Staats triumphantly called for a reply by a Union man, when antly called for a reply by a Union man, when, party, the cause of which he is perhaps the greatly to his surprise, a plain, honest farmer, most effective apologist, now belongs every named George Bell, arose for the cause of his traitor in the land—every bloody handed vio country. From a Quaker meeting the audience was soon transformed into a glorious Union it holds to, and maintains the whole system of rally. As Mr. Bell proceeded with his honest depraved doctrines, sentiments and principles facts and patriotic eloquence to strip the treasonable rigmarole of the two copperheads, of so called Democratic mind and morals. The their falsehoods and misrepresentation, the lowest instincts and practices of the wretched house came down with rousing cheers for the Union. And when he turned upon the Cop-

People are now learning that onable organization in this county, known as Kelly has been terribly overrated in Oregon. the "Jones Family." to give names at a prop-Instead of displaying the consideration, moderation, and sound sense with which he has been nominations, knowing as we did that the credited, he shows that he has been entirely "Joneses" controlled the action of the party,

FORT LAPWAL I. T., May 12, 1866.

The Volunteers at this post have been anxiously expecting to be discharged from the service in time to do some work for the Union cause at the coming election, and still hope it may turn out so, but have good reason to think it quite ancertain. The Copperhead Platform has made its appearance at the garrison, and I can assure the Cops that that perion of it which was meant for us is appreciated. Of course we have forgotten all the malevolent epithets applied to the soldier by them, such as "Lincoin dogs," "Abolition thieves, robbers, nurderers," etc.! We do not remember that President Lincoin was characterized by them as "Lincoin was derers," etc.! We do not remember that I dent Lincoln was characterized by them as unfit to govern a free people, as a traitor and tyrant! Soldiers have no notion of the fact that it was to the wicked influence of the copperheads in the North his assassination was principally due! All this have we forgotten! principally due! All this have we lorgosten, and appreciate most sensibly that insulting, which insulting which insulting with the loth resolution of the which is satured as which insulting with the loth resolution of the sow. The Albany Journal says: , We promised our readers when we first diration, and sound sense with which he has been circled. The shows that he has been entirely broken down, has become desperate and reckless of his acts and opinions. This is the sure reward to all those who engage in the advocacy of a bad cause. On the other hand Gov. Woods, by his uniform courtesy and gentlemanly conduct on the stump, his dignified and logical appeals to the reason of voters, has made himself hosts of friends. He has already literally used up Kelly.

A FANTASTIC CUSS.—O'Fay, the Democratic candidate for Congress is a "phanny" fellow. When he resided in Astoria, some years ago, he was in the habit of getting drank and marching through the streets with whole boits of gandy ribbon tied on his hat and arms and around his body. We have this from one who witnessed his anties.—Albany Journal.

Lockhart, who is the Union nominee for Coos and Curry, is a most excellent man, with all the requisite qualifications to ably represent the growing interests of that part of the State. With the candidates east of the mountains we have no acquaintance. We have a letter from Umanilia assuring us that the Union men are almost sure of carrying that county. It ought to be redeemed from copperhead misrule.

Let the Union men in every county go to work in earnest for their county tickets. The Legislative and county interests are very important, and ought to command the attention of the law and order, permanent citizens.
