AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.
A COMPOUND remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of much greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—
Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic-Douloureux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.
This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.
Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain put little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or anything else.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO.,

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

The agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac, in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

☞ Scorbutic diseases are the parent stock from which arises a large proportion of the fatal maladies that afflict mankind. They are, as it were, a species of potato rot in the human constitution, which undermines and corrupts all the sources of its vitality and hastens its decay. They are the germ from which spring Consumption, Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Liver Complaints, and Eruptive Diseases which will be recognized as among those most fatal and destructive to the races of men. So dreadful are its consequences to human life that it is hardly possible to overestimate the importance of an actual, reliable remedy, that can sweep out this scrofulous contamination. We know then we shall proclaim welcome news to our readers of one from such a quarter as will leave little doubt of its efficacy—and still more welcome, when we tell them that it surely does accomplish the end desired. We mean Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it is certainly worthy the attention of those who are afflicted with Scrofula or scrofulous complaints.—Register, Albany, N. Y.

DIFFERENT AS LIFE FROM DEATH.—This is the distinction between Bristol's Sarsaparilla and all mercurial medicines. The latter poison the blood, the former purifies and invigorates it. When the seeds of death have been introduced into the veins by the use of mineral nostrums nothing will arrest the march of the victim to the grave save this poison conquering antidote. So also when the virus of natural disease, working through the venous system is developed in scrofulous ulcers, cancers, tumors, carbuncles, white swellings, felons, eruptions, or any other fearful external malady, this great remedy acts chemically upon the depraved blood and other animal fluids, changing them as if by a miracle, to pure and flourishing streams, bearing health and vigor into the organs through which they flow. For sale by all first-class druggists. 1m34.

Diarrhœa and Pain in the Bowels Cured.
CARTHAGE, O., Nov. 25, 1853.
DR. O. R. BAKER—Much Esteemed Friend—I have had a severe attack of Diarrhœa, attended with severe griping pains, and was reduced very low. I tried many different medicines, but all to no purpose, until I got a bottle of your Pain Panacea and commenced its use. The first dose put a quietus on the griping pains, and I had not used two twenty five cent bottles before I was entirely cured. I also recommended it to a friend, who was attacked with cramp colic, and suffering with excruciating pain, and three doses entirely cured him. W. D. BARRY.
Sold by Druggists everywhere, and by Redington & Co., Sole Agents, 116 and 418 Front street, San Francisco. 2w37

REBEL ESTIMATE OF THE COPPERHEADS.—The Richmond Dispatch evidently understands our Northern Copperheads, thoroughly. It says they want to resist the Government but have not the courage:
The demoustrations of opposition to the Lincoln Government in the Northern States are of a character appropriate to the country, and do not promise much success to those who are engaged in the agitation. The common people instinctively ask 'If you all agree with the Government tht the rebellion must be crushed, why do you oppose the Government? Why not give it men and money to do what it is so earnestly striving to do?' The answer is most difficult, and can hardly satisfy the masses.
We doubt not that a large portion of those in the opposition are playing their cards cunningly—that they are really anxious to stop the war; but knowing that an unconditional opposition to it would be so unpopular that they could not maintain it, they make the suppression of the rebellion one of the planks in their platform. This kind of political fraud is characteristic.

CHICKAMAUGA—THE RIVER OF DEATH.—The little stream beyond Chattanooga, along whose banks the late sanguinary struggle occurred between the armies of Bragg and Rosecrans, is found to have a name appropriate to such a struggle.
Old citizens of Tennessee, who have a knowledge of the Cherokee language say "Chickamauga," is a Cherokee word, and means "River of Death." A writer in the Nashville Union claims that that is not the precise signification, and that the literal meaning is "Dead Man's River." Either name is appropriate and suited to the fearful scenes that so lately ensanguined its wâtes. The stream is said to be a pretty and romantic one, of clear, pure water, and the banks profusely margined with wild flowers and willows.

G. M. DALLAS.—George M. Dallas, who has been a democratic Vice President, a democratic U. S. Senator, and a Foreign Minister under a democratic administration, voted the Union ticket in Pennsylvania.

☞ Diptheria is raging fearfully at Stratton, Vermont. Some neighborhoods are so afflicted that it is with difficulty that help can be procured to take care of the sick.

EASTERN NEWS.
SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE STATESMAN.

