cash, filled by return mail. It is the last code of laws that will probably be published in Oregon, for many years, in addition to the enactments of the Legicative Assembly, the volume contiins the Declaration of Independence, Constitution of the United States, Treaties with Great Britain relating to Oregon, Ordinance of 1787, in force in Oregon, Donation as and full abstract of United States Naturalization Laws.
