HAIR PRESERVER.

The Restoration, Beauty and Preservation of the Hair. This preparation removes all harshness and dryness of the hair, by exciting the scalp to a new and healthy action, and cleanses it from scurf and dandruff: prevents the hair from falling off and getting gray, but the most remarkable result which it will effect, is it will produce a new crop of hair on an entirely build lead. Many young persons sometimes find the too carly appearance of gray buits, this preparation will stop his result. Mothers who wish their children to have inc heads of hair, can effect this by the use of this lonic; especially on their daughters if the hair is light, know few persons believe the hair can be restored on haid head, but, if my directions are followed I will carrant a cure or refund the money. It is put up in to ounce bottles and for sale by wholesale and retail the directions at one dollar per bottle; it can be sent mail to any part of the United States. Gentlemen and on your orders stating the cause and duration of a baldness and I will care you. To insure a cure my arge varies from Twenty-five to Fifty deliars, according to the nature of the case.

The Laws of Oregon.

HE OREGON STATUTES, 1855, being a large volume of 650 pages, with complete index, annotations, and references, comprising all the laws in force in the Territory, inclusive of those passed at last session of the Legislative Assembly, are for sale at the office of the Statesman, at five dollars per copy. The work is executed in the best manner, bound in law style, and is sold at publisher prices, and as low as a like work can be bought in any State in the Union, and at the lowest figure they can be afforded for here. The price places them within the reach of all who desire the laws they live under. Orders by mail accompanied with the cash, filled by return mail. It is the last code of laws that will probably be published in Oregon, for many years.—In addition to the enactments of the Legislative Assembly, the volume contains the Declaration of Independence, Constitution of the United States, Treaties with Great Britain relating to Oregon, Ordinance of 1787, in force in Oregon, Denation Law and all amendments, and full abstract of United States Naturalization Laws.

THE undersighed announces to the public that he has purchased the well known tavern stand, called the Marion House, in Salem, together with the furniture and fixtures thereof. He will keep it in first rate style, and invites the patronage of the public.

ASAHEL BUSH, Proprietor, Publisher, and Editor-The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thoroughly National in its character. It is hostile to every species of sectionalism, favaticism, and intolerance; and will vigorously oppose all attempts to incorporate any of the insane isms of the day into our Territorial tegislation.

It will advocate all practical measures of Prices.

It will advocate all practical measures of Reform and Progress, economical and simple administration of our local government; faithf-liness, integrity, and capacity in office, and a system of rigid and direct accountability of the officer to the people. It will discuss all measures agitating the public mind, in a manner fearless, impartial, and just.

Its News Department will be edited with much attention, and nothing will be spared to furnish early, accurate, and comprehensive publication of the current intelligence.

The Statesman has a large, widely-scattered, and most excellent corps of correspondents, and very complete facilities for procuring news.

Due attention is also paid to the publication of Miscelactifities for procuring news.

Due attention is also paid to the publication of Misceliany, Agricultural and Literary matter.

The coming year will be the most important in Oregon's history. A State is to be imagurated, through warm political contests, and the machinations, of faction, disaffection, abolitionism, and every hue of opposition, to overthrow the Old Democracy. Every citizen of Oregon should be thoroughly informed of passing events, if he desires to discharge his daty to the State and the country, intelligently and uprightly.
The Statesman will be an active participant in transiring political events, and will furnish a faithful record of the history of parties and politics.

As a vehicle of Oregon News, the State-man enjoys facilities that none of its cotemporaries do.

Terms—Three dollars per year, strictly in nelvance;
four dollars, if paid within six months, but not in advance; five dollars, if not paid within six months.

These terms we must adhere to in all cases. Persons sending us money by mail, or otherwise, will please conform to these terms,—adapting the amount to the line of payment.

The low price at which the paper is afforded places time of payment.

The low price at which the paper is afforded place it within the reach of all.

REMARKABLE INSTANCE OF MEDICAL RE-LIEF.—Below we publish the certificates of two of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health, and impelled by grati-tude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of Society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the atten-tion of all afflicted:

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who amy be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief c. their suffering may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly expreshis most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the dermanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind; unable to perform even the most trilling duty imposed upon the daily avocathous of life. I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trilling importance—but alax; after a lew weeks, and in several instances months, or their treatment, I found to my unutterable learner, that instead or relief, the symptoms became more alarming in their tortare; and being told by one that my disease, being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and, as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who af er examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result. I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to his directious and advice, my head became clear, my ideas callested, the constant pain in my back and greins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my which beare on the silekt. and by a strict obedience to his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and greins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement; the misanthropy and evil forebodings; the self distrast and want of confidence in others; the incapacity to study, and want of resolution; the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after baving consulted the Doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which, but a short time ago, I contemplated to end with my own hand.

With a view to goard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks. I deem it my thaty to offer this textimosy to the merit and skill of Dr. Caspkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his care, a radical and permanent care will be effected.

CARD.

Prompted by an honest desire of my heart. I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity, also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from causes unknown to me, was sezzed with a fit of EFILEFSY, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to believe.) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the singhlest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, yet I despised the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having revious to my affection tasted the sweets of life. I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Campkay. I told him my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for his services—regardless of which however, he at once undeflook my case, and with the elessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebted uses, I consider it due to myself and to all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

CREAT Blessing to Mankind! Innocent out Potent!

Of DR. CZAPKAY'S PROFULACTION, (self-disinfecting agent.) a sure preventive against Gonorrhocal and Syphilitic diseases, and a certain and unsurpassed remedy for all venereal, acrofulous, gaugerious and cancerous ulcers, foeted discharges from vagina, atterus and urethra, and all cutanous eroptions and diseases. As innoculation is preventive against small pox, so is Dr. Czapkay's Prophylacticum a preventive against Syphilitic and Gonorrhocal diseases. Harmless in itself, it possesses the power of chemically destroying the syphilitic virus, and thereby saving thousands of debauchees from being infected by the most loathsome of all diseases. Let no young man who appreciates health be without Dr. Czapkay's Prophylacticum. It is in very convenient packages, and will be found convenient for use, being used as a soap. Price, $5. AND PHENIX BITTERS. in fact most all diseases soon yield to their curative properties.

It has been computed that during the last twenty first years upwards of Four Millions of persons bare been, seneritted by the use of these medicines; a fact which speaks volumes in favor of their curative properties—a single trial will place them beyond the reach of competition in the estimate of every patient. By their use the blood is restored to a healthy state and freed from all impurities. The system is not reduced during their persons, but invigorated and they require no retraint from brainess or pleasure.
