Paris, at one of the clubs, Mr. John Slidell, on being asked to explain why it was that such extreme hatred and bitterness of feeling were manifested on all occasions by the southerners towards the northerners, while the latter never exhibited any such sentiments, replied, in his usual bombastic manner, that the explanation was very simple indeed: The southerners fiding people too evil words and deeds, and the people themselves who patronized such journalists and were duped and deceived by their peddling traders." Now it is in the memory malignity. of some of our citizens that this John Slidell, this exponent and exemplar of Southern aris-tocrats left this city under coercion for a dishonorable act, with an injunction from the late Stephen Price, after the duel, that his life would be spared provided only he should never come back while he (Price) remained here, does not seem to have been such as to have created a very general impression that he was cither a very high minded or a very honest man. PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of beath. They insidaeusly attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cleek, the laster from therey, the strength and vigor from the frame; they give to the world pany and diseased offigring, and poison, through successive, generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scredila, Consamplion, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arrising from the contamination of Veneral Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold ever over the one afflicted, the sword of destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to interfy destroy—all earthle hopes.
