The Laws of Oregon.

The Oregon Statutes, 1855, being a large volume of 650 pages, with complete index annotations, and references comprising all the laws in force in the Territory, inclusive of those passed at last session of the Legislative Assembly, are for sale at the office of the Statesman, at five dollars per copy. The work is executed in the hest manner, bound in law style, and is sold at publisher prices, and as low as a like work can be bought in any State in the Union, and at the lowest figure they can be afforded for here. The price places them within the reach of all who desire the laws they live under. Orders by mail accompanied with the cash, filled by return mail. It is the last code of laws that will probably be published in Oregon, for many years. In addition to the enactments of the Legislative Assembly, the volume contains the Declaration of Independence, Constitution of the United States, Treatics with Great Britain relating to Oregon, Ordinance of 1787, in force in Oregon, Denation Law and all amendments, and full abstract of United States Naturalization Laws. CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be une tunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a persistent relief of their suffering may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Br. L. J. Czapkay, for the dermanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind; untable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life. I sought the advice of many physiciaus, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alia; after a few weeks, and in several austances mouths, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, the sympts ms became more alarming in their A speedy and positive cure for this distressing complaint. These P.Hs are composed principally of Quinter, with other vegetable tonics, antisplasmodic and febriage articles. Thousands have been permanently cured by their use.

Prompted by an honest desire of my heart. I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity, also. About two years ago, I sudlenly and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of kritersy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a therough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to elieve.) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, yet I despised the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having revious to my affliction tasted the sweets of life. I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by re o mmendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for his services—regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness. I consider it due to myself and to all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

The Oregon Statesman.

An Independent Journal, devoted to Politics, General Intelligence, &c., Published at Salem, Oregon.

ASAHEL BUSH, Proprietor, Publisher, and Editor.
The Statesman is Democratic in politics, and thoroughly National in its character. It is hostile to every species of sectionalism, familielym, and intolerance; and will sigorously oppose all attempts to incorporate any of the manne isms of the day into our Territorial legislation.

It will advocate all practical measures of Reform and Progress, economical and simple administration of our local government; faithf-liness, integrity, and capacity in office, and a system of rigid and direct accountability of the officer to the people. It will discuss all measures agitating the public mind, in a manner fearless, impartial, and just.

Its News Department will be edited with much attention, and nothing will be spared to furnish early, accurate, and comprehensive publication of the current intelligence.