Conspiracy to Burn Buffalo.
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.
Persons high in authority in Canada have officially notified the Government that there is reason for belief that a plan has been set on foot by citizens hostile to the United States, who have found a refuge in Canada, to destroy Buffalo. They propose to take possession of some steamboats on the lake, proceed to Johnson's Island, where there are 9,000 rebel prisoners, and set fire to the prisons, set free the prisoners, and proceed to Buffalo. The Government will use all means within its power to suppress any hostile attack from Canada, but as other towns and cities on the lakes are exposed, it is deemed necessary to take this means to communicate this information to you, in order that precautions may be taken which the circumstances of the case will permit.

Excitement in Ohio.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.
Considerable excitement prevails in the northern part of the State, in consequence of anticipated attack from Johnson Island. Active and energetic steps have been taken by the Government in the matter.

Money Market--Rebels this side of Rapidan.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.
Money a little easier, but still in brisk demand. Sterling 161½; Gold 174.
Washington correspondent says a private note from the front states it is believed that the rebels are in considerable force south of Culpepper and this side of the Rapidan. Our army cannot advance rapidly, owing to the want of a railroad bridge at Rappahannock.—Meade's headquarters are now a mile and a half northeast of Brandy Station.
A contraband from Gordonsville says the rebels were making arrangements for winter quarters, but a panic existed which was created by stories of Meade advancing in force.

Rout of Rebels in Western Virginia.
FALLING SPRINGS, WESTERN VA., Nov. 7.
Brig. Gen. Kelly attacked Jenkins near Mill Point, and drove him from his position. Loss trifling on both sides. Yesterday Jenkins was reinforced, and assumed a strong position similar to that of South Mountain, Md., but stronger from natural advantages. We turned the enemy's left with infantry, and when he became disturbed, made an attack in front with four regiments of dismounted cavalry. Our victory was decisive. The enemy's retreat was a total rout. We took many prisoners and pursued till dark. Our loss was about 100 officers and men. AVERILL, Brig. Gen.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.
A dispatch from Gen. Kelly says information from Lewisburg says Averill's victory was more decisive than first reported. The rebels had over 4,000 men engaged. They acknowledge a loss of over 300 killed and wounded.—Averill took 100 prisoners, one stand of colors, and three pieces of artillery, and considerable small arms, besides camp equipage and a number of mules and wagons.

Gen. Banks Sails on a New Expedition.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.
The transport Daniel Webster, from New Orleans Oct. 29th, brings news of the departure from New Orleans, under Maj. Gen. Banks in person, of an expedition which for some weeks had been fitting out. Sixteen steamers were included in the expedition, also several schooners and tugs. The troops were provided with four days' cooked rations and 40 rounds of ammunition.

From Memphis.
Memphis papers have the following: In the fight between the rebel and Federal cavalry on the 9th, the rebels were repulsed with a loss of 50 killed and wounded. Our loss not stated.

Burnside's Losses and Gains.
KNOXVILLE Tenn., Nov. 11.
In the recent affair at Rogersville, Hawkins county, northeast of Knoxville, Burnside's forces were overwhelmed by superior numbers. Burnside has taken over 1,500 prisoners since he came into Tennessee, independent of the garrison at Cumberland Gap, thus putting us far ahead of the rebels.

The fleet destroyed the three steamers Contest, Engaged, and Sir George Gray, belonging to the Prince and also nearly destroyed the capital city of Satsuma's principality.—The resistance made by the Japanese is reported to have been quite spirited, and one of the British fleet is reported severely injured in the late engagement. Arrival of the Aquilla, With the Monitor Comanche on Board.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.

Constitutional Convention.
CARSON, Nov. 3.
A rule was adopted that after the various articles of the constitution passed the Committee of the whole, they be tabled for future amendments and final action.
The Bill of Rights was discussed largely on an amendment making the expression of loyalty to the Federal government sufficiently strong. It was finally referred to a committee and the amendment adopted.
Juries may find a verdict by a three-fourths vote, but the Legislature is authorized to rescind this provision. A motion to confine the three-fourths verdict to civil cases was lost.
The provision in reference to compensation for property taken for public use was further discussed, but no action was taken thereon.
Dog Vallandigham, nephew of Clement L., of Ohio, died here last night, of lung fever.—He was formerly a printer in Missouri.

