The Laws of Oregon.

The OREGON STATUTES, 1855, being a large volume of 650 pages, with complete index, annotations, and references, comprising all the laws in force in the Territory, inclusive of those passed at last session of the Legislative Assembly, are for sale at the office of the Statesman, at five dollars per copy. The work is executed in the best manner, bound in law style, and is sold at publisher prices, and as low as a like work can be bought in any State in the Union, and at the lowest figure they can be afforded for here. The price places them within the reach of all who desire the laws they live under. Orders by mail accompanied with the cash, filled by return mail. It is the last code of laws that will probably be published in Oregon, for many years.—In addition to the enactments of the Legislative Assembly, the volume contains the Declaration of Independence, Constitution of the United States, Treaties with Great Britain relating to Oregon, Ordinance of 1787, in force in Oregon, Donation Law and all amendments, and full abstract of United States Naturalization Laws.

The Oregon Statesman.

An Independent Journal, devoted to Politics, General Intelligence, &c., Published at Salem, Ovegen.

ASAHEL BUSH, Proprietor, Publisher, and Editor-The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thoroughly National in its character. It is hostile to every species of sectionalism, fanaticism, and intolerance; and will vigorously oppose all attempts to incorporate any of the insane isma of the day into our Territorial legislation.

It will advocate all practical measures of Reform and Progress, economical and simple administration of our local government; faithfulness, integrity, and capacity in office, and a system of rigid and direct accountability of the officer to the people. It will discuss all measures agitating the public afind, in a manner fearless, impartial, and jest.

Its News Department will be edited with much attention, and nothing will be spared to furnish early, accurate, and comprehensive publication of the current intelligence.

The Statesman has a large, widely-scattered, and most REMARKABLE INSTANCE OF MEDICAL RELIEF. Below we publish the certificates of two of the sufferent from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public.

The demands of Society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted:

AND CERTIFICATE.

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirons of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their suffering may be obtained, feels it his obty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the dermanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the victors practice of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind; unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life. I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but also; after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unsufterable horror, that instead of relief, the symptoms became more niarming in their
