DEMOCRATS ON EDUCATION.

A leading Demoorat has taken exception to our remark last week, that the Democrado party was "opposed to public schools for the poor." That is rather a heavy charge against any party that declares in its platform that it is favor of religion, temperance, civilization, etc., etc. Yet, notwithstanding all that, our statement is the truth. Our friend stated that he had olipped out our statement and intended to read it to his friends over in Yambill. That is all right ; and to make it interesting to his friends over in Yambill, we will make another statement, vis : that the Democratic party of Oregon is against public schools for the poor. And we prove that statement in this way : Jas. O'Meara (Dennis J. O'Meara, according to the New York papers) is the editor of a Democratio newspaper, A. Noltner is the ed-itor of another Democratio newspaper, M. II. Abbott is is the editor of another Democratio newspaper. At the recent State Convention of the Demoorney, it became necessary to choose one of these three editors for the office of State Printer, who, if elected, would publish the official paper of the State," and become, in fact, the organ of the Democratic party of Oregon. The Democratic Convention chose Mr. O'Mears for the office named by a large majority over the other two gentlemon, and thereby designated the said O'Mears and his paper, the State Rights Democrat, as the organ of the Democracy. Now then, what of the said O'Meara : First, Jas. O'Meara is a Roman Catholie, if not by membership, at least in spirit and teaching, but we believe he is a member of the Church of Rome. That Church teacher that it is a heresy and a grievous sin. not to be borne with, to patronize or sustain what is known by the general term of our common school system—the public schools for the poor, for everybody. True to this teaching of that Church, Mr. O'Meara does, in his paper. the said State Rights Democrat, the said dosignated organ of the Oregon Democracy, oppose our system of common, public schools for the poor. A short time ago he approvingly published a long article from some Roman Casholic paper of New York, trying to prove that the "public schools for the poor" of New York were nothing else than hot-beds of all manner of vice and immorality, and landing to the skies the Catholic schools-the private sco-tarian schools of that Church. In his paper, Mr. O'Mears has repeatedly puffed and oulogized the private, sectarian. Catholic schools of Oregon, all of which are taught by aliens and strangers ; but we have yet to see a good word in his paper for any of our private Protestant schools. (We have no particular ob-jection to Catholio Schools, but in so far as they do good we are in favor of encouraging them. Our objection herein consists, not in opposition to Catholic schools, but opposition to the men who favor Catholic schools to the exclusion of all others, and especially to the exclusion of free schools for the poor.) More than that, we distinctly remember, as does also our friend who proposes to read this article to his friends over in Yambill, that Mr. O'Meara not long age pablicly denounced in his paper, the said organ of the Democracy, a school taught in Albany by a lady, as a very had place. We do not know whether that school was the pub-lie school of Albany or not, but we do know that it was not a sectarian school. More than this ; if Mr. O'Mears is a good Roman Catholin, and we believe that he is, he believes and is bound to support the doctrine opnosiated in the Pope's late celebrated "Encyclical Letter." to-wit : that there ought to be a Union between the Church and the State, and that the union aught to exist between the Church of Rome and our Government. (That is not the langauge of the letter, but it is the plain meaning of it.) Now then, if Mr. State Rights Democrat O'Meara is a good Catholic, he is bound to support and promulgate that doctrine of the Pope's --- a doctrine hatfoll to true democracy. edious to true republicanism, and an enemy of our free Constitution, our free laws and Amer-ican institutions, and the destroyer of public ducation, public virtue, civilization and Christinnity. We assert that this record, and these public. political views of Mr. O'Mears and his paper, vere well known to that Democratic Conven-tion, and that, knowing them, they set aside two other gentlemen, neither of whom enteranti-democratic views, and put him forth as its expenses and to represent the views of said Convention, and that if said O'Mears should be elected State Printer to the State of Oregon, he would, in the "official paper of the State." continue in the fature, as in the past, to oppose continue in the fature, as in the past, to appose "public schools for the poor;" and there-fare, the conclusion that the Oregor De-mocracy " is opposed to public schools for the poor." We can obserfully say, in this connec-tion, that we know that the gentleman who finds fault with our statement in this matter most every effort possible to defeat the nomi-mation of the said O'Meara; but we can inform has Mr. O'Means reles the party to which he belongs-he is in fact its distator-and if men will cast in their political influence with a party that Jas. O'Mears owns and controls, at hear the edium that attaches to such a party, and it is no concern of ours. While we regret to see men throwing away their votes and influence, in the value effort to elevate to and inframes, in the vais effort to clevate to power men of the worst metires and principles, any whim they inwordly execute and openly demonstone, in order to maintain a political or-gualaties which the coverd march of public opinion has forever damned and consigned with the srime of slaver to the tomb of oblivion, yet are present regard for such men can never proved in from telling them of their error in there is the second account of the second We will support no party, nor never did, that will fall to defend the flag of our country when our friend to the disparity of education among the masses, and the opposition to public schools in the Democratic communities of the South, and many other similar facts, to prove the point we make, but space will not permit at this time.

THE ADAMS ROBBERS CAUGHT.

It will be gratifying to the many friends of Hon. W. L. Adams, Collector of Customs for the District of Oregon, to learn that at least two of the thieves engaged in robbing him of $20,500 of Government gold, on the steamer Oregon, while on his way from Astoria to San Francisco, have seen arrested, and over ten thousand dollars of the money recovered. The following letter and telegraphic dispatches from Capt. Lees, of the San Francisco police, will fully explain the pres-ent condition of the case. The man Lambert referred to in the letter and dispatches, was a wait er on the steamer, and had the care and cleaning of Mr. Adams's room. He is a sharp, cunning Scotchman, and reported to be an educated thief from London. The Copporhead bounds who have been yelping at the heels of Mr. Adams ever since his misfertune, will now have an opportunity of doing justice to an innocent, honest man, and, if they have a spark of honor in them, they will make haste to do so. The following are the letter and dispatches re ferred to:

POLICE OFFICE, San Francisco, March 20, 1866. ( W. L. ADAMS, Esq., Collector, &c. - Dear Sir.

