The Oregon Statesman.

THE COLFAX PARTY.—These distinguished visitors have been to Salem—stopped three hours—and they have likewise gone on their way rejoicing. At this point, arrangements were made to transfer them from the coach to the steamboat. They arrived early Wednesday morning, and after a little sleep, appeared on the verandah of the Bennett House, and addressed a very large crowd that had hastily gathered to hear them. They were all worn out with constant traveling and loss of sleep, and of course not in a condition to make speeches of length. Their remarks were principally confined to their impressions of Oregon (which were very favorable) and hearty thanks for the unbounded hospitality of the people.—Both Colfax and Bross spoke very earnestly of the pressing necessity for the speedy construction of the Pacific Railroad. They are enthusiastic friends of the great enterprise. Mr. Richardson, of the Tribune, gave us the poetry of an Oregon landscape in good style. He is the poet of the party. Mr. Bowles did not speak. They are jolly, whole-souled men who would drive "dull care" from any audience, and push the matters of practical every-day life with that hearty humor which always inspires and achieves success. Governor Bross (proprietor of the Chicago Tribune) has the advantage of being the handsomest man in the party, but he admits that Colfax, being a single man can always beat him with the ladies.—This was well illustrated here, as Mrs. Flora Davenport met them at the breakfast table with a supply of the finest raspberries ever grown in any country, and presented the entire lot to Colfax. But Bross and Richardson made him "come down" by threatening to reveal some secret of their Utah campaign.

We hope all who visit Oregon may bring us as warm hearts and kindly feelings. They will always receive a most hospitable welcome. We heartily wish them a safe return to the "States."

THE UNIVERSITY COMMENCEMENT.—The annual examination and commencement exercises at the University, during the last week, were throughout interesting and satisfactory in the highest degree. There was no useless parade or senseless amusements to cover up the defects of want of study. When a class was brought upon the platform for examination, the class-books were distributed to the audience indiscriminately, and a general request made that any one in the audience who would was requested to conduct the examination.—Several classes were examined by the visitors, and the class in astronomy was especially subjected to the cross-examination of a half dozen gentlemen, most of the questions being suggested by the subject and not by the book. So far as we observed the pupils were all ready for any question from any source, and always gave satisfactory answers. The class in rhetoric did especially well. The music department, under the charge of Miss Breyman, exhibited rare proficiency, both in vocal and instrumental music; and added greatly to the interest of all the other exercises. The Commencement exercises on Thursday afternoon were all in good taste, and passed off most pleasantly. The compositions by the young ladies, and the orations by the young gentlemen, were all of the highest order of graduating honors. We doubt if any school anywhere can turn out better literary productions than those of Misses McCalley and Wilson; or more appropriate, well considered and truly meritorious orations than those of Messrs. Kahler, Denney and Willis. We congratulate the graduating class, and the Faculty and Trustees on the success of their labors. The hall was tastefully decorated with evergreens, the national colors, and portraits of Washington and Lincoln. The music furnished was mostly patriotic airs, and in these respects, as well as in all others, the programme was superior to anything else of the kind we have ever witnessed. The influence of this school will always be on the right side, and it should be heartily supported.

PROFESSOR GATCH.—We regret to learn that this able teacher and most estimable gentleman has severed his connection with the Willamette University, and intends to go to California. Prof. Gatch has filled the honorable position of President of the oldest college on the Pacific, to the entire satisfaction of all; and has been universally beloved by the pupils. He is an able and eminently successful teacher and it will be hard to fill his place. He will leave Salem with the best wishes of every one who has known him. Oregon cannot afford to lose such men.

THE ORATION AND POEM.—The address of Judge Boise to the graduating class, last Thursday evening, was the most appropriate production we have ever listened to on such occasions. It contained not only brilliant rhetoric and eloquent sentiments, but also sage wisdom and useful advice, which the class ought to constantly bear in mind. The poem by Mr. Clarke, read by Mr. Mallory, is a fine production, superior to anything we have heard in that line for a long time. The Trustees ought to embody both the address and the poem in the next catalogue.

THE CHINOOK ORATION.—We neglected to mention at the proper place, that the "Chinook dialect" was duly honored with a place among the Commencement exercises. An oration in "Chinook" was delivered by Mr. Reuchlin Burke; and delivered well. In fact in constituted the "sensation" of the day, and brought down the house with loud applause. We are promised a translation for publication.

