FORTRESS MONROR, Dec. 26 .- The steam r California, fifty-eight hours from Fort Pa-aski, with confirmatory intelligence of the cap are of Savannah, arrived last mght. On the 20th, Sherman, having nearly completed the nvestment of the city, captured Fort Lee and everal minor works in the immediate vicinity of the principal introducents surrounding the city, and successful in plauting his artillery in such close praximity to the rebel lines as to command every position held by the forces an ler Hardee. He sent a summers by a flag of rnce to the effect that if the place was not sur-rendered the bombardment would at once com-mence. To this summons the wily reb-l Genarence. To this summons the wily rebel Gen-eral replied, that his communications were yet open and his men faily couplied with subset-ence and stores of every kind, he was coabled ence and stores of every kind, he was enabled to hold out for a long siege, was determined to held the city to the very last moment and de-fend the citizens' property, which had been placed under his protection, until his forces were compelled to surrender. Every prepara-tion had been made by Sherman to assault the relation into the surrender when the start rebel position next day ; but when the morn-ing of the 21st dawned it was found that the enemy had evacuated their works. Several egiments of infantry immediately took a posion and Sherman entered the city at the head of his body guard and received from the hands of a deputation of citizens the surrender of the place. It appears that Handee, on the night of the 20th, seeing the impossibility of holding the city and fearing the only chance of scape open beyond the Savannah river was ikely to be cut off at nov moment, determined a avail himself of this this route for retreat.--His troops were interediately set to partially destroy the navy yard and government stores.