W. L. ADAMS, Esq., Collector, & ... Dear Sir: The investigation concerning your robbery has been dilgently prosecuted, and I am fully satis-fied that Lambert, the flunkoy, is the thief. He escaped my search for him on the steamer Ameri-ca, which left here March 15, by the assistance of some of his friends who belonged to the ship. I have got more facts since he left, and sent a letter asking Superintendent Kannedy to arrest him in New York, and secure the coin if possible. I sent one copy by the overland mail of March 17th, and another by the steamer of March 19th. I told Kennedy to telegraph if he succeeds, and that I would send a requisition. If I could have com-manded mensy to pay for doing so, I would have tolegraphed to Kennedy be fore Lambert ar-rives in New York. I remain yours, respectfully, J. W. LEES.

LATER BY TELEGRAPH.

LATER BY TELEGRAPH. SAN FRANCISCO, 13th April. W. L. ADAMS, Collector, Astoria—I have Lam-bert arrested in New York. Four thousand saven hundred ($4,700) gold was found on him. It will cost twelve hundred ($1200) to bring him back.— Send immediately draft by telegraph for that amount to me, otherwise the prisoner will be dis charged and the mouny returned, as the New York police will not advance the funds. Imme-diately on receipt of your draft I shall procure the papers and have him brought out. J. W. LEES, Capt. of Police.

STILL LATER BY TELEGRAPH.

STILL LATER BY TELEGRAPH. SAN FRANCISCO, April 14th. W. L. ADAMS, Collector, Astoria-I have ar-rested the Porter of the steamer Orogon, and have recovered five thousand six hundred ($5,600) in addition to what was recovered in New York. I shall tranamit twelve hundred (1200) dollars to-morrow to bring out Lambert. J. W. LEES, Capt. of Police.

EXPOSING A VILLAIN .- A card in another colun from the Baptist Church of this place, brings to light the real character of one of the biggest humbugs, greatest knaves, and downright scoundreis ever let loose on earth. Rev. W. F. Boya-kin " stolo the livery of heaven, to serve the davil in," and a blacker villain than he has proved himself to be, does not probably disgrace humanity. Being compelled to leave the church here last winter, because of the reports that were circulated as to his licentiousness, and the deadening effact which his very presence exercised on the prospects of the church, he sought and found food.

TO YOU.' 10. Resolved. That we will ever hold in grateful me

The following poem was published in the Boston Rewhich adopted the above resolution as a part o

seir platform, at their late Convention in Portland :

Twill be no thanks to you, good air; Twill be no thanks to you, good air; Twill be no thanks to you, Whot our troops come marching home from war; The Red, the White, the Bibo Still floating o'er them like a cloud Of glory as they come; While a mation's blessing, long and loud, Shall shout their welcome home.

O, then 'twill be no thanks to you; You frowned upon their buil; At best 'twas folly, in your view, Until you saw the spoil. You sighed and looked amazing wise At justice's long detay. And talked about a " compromise" To keep the bounds at bay.

To keep the hounds at bay. O. yes, 'twill be no thanks to you; You perver spoke one word. When hearts and hands and all were due, That I have ever heard— One cheering word of sympathy. One patriolic prayer, One word of failt and hope, to be A charm against despair.

"Twill be no thanks to you, good sir; "Twill be no thanks to you;

'Twill be no thanks to you; When our troops come marching home from war; The Red, the White, the Blue Still floating o'er them like a cloud Of glory as they come, While a nation's blessing, long and loud, Shall shout their welcome home.

Still floating ofer them like a cloud Of glory as they come,
While a nation's blessing, long and loud.
Shall shout their welcome home.
While a nation's blessing, long and loud.
Shall shout their welcome home.
We you shall reap what we have sowed;
A country shall be yours:
For heroes blood in streams has flowed,
A richness that endures.
Go, eat the fat and drink the sweet
Bought by the brave soul true,
And yet remember, as yon eat,
It is no thanks to you!
READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS.-A great number of persons never read the advertisements.
You do yourself a great injustice in not doing so. We venture to say that we read more newspapers than any of our readers, and yet we find the most interesting reading matter in the advertisements published in the Statesman. Just look at it. They tell yon what your neighbor look at it. They tell you what your neighbor is doing, what he proposes to do, and how the thing is to be done. We ventore to say that, if some gossip was to go and circulate privately. under the injunction of "you must never breathe it," a tenth part of what our advertisements tell freely, you would be vastly interested in the matter. If we were to tell you privately that there was a very important matter advertised in the Statesman, which has never been mentioned in the Oregon papers before, which is of vast importance to every man, and which will make him richer than any farm in the valley if he heeds it, you would scarcely believe us; but yet it is the fact, and you will find it in another column, under the head of this proverb of Job, "A good man provideth au inheritance."

Then, again, many of our advertisements show great literary merit ; and in reading them you can not only hear the cash jingle, but the words jingle equal to Shakepere. Take, for instance, the advertisement of our mutual friends, Smith & Wade, in another column. Read it over. It is absolutely refreshing in these dall, hum-dram days. Why it heat's OHIO REAPER Longfellow's " Hiawatha " all to smash, leaves Byron's "Childe Harold" entirely in the shade. while "Nothing to Wear" is made ridiculous by comparison. Smith or Wade is not only a
