

The Oregon Statesman.

VANCOUVER.—We following items we take from the Register:

A meeting has been called at Vancouver to take steps to construct a wagon road from the neighborhood of the Dalles, to the mouth of Coweet river, on the W. T. side.

The Vancouver people need a provision, feed and vegetable store; and also a good Hotel.

The Register contains an article to prove that Vancouver is a better place for a City than Portland, and shows that while the Orizans could not go to Portland, recently, on account of the sand bars in the Willamette, the steamer could have easily gone up Vancouver.

Special orders Nos. 35 and 37 of Colonel G. B. Curry are placed in our hands by the courtesy of Capt. Samson A. A. General. By these the order directing 2d Lt. C. Hobart to report at this post for the purpose of being mustered out of service is rescinded, and he is discharged the service so as to accept promotion to a 1st Lieutenant. Capt. P. B. Johnson is relieved as Assistant Quartermaster of Volunteers, and Lt. J. F. Nole takes his place. Lt. R. H. Porter, 14th Infantry, and Company B of that regiment, is ordered to Cape Disappointment for duty.

Capt. and Brevet-Lt. Col. R. F. O'Brien 14th Infantry, with Company E, is ordered to Fort Lapwai to relieve Company H, Oregon Infantry, which is ordered to Fort Dullies to be mustered out of service. Captain and Brevet Col. S. Ross, 14th Infantry, with Company F, is ordered to Fort Steilacoom to relieve Company C, Oregon Infantry, which will report to Vancouver or for the purpose of being mustered out of service. Company D, California Infantry, now at Camp Curry, is ordered relieved by Company H, 14th Infantry, under Lt. Col. and Brevet Major F. W. Perry.

The Cincinnati Commercial has a correspondent who writes from Montgomery, Ala. August 10:

"White are illing about, thumb in mouth, it may be doing a vast amount of head-work, but not a single stroke of the more practical sort, needed here in these times. Labor with the hands. But the negroes are all at work, except now and then a few stragglers who are looking for work. You will be told by those sangue-suckers, leading about their 'chopping straws' and calling it politics, that the negroes won't work. It's a lie! We're tired enough of hearing that slander. The negroes are at work, all of them but those who are seeking work, and not only that, but they are the only natives here that have begun already to show a spirit of enterprise. You see them busy, active, hopeful, when their fore-fathers are listless and despondent."

Jacob Strawn of Jacksonville, Ill., one of the largest landholders in the country, died recently. He went to Illinois thirty-five years ago, with a silver half dollar in his pocket, having previously entered 500 acres of land, and when he died he owned 35,000 acres of land, valued at $1,500,000. Mr. Strawn was a man of great industry, thorough loyalty and rare generosity. At one time during the war he gave $10,000 to the Illinois sanitary commission. He was excessively corpulent, weighing some 350 pounds, and his death was hastened by his obesity. He left a widow a native of England, three sons living in Illinois, one of whom a Presbyterian clergyman, and a daughter, who is at school in Boston.

Francis Allston Channing, a young American, and son of Rev. William Henry Channing, has this year won an honor second to none at the Oxford University in England. He gained the "Chancellor's Prize" for the best English essay. This prize is open for competition to all students of the university, and, as a test of talent and scholarly acquirements, the winning of it places the successful candidate in the first rank of students.

The Atlantic Mail Steamship Company has just declared an annual dividend of $1,000,000 on a cash capital of $2,000,000 and a nominal capital of $4,000,000.
