The campaign wasn’t worth doing, and it wasn’t worth fighting over. The loss wouldn’t be a direct cause of the loss of the nomination or the loss of the Senate seat, it would be a catastrophe that would change the course of history and boil down to the fact that Mr. Washington is less popular than Mr. Douglas. And Mr. Douglas has been in the Senate longer, and has served more creditably than the New Age’s present Senator. So far in the campaign, the New Age’s Senator has been a conservative and a mediocrity, and it is the only one of the candidates who can do anything for the state. In the New Age’s opinion, Mr. Washington is no worse, and perhaps not as bad, as Mr. Douglas, but he is certainly not as good. And in the eyes of the people of the whole county, and throughout the state, the New Age’s Senator is more conservative and more popular in the county, and the New Age is sure that he will be re-elected, and that he will be his party’s nominee for the Senate in 1923.
