The Oregon Statesman. Independent Journal, devoted to Politics, General Intelligence, &c., Published at Salem, Oregon.

ASAHEL BUSH, Proprietor, Publisher, and Editor. The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thoroughly National in its character. It is hostile to every species of sectionalism, faunticism, and intolerance; and will vigorously oppose all attempts to incorporate any of the insane isms of the day into our Territorial legislation.

It will advocate all practical measures of Reform and Progress, economical and simple administration or our local government; faithfulness, integrity, and capacity in office, and a system of rigid and direct accountability of the officer to the people. It will discuss all measures agitating the public mind, in a manner fearless, impartial, and just.

Its News Department will be edited with much attention, and nothing will be spared to furnish early.

excellent corps of correspondents, and very complete facilities for procuring news.

Due attention is also paid to the publication of Miscellany, Agricultural and Literary matter.

In this paper are published the laws, resolutions, and treaties of the United States, and the laws and resolutions of the Territory of Oregon—by authority. The paper is printed on new material, and upon a sheet of the largest size.

The coming year will be the most important in Oregon's history. A State is to be imangurated, through warm political contests, and the machinations, of faction, disaffection, abolitionism, and every hue of opposition, to overthrow the Old Democracy. Every citizen of Oregon should be thoroughly informed of passing events, if he desires to discharge his duty to the State and the country, intelligently and uprightly.

The Statesman will be an active participant in transiting political events, and will furnish a faithful record of the history of parties and politics.

As a vehicle of Oregon News, the Statesman enjoys facilities that none of its cotemporaries do.

Tenus—Three dellars per year, strictly in advance; four dollars, if paid within six months, but not in advance; five dollars, if not paid within six months.

These terms we must adhere to in all cases. Persons sending us money by mail, or otherwise, will please conform to these terms,—adapting the amount to the time of payment.

The low price at which the paper is afforded places

CARD.

Prompted by an honest desire of my heart. I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity, also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from causes unknown to me, was secred with a fit of returney, which, owing to my inability to meet the expense; consequent upon a therough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, son became such (as I was then led to elieve.) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, yet I despised the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having arevious to my affection tasted the sweets of life. I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for his services—regardless of which however, he at once undertest my case, and with the dessing of God. I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I sujay at present, and yet conscions of my indebted, as I consider it due to myself and to all afflicted to make the case public, in order that those in need of undecal advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

in fact most all diseases soon yield to their curative properties.

It has been computed that during the last twenty-five years apwards of Four Millions of persons have been benefitted by the use of these medicines; a fact which speaks volumes in favor of their curative properties—a single trial will place them beyond the reach of competition in the estimate of every patient. By their use the blood is restored to a healthy state and freed from all impurities. The system is not reduced during their operation, but invigorated, and they require no retraint from business or pleasure.

The afflicted have in these medicines a remedy that will do for them sill that medicine can possibly effect. Prepared by W. B. Mosfar, New York.
