The steamer Constitution carried away $1,450,307 in treasure, which $345,000 was to Panama. Rumor says that the shipment to Panama is from the United States Treasurer's office, and is to be taken by a United States vessel from Aspinwall.

must be said or done to restore temporary confidence, and prop up for a brief space the falling cause. If nothing else can be done, a resolute effort may at least be made to brazen it out for a time.

REPEATER.—When the chiefs of South Carolina assembled in some thousands under Beauregard, and smoked out a little handful of men from Fort Sumter, a brilliant "poikery" case of Charleston, sent the following couplet, together with some other lines of his own invention, to the North, greeting:

Without it, And none will when once It is used by YOUNG AND OLD, In the decline or change of life, And after and before Marriage, During and after Confinement To strengthen the nerves, Restore Nature to its proper channel, and Invigorate the broken down Constitution, For whatever cause originating, USE NO MORE WORTHLESS PILLS!

WHERE IS THAT COMMITTEE?—Somebody is wanted, to bear the responsibility of permitting the invasion of Pennsylvania. The rads could charge Hooker with it, because when it occurred, they hadn't got done swearing he was the savior of the Union.

Special Notices. THE CONSTITUTION AND THE BLOOD.—No permanent cure of any chronic disease can be effected except by constitutional treatment. The vitiated blood must be rendered pure and healthful, otherwise the cause of the disease remains lurking in the system and is sure to break out in some deadlier form than before.

THE DYSPYPTIC. The trials and sufferings of the Dyspeptic can only be realized by those so unfortunate as to be afflicted with this disease, and yet how many of them suffer and continue to suffer! Why they do this so patiently it is impossible to tell. It may be from ignorance of any certain remedy, or it may be from prejudice against the use of a patent medicine.