Articles Reported.
CARSON, Nov. 10.
In convention the Special committee reported acknowledging paramount allegiance to the Federal government in strong language.
The Judiciary system reported provides for a Judiciary consisting of a Supreme court, District courts, County courts, and Municipal courts as established by the legislature. A two-thirds vote of the Legislature is required to establish a Probate court. Three Supreme Judges, to hold six years each. It divides the State into four judicial districts: First district, Storey; Second district, Roop, Washoe, Lyon and Churchill; Third district, Humboldt and Lander; Fourth district, Douglas and Esmaralda. District Judges hold office six years. The usual provisions as to jurisdiction of courts will be in a minority report hereafter.
An article on the Executive department was reported. The governor holds office for four years. His veto may be overruled by a vote of the majority. Each house has the pardoning power, except in cases of treason and impeachment. The other officers are Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General and Surveyor General. For these the usual duties are prescribed. None of these officers or Judges are allowed to receive fees.

The French Several Times Repulsed—Murders and Robberies.
Private advices say the French have sent several detachments of troops to open roads and attack Gen. Negrete, but in every instance have been repulsed.
Assassinations and robberies are of daily occurrence.
On the 3d of October, a Mexican family, while travelling on the road between the city of Mexico, and Tacubaya, in a carriage, were attacked by some soldiers in zouave uniform, two of the family murdered and robbed. This matter was hushed up, and the press did not even publish the account.

French Whipping Stakes.
The French have established a whipping stake at a small town called Chalco Tesco, about five miles from the city, for the purpose of bringing the refractory inhabitants to submission, they having afforded protection to some Mexican guerrilla forces. The whipping stake is still in full use in the city of Mexico, and crime runs rampant. Assassinations of the inhabitants who are opposed to the monarchy and those who refuse to take the oath of allegiance are not uncommon. There were fourteen shot on the 4th of October; among them was Don Feliciani Chavari, a prominent Mexican citizen.

Row in a Theater—Prominent Persons Arrested.
Dissatisfaction is daily occurring between the French and the citizens, and it was brought more publicly before the French authorities on the 5th of October. On that evening there was a benefit given at the theater to the family of a prominent Mexican actor, who had died a short time previous. During the performance there was a poem read, written by a Mexican author named Zorilla, in which he spoke of Mexico, and said "its people should maintain their independence and not be slaves." This was received by the audience with immense applause and with shouts of "Viva Mexico," "Viva La Republica." Some parties were jostled and thrown roughly about. The demonstration becoming noisy and turbulent, a squad of gensdarmes was sent to arrest the most prominent and stop the performance.—Among the most prominent persons who were arrested and incarcerated, were Senors Don Augustin Del Rioffon, Don Estavin Velasquez Le Leon, and Javir Adalla.

Senator McDougall's Speech in Mexico.
Senator McDougall's speech on the Mexican question has been published in Spanish and sent over the Republic, and was widely commented on. These comments call on the people to remain true, saying that the Americans were their friends and would no doubt assist them. They point for the spirit of the American people to this speech of McDougall.

Canal From the Pacific Ocean to Lake Yucatan.
Private Mexican advices say the government at San Luis Potosi has granted to John Xantus & Co., of California, the right to open a canal from the Pacific Ocean at Manzanillo to Lake Yucatan. This undertaking is invaluable. It enables vessels to sail up the Lake to within a short distance of Coloma.

Retaliatory Measures.
In consequence of the assassination of several French soldiers, it has been determined by the French authority, that innocent Mexicans may be shot and others taken as hostages in pledge of those who may be murdered hereafter.

French Policy Unchanged.
In complying with the preliminary treaty signed and sealed, Forey, before his departure issued another proclamation, in which he says that he is recalled to France, his Mission having terminated; that this determination does not imply any change of policy on the part of Napoleon; that the French army is left commanded by a general in whose ability full confidence is placed; that his greatest pleasure would have been, before his retirement, the construction of all factions into one national party, but that this dream of his had not yet been realized. The tenor of his language is abusive and contradictory.
The decree which makes effectual the sequestration of property belonging to traitors is being effected with great vigor.

MCCLELLANS POLITICS.—New York, October 12th.—General McClellan has written a letter to Charles J. Biddle, of Philadelphia, requesting him to deny the statement in the Philadelphia Press and other newspapers, that if he voted and spoke in the Pennsylvania campaign it would be in favor of Governor Curtin. He says that after a full consultation with Judge Woodward, he finds that their views agree, and he regards his election as Governor of Pennsylvania called for by the interests of the nation, and would, if it was in his power, give to Judge Woodward his voice and his vote.

