MR. EDTTOR-I find a little dissatisfaction rough the country at the result of the late ocratic State convention, some even pretending that the party is not bound by its ac-tion, on account of certain irregularities which are alleged. Now, I take the ground that all democrats are bound by the action of the convention, and that they have no right to go be-hind the record to inquire whether the proceed-ings were regular, or not; neither have they a right to inquire into the antecedents or qualifi-cations of the persons placed in nomination.

the more so, when we believe we see the evidence that you have seen fit to give publicity to matter in relation to the proceedings of the convention, which do not appear in the statement made out and signed by the officers thereof, who were the proper judges of what ought to be published, and what suppressed. However, there is no great harm done, for all good democrats will recognize the binding obligation to support the nominations made by the convention, without inquiring too curiously into the proceedings; they will not care to know whether it was fairly conducted, or not.

Mr. Grover may have been the choice of a large majority of the democratic party of the State, but it does not therefore follow that he cought to have received the nomination. convention found it necessary to defeat the popular will, and was justified in so doing, because the good of the country demanded it. Our del-egation in Congress should be a unit, and be able, under all circumstances, to act together as one man. In order that this may be the case, It is only necessary that Gen. Lane have associates who are willing to be subservient to him. aitting themselves absolutely to his control and direction in all cases. There can thereand direction in all cases. There can therefore be no impropriety in permitting him, or his friends, to designate who those associates shall be. Mr. Grover is a very able man, with an unimpeachable democratic record, and by reason of his familiar acquaintance with all the interests of Oregon, well qualified to be our representative in Congress, but not suiting the friends of Gen. Lane, he had to be passed over. Nor was there any Oregon politician of any prominence who would suit for the place. Mr. ut was therefore chosen, who has been a ocrat since he came to Oregon over a year restige and influence of Gen. Lane's great will insure his election. Gen. Lane has already chosen his colleague in the Senate, and when the Legislature meets, it will only be ecessary to go through the form of an election. then, when the people shall have ratified his choice for Representative, we will have a dele-cation in Congress of which our new State may rell be proud. Gen. Lane is himself worth than any ten men we could send; his ince with Congress and the Departments is et that in all the long time he has been s which he has not obtained. It has been the eneral remark in Washington that he was rth more than all the delegates of all the other Territories put together. And now since he has attained a higher and more influential sition as Senator of the United States, he April 19th, of group, Harvey Virgit, youngest son of R. And when he a called, as the likelihoods now strongly indiate, to the chief magistracy of this great nation, it will be a proud day for Oregon to give a resident to the United States, and such a President; the first in peace, the first in war, the first in the hearts of his countrymen.

We made a great to do about it here, but that was because we did not understand it; we were under a delusion at the time. Knownothings were sworn to support the Con-stitution of the United States, and the rules and regulations of their order; they only contended that Americans should rule America. All this they might do and still be consistent and true-hearted democrats. They were charg-ed with being a little intolerant and proscriptive some times; admitting that they were, was that Mr. Stont's fault ! He did not found the orer, and might have been deceived as to its true character when he joined it, like Mr. Blank was when he joined a band of horse-thieves, under the impression that they were Free Masons. I do not undertake to say that having been a knownothing ought to commend Mr. Stout particularly to the support of demo-crats; if he had been an Oregon knownothing it might have been a serious objection, but a California knownothing is better than an Oregon democrat. With the exception of W. W. Chapman, W. G. T'Vault, J. C. Avery, and perhaps one or two others, there are no men among the old Oregonians who are fit for the management of public affairs. A NY one who professes to understand all trades upon the public. On the same principle, any one medicine which professes to cure all diseases is unworthy of the slightest confidence, and should at once be denounced as a quack nostrum. The GRÆFENBERG FAMILY MEDICINES do not assume to cure all diseases with one remedy. They have eleven different medicines, each adapted to its peculiar disease, and time has proved beyond a question the efficacy and certainty of these preparations. Their list comprises the following medicines:
