

TO THE ELECTORS OF CLACKAMAS CO.

Notice is hereby given that the Union Committee of Clackamas County have nominated Mr. ARTHUR WARNER, of Oregon City, as a candidate for the Legislature from this county in place of Owen Wade, resigned. The election will be on the 20th of November, 1885.

W. W. BUCK, Ch'n of Co. Com.

THE DAILY MAIL.—The Oregonian has a telegram from Senator Williams, to the effect that the mail contract has been let to Wells, Fargo & Co. The figures are understood to be $25,000, though not stated in the dispatch.

The statement, though essentially true, is a little different from the fact. Wells, Fargo & Co., by their charter, are prohibited from running stages, and therefore could not take the contract; but Louis McLane, who is the head of Wells, Fargo & Co., and also of the Pioneer Stage Company of California, did take it, and it has since, by an arrangement with the California Stage Company, been divided into two routes—Lincoln to Yreka and Yreka to Portland. The California Stage Company has relinquished the route altogether, and Wells, Fargo & Co. (or the Pioneer Company) are to run the line to Yreka, while a new company, known as the "Oregon Stage Company," is to run to Yreka from Portland.

ELLENDALE WOOLLEN COMPANY.—The stockholders of this Company have recently decided to double the capital stock of the Company, making it now $200,000. The machinery has mostly arrived and been set up, and had not a small part of it been lost on the Brother Jonathan, the mill could now be making cloth. As it is, no weaving can be done until the loss is supplied. The order has gone by telegraph for the articles to be shipped by way of the isthmus, and the whole can be put into operation within the next ninety days. The card for rolls is now working, and the farmers around are beginning to find it a convenience.

PARADE LOST.—Bachelier's great painting of Paradise lost will be exhibited at the Theatre, Salem, on the evening of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, of this week, and at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, for the special accommodation of persons residing at a distance in the country. This great painting has been pronounced the finest exhibition ever brought to the country, by all who have witnessed it. It has drawn crowded houses for six or eight nights in succession in Portland. See the advertisement in another column. It is the only exhibition of the kind in the world, and this is the only chance you will ever have to see it.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.—The Oregon Printing and Publishing Company have disposed of their entire interest in the Oregon Agriculturist to A. L. Simon and A. C. Schwab, by whom it will hereafter be published. Messrs. Simon and Schwab are well known practical printers, and we wish them success in their new undertaking.

THE STATESMAN IS OPPOSED TO NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—The Statesman has expressed its opinion plainly upon this the most important question of the day, while the Oregonian, with its usual want of manly frankness, is waiting to see which way it will be prudent to jump. We are content to have our opinions and do not everybody know them, even if they do not accord with those of some of our friends. We are also content to let the Oregonian shrink this, as it has every other question of magnitude, and by publishing a clipped paragraph, now on this side and now on that, and carefully saying nothing itself, convince both the suffrage and anti-suffrage men that it is with them. Exactly so.

THE AMERICAN GOLD AND SILVER MINING COMPANY.—The organization of the 24th instant by electing the following Directors, viz: J. P. Lewis, J. A. Chapman, J. W. P. Huntington, J. R. Moore, and C. M. Cartwright. The Company has some leads upon the extreme north fork of the Santiam, or rather in the high ridge which divides the Santiam from the Molalla and Clackamas—known under various names, as the "Gibbs," the "Tracy," the "Monitor," etc. The small stream near which they are located is known as "Gold Creek." The stockholders think they have a "big thing," and we hope they have.

A STRANGE PROCEEDING.—Some days ago a crockery merchant of this place quietly left town, ostensibly for San Francisco. A day or so after he had left, the man in charge of the store commenced selling it out, in pursuance of orders. It is said, and we hold, fifteen dollars worth of goods for one dollar and a half. The entire stock, said to have been worth about two thousand dollars, was thus disposed of, in a few hours, for about two hundred and fifty. Common sense would have dictated that the goods be offered at auction, and then the proprietor of the money would have received something near a fair value.

STEAMER MAIL.—The Oregonian advocates a steamer mail, weekly, at $125,000 per year. Such a mail would be an advantage in the winter to all the country north of Eugene, because it would often bring newspapers quicker, and always in better condition, than if sent overland. In summer, the overland service is every way preferable. The figure which it is proposed to give is outrageously extravagant, and ought not to be thought of for a moment.

LOW WATER.—The Willamette is so low that steamboat navigation above this place is suspended. The Relief left here for Corvallis on the 23d, but after going up the river about four miles, was compelled to return, the water on the bar being altogether too shallow to allow her passing. Boats continue to arrive daily from below, but they come light and with much difficulty.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Rev. Boykin will address the people on temperance to-morrow evening at the Methodist Church. The Members of Capitol Lodge are requested to meet at their Hall at a quarter to seven o'clock. D. C. PEACOCK, W. C. T.

EP Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Dressing. You cannot be bald or grey, and neither time nor sickness can blanch your Hair, if you use them. Sold by all Druggists.

AGENTS, Hostetter, Smith & Dean, San Francisco.

LARGE TERRACE.—John Keizer left at the Statesman office a lot of turnips, one of which measured 27 inches in circumference, the seed of which was sown on the 20th of August.

MEAT MARKET.—Messrs Newman and Crump are running both the "City," and People's markets, and furnish nice meats at low rates.

GILBERT.—We believe that it is a fact that Gilbert—if not like the doctor, "—on" fits,"—is at least will be to "give you joy," and sell his boots and shoes for less money than any other man in town.

CHARLES JACKSON, a convict in the Penitentiary, has been pronounced insane and sent to the Insane Asylum.

MISTAKEN OCT.—We are informed that Capt. Crandall's company of Oregon Volunteers has been mustered out of the service.

FOOTBALL.—A couple of these chaps undertook to rob Mr. Case near Battelle, when Case drew his revolver on them, and scattered them.

THE established and well known firm of J. H. and I. H. Moore, in this town, have sold their stock of goods to Bartle and Bryman.

AT a meeting held in Eola, Polk county, Oct. 28th, 1885, for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention, the following proceedings were had: J. H. Chapman was chosen chairman and J. G. Gait was secretary. The following were elected delegates to the County Convention: H. M. Clark, J. Pearce, Eben Holston, D. D. Prentiss, D. L. Riggs, P. C. Gibson, W. H. Vandervort, J. L. Gwin. The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That this meeting is in favor of the repeal of the Specific Contract law.

Special Notices.

Luxuriant Growth and Beauty to the Hair.

Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Dressing. The great unequalled Preparations for Restoring, Invigorating, Beautifying, and Dressing the Hair.

Also, that Mrs. Gimes, sister-in-law of Major Elmhurst, and Mrs. Brown, discovered the preparations of Lake Majesty to the water's edge.

Also Capt. Sprague arrived at Fort Klamath, a few days since, from Camp Abundant. He thinks the farmers of this valley will reap great reward by that route being opened up to Owyhee and other mining camps.

OUR FISHERIES.—An exchange states that Oregon sends salmon to the Sandwich Islands, receiving ten dollars per barrel. From British Columbia she receives a like commodity and pays fifteen dollars per barrel. The merchants who do that with doubtless grow rich (7).

NOT CORRECT.—It is not true, as heretofore supposed, that the State Printer is unable to purchase enough paper to go in order to further some little private speculation with that office.

THE Oregonian carried out $338,000 on the last day from Portland.

New York, Oct. 22.—The Herald's Washington special dispatch says that the letter received at the Indian Bureau to-day from Fort Snelling, October 6th, says that the Commissioners dispatched to treat with the Indians of that section have arrived, but only a few Indians were at the fort.

New York, Oct. 22.—The Herald's Baltimore correspondent says the ordinance repealing the rebel laws passed by the North Carolina State Convention by a vote of 84 to 12. The ordinance for the purpose of raising a militia force to suppress outlaws, was also passed. The Convention adjourned to meet again on the 15th of next May.

Election matters are beginning to be agitated. Governor Holden and Jonathan Worth, the present State Treasurer, are both out to-day as candidates for Governor. Worth will be supported by the accession element, but he is a strong Union man, and in the legislature of 1860 voted against calling a Convention to take the State out of the Union.

A CAPITALIST VISITING SANTIAGO.—From Mr. Poage we learn that a gentleman by the name of Victor (we do not remember his first name), who represents a large amount of San Francisco capital, has gone up to take a look at the Santiam mines. We understand that he is either prepared to purchase mines now, or make contracts for the disposal of mining interests in San Francisco. Thus, step by step, do we see that our mines are forcing themselves upon the attention of the public. We hope to soon see the day when such enterprising men as Col. I. R. Moore and his associates, who have boldly and patiently, though at heavy expense, pioneered the development of these mines, will reap a large reward for their risks and labors.

THE most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, traveling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the facts, incidents, and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it: "A great many lives will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, aims, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the slaveholder's rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of this brave soldier."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially retired and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of a ready and profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. R. Hammer, who has opened a general agency office in this place. Much complaint is made about the Perry, on the Willamette river, at this place. It does not run after sundown at all, and has not even a stiff set foot-passengers after night. Such a state of things is intolerable.
