HAIR PRESERVER.

TOR the Bestoration, Beauty and Preservation of the Granes of the hair. This preparation removes all barshness and dryness of the hair, by exciting the scalp to a new and healthy action, and cleaness it from scarf and dandraff; prevents the hair from falling off and getting gray, but the most remarkable result which it will effect, is it will produce a new crop of hair on an entirely bold hand. Hany young persons sometimes find the two early appearance of gray hairs, this preparation will stop this result. Mothers who wish their children to have fine heads of hair, can effect this by the use of this Tonic; especially on their damphters if the hair is light. I know few persons believe the hair can be restored on a bald head, but, if my directions are followed I will warrant a cure or refund the money. It is put up in two cance bottles and for sale by wholesale and retail will directions at one deliar per bottle; it can be sent by mail to any part of the United States. An Independent Journal, devoted to Politics, General Intelligence, &c., Published at Salem, Oregon. ASAHEL BUSH, Proprieter, Publisher, and Editor-The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thor-oughly National in its character. It is hostile to every species of sectionalism, fanaticism, and intolerance; and will vigorously oppose all attempts to incorporate any of the insane isms of the day into our Territorial legislation.

It will advocate all practical measures of Reform and Progress, economical and simple administration of our Isbai government; faithf-loss, integrity, and ca-pacity in office, and a system of rigid and direct ac-countability of the officer to the people. It will dis-cuss all measures agitating the public mind, in a man-ner fearless, impartial, and just.

Its News Department will be edited with much attention and outling will be attention, and nothing will be spared to furnish early,

Due attention is also paid to the publication of Miscellany, Agricultural and Literary matter.

In this paper are published the laws, resolutions, and treatiles of the United States, and the laws and resolutions of the Territory of Oregon—by authority. The paper is printed on new material, and upon a sheet of the largest airs.

The ceraing year will be the most important in Oregon's history. A State is to be inaugurated through warm political contests, and the machinations, of faction, disaffection, abolitionism, and every hue of opposition, to overthrow the Old Democracy. Every citizen of Oregon should be thoroughly informed of passing events, if he desires to discharge his duty to the State and the country, intelligently and uprightly. The Statesman will be an active participant in transition political events, and will furnish a faithful record of the history of parties and politice.

As a vehicle of Oregon News, the Statesman enjoys facilities that none of its cotemporaries do.

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their suffering may be situatived, feels it his duty to thus publicly expression most success gratifule to Dr. L. J. Cambay, for the derimanent recovery of his health. Burne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the victous practice of incontrabilate passion in youth; depressed in body and mind; unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the delly avocations of life. I sought the advice of many physicians, who at flest regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but sine; after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my anatherable herror, that instead of relief, the symptoms is seame more alarming in their went, I found to my anotherable horror, that instead of relief, the symptonis became more alaroning in their tortire; and taking tell by one that my drease, be ling principally confined to the brain, medicine would be on little consequence. I despoired of ever regaining my health, strength and emergy, and, as a last result, and with but a falut hope, called upon Dr. Czaphny, wing after examining my case, prescribed to one medicine within almost instantly removed me of the dail point and distincts in my head. Notary Publis. CARD.

Prompted by an honest desire of my heart. I wish to lay before the posite a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of selectific skill, but that of humanity, also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from causes unknown to me, was se zed with a fit of strukersy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a therough medical freatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led believe.) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calleg, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the aconies, yet I despised the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having previous to my affinition tasted the sweets of life. I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician. nere was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician und, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Canpard, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Canpard, by recommendation called upon Dr. L. J. Canpard, by revard him my circumstances, and my inability or reward him for his services—regardless of which awarer, he at more undertook my case, and with the dessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect unable. Unable to reward him for the boom which siths. I make to the analyst conscious of my indicated-iess. I consider it due to myself and to all affected, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical navice may find a physician in whom every
