GREFENBERG CONSUMPTIVE'S BALM.

It is now less than two months since our arrival in the country, and being strangers, with the public usind somewhat prejudiced against us by certain unfriendly publications before our arrival, we could scarcely hope to do "great things" in so short a time. And yet, we have, under all the circumstances, much to encourage us. Over fifty persons of the highest respectability, have united with the church, and societies have been formed at Corvallis, Salem, Howell's Prairie, Johnson's school house, (near Humphrey's Ferry, in Polk Co...) and at Harrison's school house. We have a prospect of scon being able to organize a society also at Dallas, and several other places. In all the places where we have a prospect.

I spent one Sabbath in Engene City, preached morning and evening in the Court House to very large and serious congregations, but made no attempt to organize ty there.

The hospitality shown us everywhere in the country is truly refreshing, and, abating a little opposition from a certain quarter, (which we expected and were prepared to meet and take as part of "the spice of life,") Oregon has taken stong hold more over all actions.

True—and, Mr. Douglas can't carry New York.

Mo democrat can carry New York. As a writer truly said in your issue of the 12th July. "New York's in the hands of the Philistines."

If Mr. Dickinson should receive the nomination, wouldn't Mr. Douglas do battle for him? Certainly he would, and most effectually too.

Then, if any of the free States can be surried for Mr. Douglas quiescent, duesn't it follow Mr. Douglas can carry those same States for Mr. Dickinson? Yes, siree! Well, apply the rule both ways: Can't Mr. Dickinson carry the entire South for Mr. Douglas? No, siree! Why not? Because, I am apprehensive that if the Northerm, or anti-Lecompton democracy nominate Mr. Douglas, the South will nominate and support a third Lecompton candidate, and thus throw the election in the House.

I believe either Mr. Dickinson or Mr. Douglas can be elected, but regard Mr. Dickinson the stronger of the two in "Committee of the Whole." It won't do to look at the strength

Properson O. J. Wood & Co.

Gentlemen: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray probably one third white; my whishers were of the same character. Some three months ince I procured a bottle of your Hair Restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had washed. I used in about twice a week. I can now certify to the world that the gree or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my bend and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-live years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife, at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

In all cases of a dropsical tendency, it is generally the only remedy required, when adopted in the early stage of the disease.

In dropersia malladies, when taken in proper quantities, as a diet drink, and especially at dinner, it is found by aniform experience to be eminently efficacious in the most obstinate cases, when even the best of the usual remediate have failed to afford more than temporary relief. In cases of flatulency, it is an immediate and invariable specific, and it may be administered in diluted and proportionate quantities, even to young infants, in all those parexysors of griping pain in the stomach and bowels to which they are especially subject, as well as the choice of grown persons.

Its judicious adoption in connection with the principal meals, of when a sense of exhaustion dictates its use, never fails to relieve the debility attendant upon protracted chronic maladies, low temperament and exhausted vital energy, by whatever cause induced.—
These are facts to which many of the most eminent medical men, both in Engiand and the United States, have borne testimony, and which are correborated by the highest written authorities.

TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRATED GIN—PRETENDING TO nothing but what it is, viz: a pure and unadulter ated article, and assuming no artificial merits of what it is not, as some of its rival imitators do—after five years of public approval and very extensive sales in California, has been pronounced by the public to be superior, not only as a beverage of general use, to any other article competing against it, but is VENEYALLED IN ITS MEDICAL PERSICUNITY.

UNRIVALLED IN ITS MEDICAL EFFICIENCY in most cases of complaints. To persons traveling in these days of rapid transit from East to West, North to cannot be used to the storm of the proceeding one, thereby causing an anomatural degree of excitement to the storm of the proceeding one, thereby causing an amount of the proceeding one, thereby causing an amount of the proceeding one, thereby causing an amount of the proceeding one, thereby causing an institutely and absolutely necessary to use a countersting agent. From the fact that the is prepared expressly to meet such exigencies, and to act as we know it will act, as an antidote we confidently prescribe it as the very best article in the country. The name of "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps" has never been attached in any way to this article. In first prescribing the act as we know it will act, as an antidote we confidently prescribe it as the very best article in the country. The name of "Aromatic Schiedam Schinapps" has never been attached in any way to this article. In first presenting the "LONDON CLUB HOUSE GIN" to the public, my aim was to give them a pure and unadulterated article of Gin, and to call it by its right name. The success attending its introduction and extensive sale in California is a sufficient guarantee of the high appreciation of the article by consumers.

Various parties have from time to time put up and shipped to California an article which they call "Club House Gin." My Gin, which has gained such a reputation in California, is branded on the cases, "OLD LONDON CLUB HOUSE GIN—WM. H.D."
