In addition to the former stock of Dr. Warrea, we have purchased from Portland and San Frausisco, a have purchased from Portland and San Frausisco, a fresh supply of medicines, such as are asually sold by druggists through the country; more especially Rotan ico & Eclectic remedies, both crude and concentrated, of the very best quality. Patent Medicines will also be found at our Drug Store.

Dr. Brown will attend to calls from the country—his practice will be upon Eclectic principles. Having been first educated in the Alopathic practice, and since studied the other systems of medicines extent, feels prepared to other to this community a needlong practice among them all, which he ireds confident is before adapted to the care of disease, than one system. He wishes it distinctly understood, that his practice is anti-poison; our motto is Nature's medicines against polson. From his long experience, from the Arlantic to the Pacific, in a northern and southern climate, he believes that nature has provided remedies in every country, best adapted to the diseases of that country, and hence we follow mainly a vegetable practice.

Dr. Warren will attend to calls in town, and also the druggist and office practice. He would return thanks to his old friends, for past favors, and hones with his IT HAS come to the knowledge of the undersigned, that various parties are patting whiskey up in imitation packages, made in San Francisco, and branding it "Eureka Whiskey."

A Medicinal drink, of eminently salutary qualities, manufactured by himself exclusively, at his factory at Schiedam, in Holland, and well known during the last twelve years throughout all the Atlantic and West-as well as by many in every community, where it has become known, on account of its various other remedial properties.

In all cases of a dropsical tendency, it is generally the only remedy required, when adopted in the early stage of the disease.

In dyspensia maladies, when taken in proper quantities, as a diet drink, and especially at dinner, it is found by uniform experience to be eminently efficacious in the most obstinate cases, when even the best of the usual remedies have failed to afford more than temporary relief. In cases of flatelency, it is an immediate and invariable specific, and it may be administered in diluted and proportionate quantities, even to young infants, in all those paraxysms of griping pain in the stomach and bowels to which they are especially subject, as well as the cholic of grown persons.

Its judicious adoption in connection with the principal meals, or when a sense of exhaustion dictates its use, never fails to relieve the debility attendant upon protracted chronic maladies, low temperament and exhausted vital energy, by whatever cause induced.—These are facts to which many of the most eminent medical men, both in England and the United States, have borne testimony, and which are corroborated by the highest written authorities.

It is made from the best barley that can be selected in Europe, with the essence of an aromatic Italian berry of acknowledged and extraordinary medicinal properties. It has long since acquired a higher reputation, both in Europe and America, than any other dinretic beverage.

Analyzed, it is a prepertly pure Loude, in its effects a mild and wholesome tonic. It is extensively used and approved by the medical facasty, the temperance people, heads of families. &c.

In Gravel, Gout, and Rheumatism, the obstructions of the bladder and kidneys, and in general debility, its effects are prompt, decided and invariably reliable; and it is not only a remedy for these maladies, but in all cases in which they are produced by drinking lad water, which is almost universally the cause of them, it acts as a sure preventive.

For Fever and Ague it is one of the most efficatious preventives that can be reserted to.