☞ A gray haired rebel sinner lately returned to Memphis after an absence of two years, and thus summed up his grievances: "My farm has been pillaged; my cotton has been burned; my slaves have escaped; three of my boys have died, and my old woman has:'t had a fine-tooth comb for more than two years." Was there ever sorrow like his?

VIEWS OF THE CABINET.
Post Master General Blair lately made a speech in Baltimore in which he is supposed to have given the views of the Cabinet as expressed by a majority of its members on the question of restoration. After devoting some remarks to the doctrine advocated by Summer, Mr. Blair said:
I turn from this programme to that which is presented by President Lincoln. The issue is made. We must choose one or the other.—His plan is simple. He would disinabilitate the rebels, and their usurpation called a Confederacy of States, and rehabilitate the loyal men and their States and Republican Governments. To do this he must break the power of the conspirators; crush or expel them from the region of insurrection; restoring in the persons of loyal citizens within the confines of their respective States, the Republican Governments which now have their administration committed to our loyal armies and loyal citizens who have their protection. As soon as this protection is needless, the State Governments resume their functions under the officers chosen by citizens who have been true to it, and by such others as may be comprehended in an amnesty, and who have given in a sincere adhesion to it and the government of the Union and the measures taken in its maintenance.
Missouri, whose Governor, Legislature and Judicial officers betrayed her, expelled her representatives with the aid of the federal government, and filled their places with loyal men—abolishing slavery as an earnest of her abhorence of the means and the ends for which the conspirators against the Union labored.—Kentucky, temporarily paralyzed by the treachery of her Governor, was soon put right by the people when furnished arms by the government carried to them by the lamented and gallant Nelson. In Maryland, the attempt to turn her over to the rebels, was crushed by the arrest of treasonable legislators. Virginia was overwhelmed for a time, but Western Virginia being delivered from the armed brigands, called a convention, elected a legislature for the whole State (the greater part of it being still held by the rebels), was recognized as the law making power of the whole State, as such divided the State and set up a new State in the west.
This exemplifies the President's mode of saving the Union. He saves the State, putting the powers of the government, as soon as they are redeemed, into the hands of loyal men; and then the State resumes its place in the councils of the nation with all its attributes and rights. He has signified his purpose of inviting Tennessee and Louisiana, now in preparation, to follow these examples, and every other State, as soon as they can be rescued from the rebel armies, will be aided to come in and reintegrate the grand family of Republics.
Now, what is the pretext for abandoning this safe and healing policy of the President? So far it has worked well, and secured the approbation of all well-wishers of the country.

THE IDAHO MURDERERS.
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.
The hearing in the case of the Idaho murderers on habeas corpus was resumed in the Supreme court at 10 o'clock yesterday morning before Judges Norton and Crocker. Judge Norton stated, with reference to the motion of G. W. Coffroth, for leave to amend the return that the Judges did not deem it necessary to make such amendment, but the counsel might use his own discretion in the case. Coffroth then amended the return by adding to it the affidavit of Wickersham, on which Gov. Daniels had issued his requisition. A. Campbell, for the prisoners, excepted to the affidavit on the ground of insufficiency. It stated that the murder had been committed on the trail between Virginia and Lewiston, but did not say whether in Idaho or Nevada Territory. It also alleged that the fugitives were presumed to have fled, but did not assert that they had fled. After presenting other objections to the affidavit and requisition, the Judges decided that the requisition, although defective—that although the affidavit ought to be recited in full, that omission was not sufficint to justify a discharge of the prisoners. Judge Crocker stated that a written opinion in the case would be given as soon as practicable. The prisoners were remanded to the custody of the officers having them in charge for the purpose of removal to Idaho. The prisoners received the announcement of the decision with apparent indifference. They were removed to the station house, and from there were, before 2 o'clock, taken on board the San Francisco boat. For the purpose of safe keeping they were handcuffed and locked up in a state room. Hill Beachy, Capt. Lees and officer Evatt formed their escort. These prisoners will be taken up on the next Oregon steamer to Portland. From there they will be removed to Lewiston, Idaho Territory.—Their case is especially interesting, from the fact that about a year ago three highwaymen were arrested at Portland and taken back to Lewiston. On their arrival they were met by the citizens en masse, by whom they were all hung in about an hour To prevent any such action in the present case, it is said General Wright has given orders that they be placed under charge of a military escort, to be delivered up to the civil authorities.—Sacramento Union, 12th.