And you, contrary to the character of an upright professional man, have dragged the matter into the paper under your charge.—Arena.

Beg your pardon, my dear sir. We stated the simple fact that you had paid a printer off with greenbacks at par (which was no part of the lawsuit); and then you dragged all the rest into the Arena (we would n't allow it in the Statesman) as a justification. which being told three reparate times, amounts to no justification at all.

☞An Agricultural Society has been organized in Wasco county, with Mr. Newell of the Mountaineer for President. The first Fair will be held on the 13th of September.

You were our attorney, we reposed confidence in you —Arena.

That showed your good sense in employing a good man. We never violated that confidence. We did not advise you to "greenback" Stinson, and when you did that, we said nay!

RETIRED FROM THE SERVICE.—Col. Maury retired from the command of the Military District of Oregon, on Friday last. He goes out of the service with the good wishes of all his old associates. Colonel Curry assumed command of the District on Saturday.—Oregonian.

THE ASSASSINS EXECUTED.

Washington, July 6.—In accordance with the findings and sentences of military commission, which President Johnson approved yesterday, David C. Harrold, Lewis Payne, Mrs. Mary E. Surratt, and George A. Atzerott are to be hanged to morrow by the military authorities. Dr. Mudd, Sam'l Arnold and O'Laughlin are to be imprisoned for life. Spangler is sentenced to six years' imprisonment at hard labor in the penitentiary at Albany.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—All the condemned conspirators sentenced to be hanged, were executed to-day. On the petition of Mary Surratt, through her counsel, Messrs. Aiken and Clemett, Judge Wilder of the Supreme Court of this district, issued a writ of habeas corpus to General Hancock, commanding him to produce in court this morning at 10 o'clock precisely, the body of Mary E. Surratt, with the cause of her detention. The writ was served on Gen. Hancock at 8 o'clock this morning by United States Marshal Gooding. He immediately consulted with the Attorney General and the Secretary of War. At 10:30 the General had not obeyed the writ. The fact was brought to the notice of the court by her counsel, but the Judge said he had no power to enforce the writ. To-day guards were placed all around the arsenal, and guards to prevent the intrusion of persons to the scene of execution, none being admitted excepting those previously supplied with tickets by Gen. Hancock.

The relations of Mrs. Surratt and Harrold spent several hours with them during the forenoon. They were also attended by their spiritual advisers as were also Atzerott and Payne. A few minutes after I o'clock the outer prison door was opened. Mrs. Surratt was supported on her way to the gallows by two military officers. Next to her followed Atzerott, Harrold and Payne; accompanied by their respective ministers of the gospel. Front seats were reserved for them on the platform in the following manner: Mrs. Surratt, then Payne, Harrold, and Atzerott; the officers entrusted with the execution and the ministers accompanied the intermediate position. Gen. Hartroupt, who had been from the commencement in charge of the prisoners, came forward and read the order of the War Department approving the sentences and ordering the penalty of death to be inflicted. A heavy guard was placed on the walls surrounding the place, while below the soldiers were formed on two sides of the square. Several hundred witnesses were present, anxious spectators to the solemn scene.

One of the priests attendant on Mrs. Surratt repeated a short prayer to which Payne, who was seated next to her, attentively listened.—The minister who had been administering to Payne, expressed, in the name of the latter, his sincere thanks to Gen. Hartroupt and the officers and soldiers who had charge of him for their personal kindness. They had not uttered an unkind word nor given an unpleasant look or gesture, and seemed to have compassion for his misfortune. The minister then uttered a brief prayer asking for Payne's forgiveness of all sins and in the passage out of this world into the joys of Heaven. The minister who attended Harrold also returned thanks for the kind treatment of the prisoner, and offered a prayer that God would receive his soul. Harrold was affected to tears. The minister who attended Atzerott also returned thanks for him to Gen. Hartroupt for kind attention, and then invoked the mercy of God on the prisoners.—The condemned were then required to rise from their seats when the chains were removed.—They were now all on the drops, their hands fastened behind them and legs bandaged above and below the knees while the caps were placed over their heads. Atzerott while being prepared for execution exclaimed: "Gentlemen, farewell; be warned by the fate of the man now before you." One of the clergymen standing near exclaimed: "May we all meet in the other world." As soon as the noose was put around each head, Mrs. Surratt's being the last one adjusted, a section of the platform on which they had been standing suddenly fell and the culprits were hanging several feet from the ground.

