Bills.

Within a short time we shall send out our annual circular and bills to all persons owing us for subscription or advertising. The bills for subscription will be made out until the close of this volume, in March next, which will be an advance payment from the time payment of bill ... ade until March. An understanding of this may prevent an impression that there is an overcharge. The bills will be made in amounts to accord with our advertised terms.

As the accounts will not be drawn from the books by ourself, but by one unacquainted with the names, he will necessarily be compelled to take all names in arrears upon our books. As we cannot attend to the matter ourself, the omission of any name will be impossible.

Owing to our absence during the election canvass, some errors may have been made in our book. If any who have paid receive bills they will please notify us of the fact, stating the amount paid, and they shall promptly receive credit. We fear some cases of the kind will occur.

PUBLISHER OF STATESMAN.

☞ Let no false delicacy prevent the invalid from seeking medical relief—the card of Dr. L. J. Czapkay, to be found in another column, indicates where to obtain a reliable and competent physician. It is seldom that we are called upon to bear testimony in favor of the skill of a physician, but a sense of duty as well as justice demands that we should not pass Dr. Czapkay by, without something more than a mere mention. Unlike the greater portion of those who thrust themselves and their nostrums before the public, whose practices are empirical, Dr. Czapkay is a gentleman of rare medical and scientific attainments, having held the position of chief surgeon of the liberating army during the late Hungarian revolution, and is possessed of all the requisite experiences and skill for the successful practice of his profession. It is to the care and advice of such a physician we would command all suffering from the effects of sexual or private disease, feeling assured that in all such complaints, whether arising from infection, indiscretion, self-abuse, or loss of virility, he can guarantee, from his extensive practice, a speedy and permanent cure. To those suffering from the effects of physical and mental debility, we would say let common sense take the place of false modesty, and seek such advice as will save you from an untimely grave and lead you back again to pristine health, consult Dr. Czapkay, whom we cheerfully endorse as a skillful and tried physician, capable of coping with and successfully eradicating those self-inflicted miseries, the evils of empirical practice and all diseases of a private nature. Dr. Czapkay's rooms are on Sacramento, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Office, San Francisco.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Surgical and Medical Institute is so extensively known in this Territory that any notice of it, or of him, might seem superfluous. Yet fearing that there are those who heretofore having no need of medical aid, have neglected to ascertain the proper sources of relief in cases of misfortunes. To those we beg leave to direct attention to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, who is certainly a Physician of great skill and wonderful success in his profession. The Dr. has devoted much attention to the treatment of chronic and private diseases, and stands unrivalled in his management of them. To those who need such assistance we cheerfully recommend Dr. L. J. Czapkay; it would be well at all events to consult him, as he makes no charge for consultation, and much good might result from it. The Dr. guarantees a cure in all cases or asks no compensation.

A VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

I WILL sell the land or farm I reside on, on the South Yamhill river, in Yamhill county, containing 436 acres, two hundred of which are under good fence, and most of it under cultivation. There is on it a good dwelling house, smoke house and granary, a large shed with stables, two good wells of water, an orchard containing about 600 apple trees of grafted varieties, also pears and plums. There is plenty of stock water. This is a first-rate farm for raising grain. There is a quantity of timothy and blue grass land on the farm. The situation is on the river bottom, rendering it one of the best farms for stock-raising to be found in the valley. It is about half way between Dayton and the Grand Round Indian Reservation. The Yamhill river can be made valuable to the west part of the claim for steamboats, where there is a good situation for a ware house; also, water power for a saw-mill for six months in a year.
The above claim is well timbered, and is surrounded by one of the best prairies in the Territory. The farming utensils can be had at a moderate price; also the stock of hogs.
For terms, call and examine the situation.

COPAL varnish, paints, oils, and paint brushes, at [42tf] W. K. SMITH & Co's.

Udolpho Wolfe's
SCHNAPPS.

A Medicinal drink, of eminently salutary qualities, manufactured by himself exclusively, at his factory at Schiedam, in Holland, and well known during the last twelve years throughout all the Atlantic and Western States.
It is made from the best barley that can be selected in Europe, with the essence of an aromatic Italian berry of acknowledged and extraordinary medicinal properties. It has long since acquired a higher reputation, both in Europe and America, than any other diuretic beverage.
Analyzed, it is a PERFECTLY PURE LIQUOR, in its effects a mild and wholesome tonic. It is extensively used and approved by the medical faculty, the temperance people, heads of families, &c.
In Gravel, Gout, and Rheumatism, the obstructions of the bladder and kidneys, and in general debility, its effects are prompt, decided and invariably reliable; and it is not only a remedy for these maladies, but in all cases in which they are produced by drinking bad water, which is almost universally the cause of them, it acts as a sure preventive.
For Fever and Ague it is one of the most efficatious preventives that can be resorted to.

The Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps

Is consequently in great demand by persons traveling, or about to settle in new parts of the country especially, as well as by many in every community, where it has become known, on account of its various other remedial properties.
In all cases of a dropsical tendency, it is generally the only remedy required, when adopted in the early stage of the disease.
In dyspepsia maladies, when taken in proper quantities, as a diet drink, and especially at dinner, it is found by uniform experience to be eminently efficacious in the most obstinate cases, when even the best of the usual remedies have failed to afford more than temporary relief. In cases of flatulency, it is an immediate and invariable specific, and it may be administered in diluted and proportionate quantities, even to young infants, in all those paroxysms of griping pain in the stomach and bowels to which they are especially subject, as well as the cholic of grown persons.
Its judicious adoption in connection with the principal meals, or when a sense of exhaustion dictates its use, never fails to relieve the debility attendant upon protracted chronic maladies, low temperament and exhausted vital energy, by whatever cause induced.—These are facts to which many of the most eminent medical men, both in England and the United States, have borne testimony, and which are corroborated by the highest written authorities.
Put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with my name on the bottles, cork, and fac-simile of my signature on the label.
For sale by all the respectable Druggists and Liquor dealers in Oregon and California.