Mrs. Surratt and Payne scarcely moved a muscle. Atzerott exhibited some twitching, but Harrold showed more nervous sensibility than any of the others. The bodies hung until life was extinct, and afterward were drawn for burial, rough coffins being on hand for that purpose. The arrangements for the execution were perfect. Gen. Hancock was present throughout the proceedings. It is said that Payne made a statement last night in behalf of Mrs. Surratt, exonerating her from complicity, and said that all the other prisoners subscribed to an affidavit impeaching the testimony of important witnesses against her.

THE REBEL PIRATE SHENANDOAH.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20th.—The whaling bark Milo, Captain Hawes, arrived this morning, bring us news of the most extensive and wholesale destruction of American shipping yet committed by any rebel pirates since the beginning of the war. On the first of April, the pirate Shenandoah reached Ascension Island, where she found the San Francisco whaler Edward Carey, Capt. Baker, with 275 barrels sperm oil; the Hawaiian bark Harvest, Capt. Eldridge, with 300 barrels; the American bark Pearl, Capt. Thompson, clean, sailed from Honolulu, and the ship Hector, Capt. Chase, with 275 barrels. All of these vessels were burned and their crews and officers, except the men who joined the pirate, were left on Ascension Island. The Shenandoah then sailed for the Ochotsk Sea, where, on the 27th of May, she captured and burned the whaling ship Abagail Capt. Nye, with 30 bbs. of sperm oil. Soon after the crew of the Abagail went on board the Shenandoah. Thos. Manning, who had been her second officer, joined the Shenandoah as pilot, and not only steered the pirate toward our whaling fleet, but gave the rebel commander the first intimation as to where it lay. The Shenandoah arrived off Cape Thaddens at the entrance to the Arctic Ocean on the 20th of June. Here she encountered the Euphrates, Capt. Hathaway, with 270 bbls. whale oil, which was burned on the 21st of June. The next day she fell in with and burned the William Thompson, Capt. Tucker, and the Jiercli, Capt. Williams, having four whales each.—Three of the crew of the William Thompson, all Englishmen, forthwith joined the pirate. A day or two after, she captured the Milo, Capt. Hawes, with two whales. The captures had by this time become so numerous that Captain Waddell, the commander of the rebel cruiser, concluded to bond the Milo instead of burning her, which he did in the sum of $6,000, and putting all his prisoners who had not deserted their flag on board of her, gave her a clearance for San Francisco. Just before the Milo set sail for San Francisco on the 23d of June, the Shenandoah had captured the Susan Abagail Capt. Redfield, of San Francisco, and was lying along side of her taking in the booty when the Milo left. The Milo has been twenty-seven days on her passage to this city and brings Capts. Tucker, Williams, Hawes, Smith and Hathaway, and about 180 officers and men of the captured vessels. Near by where the Shenandoah was last seen was a large fleet of whalers, comprising about sixty vessels, mostly ice bound, and it is the opinion of officers who arrived by the Milo, that they have all ere this fallen a prey to the pirate.

The Shenandoah has two rifled guns at the bow, two heavy guns amidships and two small guns aft. She is a full rigged steamer with iron frame, iron masts and iron lower yards and topsails. Her length is about two hundred and fifty feet. She is slight built, and could be easily destroyed by the poorest of Uncle Sam's naval vessels, provided she could be got into range, but she is very fast and few vessels in our navy or any other would be able to catch her in a hot chase. Her crew consists of 150 men mostly English and Irish. She has a large supply of ammunition, enough to fit out two or three more cruisers like herself.

REV. T. H. PEARNE.—The Bulletin says that Mr. Pearne has been appointed Presiding Elder in the Knoxville (Tenn.) District, in the M. E. Church; and that he returns to Oregon to settle up his business, preparatory to settling in his new field of labor. Mr. Pearne can do great good in Tennessee, and his Union sentiments will make him very acceptable to the Union people of Knoxville and vicinity.

THE LATEST.

Special Dispatches to the Oregon Statesman.

New York, July 13.—Times' special dispatch says: Citizens from interior announce that the appointment of Parsons as Provisional Governor is entirely satisfactory. Many crops will be lost for want of negroes to take care.

Herald's Washington special dispatch says: The President has sufficiently recovered to resume usual hours of labor. Delay in making appointment of Judge Marvin as Provisional Governor of Florida, and publication of provisional proclamation in relation to the matter, was caused by impossibility of fixing the date of the secession of Florida. Strangely enough leading authorities differ nearly quite a week in time.

A special dispatch says evidence is daily received of many rebels who went abroad during the war repenting. They apply to our ministers and consuls for permission to take the oath, which is freely given.

Washington, July 14.—President pardoned 25 persons among whom were none of importance. A large number of applications for pardon still continue to be received.

Post Master General has notified Provisional Governors that the postal service will be resumed on all lines of railroad in the South, as soon as they certify that the roads are in proper condition for purposes.

Philadelphia, July 14.—Subscriptions to the 7-30 Loan to-day amounted to $4,500,000.

New Orleans, July 14.—Mexican advices to 8th July have been received. Generals Lopez and Olever had returned from pursuit of Negrete's forces, which are generally disbanded, being on the Texas side. Cortinas lately captured two steamers. Commercial says Cortinas has effectually established his headquarters on the Texas side. American authorities had been constrained by a protest of the Imperial Government to order Cortinas to keep on his own side.

The Monitor says that the commander of the French fleet had an interview with Gen. Steele on the subject of steamers captured, but could not give the result.

News from the interior shows that the Empire is peaceful. Maximilian is striving to improve the country and encourage education. Guerrillas continue to swarm about Matamoras in great numbers.

San Francisco, July 22.—Wells, Fargo, & Co. will discontinue selling 7 30 notes from and after 24th of this month. There are still about $2,000,000 of this class of bonds in U. S. Assistant Treasurer's office in this city, and sales will be continued from that office until the supply is exhausted.

A memorial, numerously signed by ship-owners, merchants, underwriters, and others, will be forwarded to the Navy Yard at Mare Island this afternoon, petitioning the commandant immediately to telegraph to the Department at Washington for permission to charter the new steamer Colorado, and fit her out with a proper armament of a few heavy guns, accept the service of a volunteer crew, and dispatch her at once on a cruise after the Shenandoah. It is hoped the pirate may be met with before she can leave the Arctic Sea. The Colorado is the largest of the P. M. S. S. Co.'s steamers, and has recently arrived from the East via Cape Horn. She is very fast, and supposed to be quite able to cope in speed with the Shenandoah.

New York, July 10.—Among the papers of Jeff. Davis recently captured, the Government has discovered several documents of vital importance in determining the guilty complicity of Davis in the conspiracy plot. These documents are of such importance as will probably determine the authorities in favor of the trial of Davis before a military tribunal upon the charge of assassination.

Gen. Pope has determined to put an end to Indian traders and replace the trade in the hands of the Government.

The Post's Washington special dispatch says the military authorities have concluded to deliver the bodies of the executed assassins to their friends for burial.

New York, July 12.—The Richmond Whig says that in six counties, through which its informant passed, there were but nine negroes at work; but the county court houses and villages are full of them. The negro men are said to be deserting their wives who with their children are left a burthen on the farmers.

The Herald's Virginia correspondent says that the difficulties between the planters and the freedmen continue to give both the civil and military authorities much trouble. Many planters, it is said, are desirous of getting rid negroes and supplying their places with white laborers from the North and Europe.

The committee of Richmond who visited President Johnson to endeavor to induce him to rescind the twenty thousand dollar exception in his Amnesty Proclamation, returned without meeting with any success.

Henry A. Wise has made application to the military authorities for restoration to his former estates near Norfolk with a prospect of succeeding. Some Virginians propose to again put up Wise as a candidate for Governor.

The Times says that Collector Draper yesterday paid into the treasury $4,000,000 in gold, the proceed of recent sales of cotton and other seized property.

The Government has sent an officer to Andersonville, Ga., to make special investigations into the brutal and inhuman treatment of Union prisoners during the war, with a view of bringing to trial before a military commission, the rebels who had charge of our soldiers when this treatment was practiced. Some of the guilty parties are already in the custody of the Government.

The Commercial's special dispatch says:—Judge Marion of Florida has been appointed Provisional Governor of that State. He was a Union refugee during the rebellion.

The Herald's special dispatch says the belief is gaining ground here that President Johnson will recommend to the next Congress in his firs message that unless the States agree to embody in their new Constitutions a provision for universal suffrage they should not be admitted; that in determining the qualifications from the Southern States entering, Congress will require in respect to all classes in the South a rigid endrosement of all the changes which have rendered exirting laws and proclamations necessary.

Washington, July 12—The President granted seventy-pardons to-day, principally North Carolina rebels, on the recommendation of Gov. Holden.

Ex-Gov. Letcher was released from Capitol prison last night by direction of the President, upon condition of his going immediately home in Virginia. He gave his parole to remain there subject to the order of the President.

New York, July 14.—The Herald's Richmond correspondent says the work of confiscating the property of leading rebels was inaugurated in Richmond on Monday last, much to to the consternation of the people of that city, by the seizure of the famous Tredegar Iron Works by the Government agents. A description of a large amount of other property, liable to be confiscated, has been taken, and the tenants thereof have been notified to pay no more rents to rebel proprietors.

One of the Herald's correspondents who has been through Northern Alabama, says that that region is almost one continuous field of cotton. The planters are giving attention to the business again this year almost as much as before rebel times. The growing crop looks very fine. The negroes are now working for for their former masters for wages. The new labor system appears to progress well.

Washington, July 5.—About 190 applications for pardon were granted to-day, of which 139 from North Carolina were recommended by Gov. Holden.

New York, July 5.—The 89th Anniversary of Independence was observed here yesterday, with all the eclat the New Yorkers could give to the occasion.

At Gettysburg the day was celebrated with great enthusiasm, and the corner stone of the soldiers' monument was laid with impressive ceremonies. At daylight 100 guns were fired by the camps on the battle field.

New Orleans July 4.—General Banks delivered the oration at the Union celebration here to-day before a numerous and enthusiastic audience. It was the most eloquent address that has been made in this State. It asserted the right, justice, and necessity of conferring the elective franchise on the colored people of the South. The celebration wound up to-night with a magnificent torch-light procession.

BREAD CRUST.—One who does not like wheat bread with burned crust wants us to tell all the farmers' wives and daughters how to make bread without such a crust. It is easily done by rubbing the outside of the dough, when moulded and just ready for the oven, with a little butter or lard. This varnishes and closes the pores, so that the gas or steam does not escape so readily, and consequently the outside does not become so dry and crusty. Dry bread may be made moist again by heating the loaves in an oven not very hot.—N. Y. Tribune.

HOOPS REPUDIATED.—Since Jeff. Davis disgraced the feminine institution of hoops by putting his ungracious carcass within one, the ladies are repudiating them. What concealed a cowardly traitor and assassin, is not fit to adorn a lady.

CHANGED THEIR TUNE.—The Democrats used to sing the inspiring air of "Away Down South in Dixie!" Now they are confined to "Hoop-'em-doo-den-doo!"

NEVER DESPOND.—A trial of Newells Pulmonary Syrup will convince the most sceptical that it is unequalled by any known preparation, as remedy for Asthma, Bronchitis, Colds, Coughs, Croup, Pain in the Chest, which, if left to run their course, end in consumption. Use this valuable remedy and be relieved.

CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

THE operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and the excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

INVIGORATE THE SYSTEM.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produces nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified? DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

STRENGTHEN THE SYSTEM.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both and all ages in DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A WORD TO THE AGED.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

FOR FEMALES.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any re-action.

CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

THE operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and the excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

INVIGORATE THE SYSTEM.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produces nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified? DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

STRENGTHEN THE SYSTEM.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both and all ages in DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A WORD TO THE AGED.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

FOR FEMALES.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any re-action.

Clocks and Watches Repaired.

NAZRO SMITH, Itinerant Repairer of CLOCKS and WATCHES, is now canvassing Marion county, and Oregon generally, for business in his particular line. He is a finished, practical workman, all his work being warranted.

NAZRO SMITH weighs 230 lbs., and rides his own horse. Beware of a man by the name of Walker, who is a jack-legged Carpenter by trade, and is now meandering in Oregon, pretending to be a Clock-repairer. NAZRO SMITH is doing good work, even in Salem at present. NAZRO SMITH.
